Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Geo. A. Matton.

Gold's Cause Pneumonia.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind. who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by W. A. Ring.

Millionaire's Poor Stomach.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. W. A. Ring.

CONDENSED STORIES.

The Origin of a Witticism at the Expense of "The Watchdog."

That history repeats itself was brought out in the senate debate last winter on breeding stations, when Senator Bailey, Democrat, of Texas alluded to Speaker Reed's bonnet at the expense of Judge Holman of Indiana, "the watchdog of the treasury." Mr. Bailey said the wittiest and bitterest thing Reed ever said was when an appropriation that came very near Holman's home was up and the old judge was remarkably silent about it and Reed said, "The watchdog never barks at home folks."

"That was said," interrupted Senator Hoar, "in 1869 or 1870, when I first came into the house."

Mr. Bailey was sure the remark had been made later, while he was himself a member of the house, which was many years after Mr. Hoar went over to the senate. The Texas senator appealed to Senator Lodge, who was a member of the house at the time. Lodge nodded his head to confirm Bailey's story.

Then Senator Hoar arose and said the witticism originated when E. B. Washburn was a member of the house. He, too, was a "watchdog." He had not objected to a bill passed by his brother, Cadwallader, who was a member at the same time from Wisconsin. "Some one," said Mr. Hoar, "asked the speaker, James G. Blaine, if the representative from Illinois had objected. 'No,' said Mr. Blaine; "the watchdog does not bark when one of the family passes by."

All He Could Carry.

John Kernell, the noted Irish comedian, liked in his prime to go back to Ireland, whence he would often bring material, gathered in alehouses and on the highroads, that afterward served him well in dialogue upon the stage.

"HE CAN HARDLY CARRY WHAT LITTLE THERE IS ON HIM NOW."

Kernell once said at a little supper party in Boston that he had met on a summer day in Galway an Irishman driving a horse so thin that it staggered as it walked.

"Why don't you put more flesh on that nag?" Kernell exclaimed indignantly.

"More, is it?" the Irishman answered. "Why, by the powers, don't you see that the poor creature can hardly carry what little there is on him now?"—Colorado Springs Gazette.

Placing Him.

A friend of H. C. Frick, the Pittsburgh millionaire, was discussing his tastes and mannerisms. He said:

"Mr. Frick loves dearly a good, strong sermon, and in an equal degree he hates a sermon that is carelessly composed and insincere. Sitting beside him in church one day, I got a good manifestation of this latter trait of his.

"The minister was talking about a foreign divine who had died, but his mind didn't seem to be fixed on his subject very firmly. He wandered on and on in a wordy way, like this:

"What place, my brethren, shall we assign to the deceased? Was he the greatest of the apostles? Ah, no; for that place belongs to St. Peter. Was he the greatest of saints? No; for that place belongs to St. Augustine. Was he the greatest of philanthropists? No; for in philanthropy St. Francis excelled him. Then, I repeat, what place— "Oh, give him my place and get on," I heard Mr. Frick mutter to himself, with an impatient frown."

Weak Hearts

due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Mr. D. Knable, of Nevada, O., says: "I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me."

Kodol Digests What You Eat and relieves the stomach of all nervous strain and the heart of all pressure.
