RECREATION SCHOOL TO GIVE SPECIAL PROGRAM

Miss Vera Lee Thornton and Miss Catherine Cressman, recreational leaders, have planned a program to be given by the children from the play ground on Friday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at the teachers' room. The program will include selections from the rhythm band from the younger group and folk dances by the teenagers. They will also present songs and singing games and other activities from their recreation program.

This will be the July meeting of the Woman's Club. Each member is urged to be present and bring visitors and new members.

Girl Scouts will be on hand to take care of children so that mothers might attend the meeting.

MISS JOANNE SUTTON WEDS FRANKLIN MORGAN

Miss Joanne Sutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington P. Sutton of Lillington became the bride of Franklin Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Morgan of Angler in a ceremony on Saturday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock in the McPherson Presbyterian Church in Fayetteville.

Rev. J. F. Menius, former pastor of the bride, officiated.

Floral baskets of white gladioli against a background of smilax, fern and ivy interspersed by candelabra holding tall white tapers formed a beautiful setting for the speaking of the vows.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Caviness Brown, organist, played "Calm As The Night" (Bohm). Miss Doris Sutton, sister of the bride, sang "I Love Thee" (Greig). "To A Wild Rose" (MacDowell) was played softly during the ceremony. Traditional wedding marches completed the musical program.

Miss Doris Sutton, soloist, wore a white gabardine suit with green hat and accessories. Her corsage was of peach gladioli.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a grey wool crepe suit with black and white accessories. She wore a corsage of orchids. Her hat was an off-the-face model featuring a bow at the back.

Miss Dorothy Sutton as maid of honor wore a white gabardine suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of white orchid gladioli.

Mr. Morgan had as his best man his brother, Sam Morgan of Angler. Pat Sutton, brother of the bride was usher.

Mrs. Sutton, mother of the bride, was attired in black and wore a corsage of orchid asters. The mother of the groom wore black with a corsage of blue asters.

Mrs. Morgan, one of Lillington's most popular younger women, is well-known throughout this section, and has been extended numerous social courtesies since the announcement of her engagement. She was graduated from Lillington High School. She also attended East Carolina Teachers College, Greenville and Peace College, Raleigh. She recently attended Central Airline and Television School in Kansas City, Missouri, where she received a degree in teletype.

Mr. Morgan is a graduate of Angler High School. He served in the Navy of the United States. He attended a Naval Academy in Wilmington for three years. Since his discharge he has been manager of the Lyric Theatre in Lillington, where he has made a host of friends.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. Upon their return they will occupy an apartment in the home of Mrs. B. Currin.

Guests at the wedding included the immediate families and relatives.

Out of town guests who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. Horace Johnson of Raleigh, Miss Lucretia Kistler of Charlotte, Mrs. T. R. Brown and Tommy Brown, Mrs. Charles Ross, Mrs. A. W. Wood, Miss Edith Wood, Mrs. B. F. Poythress and Bo-Peep Poythress, Miss Jean McKay, Nellie Ray Johnson all of Lillington, and Emmet Byrd of Bunnlevel.
