The Republican Hand Book.

THE Republican claims that Chairman Cartelyou was more than ready for the Campaign [seems to be] part true. The work of making up committees and getting out literature which is generally done in a rush was practically accomplished a month ago. The hand book prepared by the committee is ready to send out. The following is a synopsis of it:

"The four great facts which justified the Republican party in asking the support of the public in 1900 were: First, that its pledges of 1896 had been redeemed; second, that prosperity had come as a result; third, that developments since 1896 had shown the fallacy of the principles upon which the Democracy then appealed for public support, and fourth, the conditions which had come to other parts of the world and their people as a result of promises fulfilled by the Republican party in the United States. These assertions made in the text book of 1900 have been fully justified by the added experiences of another four years. The pledges of 1896 and those made in 1900 have been redeemed. The protective tariff has been restored; the gold standard made permanent Cuba freed and given independence; the Panama canal assured under the sole ownership and control of the United States; a Department of commerce and Labor established; rural free delivery given to millions of agricultural communities; the laws for the proper regulation of trusts and great corporations strengthened and enforced; prosperity established; commerce developed; labor protected and given ample employment and reward; intelligence, prosperity and good government established in distant islands, and the flag of the United States made the emblem of honor in every part of the world.

All of these great accomplishments have been the work of the Republican party. In each of them it has met the discouragement, the opposition, and the hostilities of the Democracy. It is upon this additional evidence of the past four years, evidence that the Republican party is the party of progress and the Democracy the party of inaction, retardment, and fault-finding, that the Republican party again confidently appeals for public support in the presidential and congressional elections of 1904.

A Card.

Editor of Enterprise:— Thinking perhaps that some of our neighbor citizens as well as our own, might criticise our Water Works and Fire Company, I beg to correct statement made in your paper of last issue, saying that there were only two lines of hose that played on the fire at the Southern Chair Company. There were six, and I would like also to say that I never saw better work done. There was perfect harmony and the Company did credit to itself.

One who was there.

Josephus Jones was out of fix, The world was out of tune, "My biz," said he, "is in a mix, My head is full of Rheum." His face was swollen, drawn and sad, His eye had lost its light, "If things don't mend I'll soon be mad," Declared the broken wright. "Alas, alas, dear wife," quoth he, "I wish that I were dead, Ill health, starvation, poverty, Are all I see ahead." "Ob, not so bad as that, my dear, I know just what you need, Your liver's wrong, I greatly fear: Let's try some JULY WREED." Jones took his good wife's words as true, And they were true indeed, He's all made over, all made new, He's taking JULY WREED.

July Weed is truly a wonderful remedy Price 50c and $1.00 at all drug stores.

Attention Confederate Veterans!
Those going to the reunion at Asheville, N. C., should leave on the morning train Tuesday, Aug. 30th. They should wear their badges of honor. They should at earliest possible date furnish their names to Adj. W. W. Wood, at the office of Wood and Schenck at No. 113 1/2 South Elm street, Greensboro, N. C. Call there and give your name or send it as early as possible. These things are necessary in order to let the good people of Asheville know how many veterans they will have to get homes for. They will entertain us free of charge and to send them our names is very little for us to do. The railroad fare will be $4.05 for the round trip from Greensboro.
