CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our friends and neighbors for their kind expression of sympathy during the death of our husband and father. No words can express our deep appreciation. Mrs. M. C. Smith and children.

PATTERSON-HOGAN

Miss Allegra Mae Hogan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hogan of Ellerbe, and Robert Patterson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Patterson of Marners, were married Saturday, August 23, at 5 p. m., in the Ellerbe Baptist church.

Rev. C. E. Ruffin of Broadway officiated using the double ring ceremony.

Candelabra holding Cathedral tapers, white gladioli, white dahlias, pine, ivy and fern decorated the church.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. E. G. Waddell, Jr., of Ansonville, played "Liebestraum", "Poem", and "The Venetian Love Song". Miss Bettie Ann Horton of Ellerbe sang "The Sweetest Story Every Told", and "Because". At the close of the ceremony Miss Horton sang "The Lord's Prayer." The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was used for the processional and during the ceremony "Melody of Love" was played. Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was used as a recessional.

Edward Hogan of Wingate, brother of the bride, lighted the tapers. The bride and bridegroom entered together. The bride wore a powder blue dress, fashioned with draped skirt, wide brim hat and white accessories. Her flowers were white orchids. Her only jewelry was a gold watch, gift of the bride-groom.

Mrs. Hogan, the bride's mother, wore a blue flowered crepe dress with a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

Following the ceremony a reception was given in the Hogan home. The home was beautifully decorated in a green and white motif. The couple left for a wedding trip of unannounced destination after the reception.

The bride received her education at the Ellerbe schools, Wingate Junior College and East Carolina Teachers College. For the past two years she has been teaching in the Benhaven school, Olivia. Prior to that time she taught in Richmond and Harnett counties.

The bridegroom is a prominent farmer of near Lillington. He received his education at the Boone Trail school.

The out-of-town guests included: Mrs. W. L. Scott of Durham, Miss Helen Sears of Apex, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hogan of Wingate, Mrs. Mildred McKay, Miss Gaynelle Hogan, Mrs. S. J. Husketh, and Miss Gertrude Campbell of Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ruffin of Broadway, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Patterson, Mrs. Fannie Bernard, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. O'Quinn, Rev. and Mrs. R. E.
