

The High Point Enterprise.

Vol. XXVIII.

HIGH POINT, GUILFORD COUNTY, N. C., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1905.

No. 8

DID RIGHT

Judge Shaw gave the Farringtons the lightest sentences that the law would allow showing that he did not put much faith in the evidence of Ozement who turned States evidence at the last term of court. We would never convict a man on the evidence of a self confessed criminal as in this case, with no other evidence to back it up.

THE INSURANCE COMPANIES

The two insurance companies promoted by Messrs. W. J. Armfield Sr., and Mr. E. M. Armfield will in all probability be organized soon. Stock is being subscribed very liberally, there being so far about $130,000 taken. These companies will be a great benefit to the community and the State.

"BEERINE" CASE

"Squire Guyer had a 'beerine' case Thursday. E. T. Myers was indicted for selling 4 bottles of the stuff to a young man working in the factory here, who swore that two bottles made him drunk enough to stagger. On this evidence Myers was bound over to court.

The biggest farce ever perpetrated on a community is the sale of this stuff here under the name of "beerine." Let's be honest with ourselves. Stop this business or let the bars down entirely.

MR. PLANETT HERE

Mr. A. E. Tate had two visitors Thursday with whom he has had considerable correspondence. Mr. Planett and associate of Indiana, who contemplate erecting soon a branch factory some where in the South. FOR IMPROVEMENT CEMETERY

There is some talk of creating a cemetery commission here similar to the commission in other towns, whose special duty it is to devise means of beautifying the cemetery. The plan has worked so well in Goldsboro, Wilmington, Charlotte and other places, that the suggestion here has received the approval of many of our citizens.

NOT YET

Better look out how you hunt, these days, the Audubon will get you. Not even a possum is privileged property. Wait for the heavy frosts in November.

Elegant refreshments were served after the ceremony, and a pleasant hour was spent in social chat until train time. The groom was handsomely dressed in conventional black, and the bride never looked lovelier than when she stood at the altar attired in a most becoming traveling dress. May their pathway be strewn with many roses and few thorns!

$175,000

Guilford College Now Has This Endowment.

J. Elwood Cox, Chairman Board of Trustees Guilford College, has just returned from the North where he secured $45,000 for the endowment fund of Guilford, making the necessary amount to secure the gifts of Mr. Carnegie $45,000, and that of Mr. Pearson $25,000. This will make $115,000 in cash that the College will receive at once. Adding to this the present endowment of $60,000 will give Guilford College an endowment of $175,000. This will give quite an impetus to the affairs of this famous school, enabling the trustees to enlarge its usefulness.

"LOVELY OPENING"

Said the Ladies Who Visited the Stores.

The millinery opening of Miss Venetia Smith began Saturday at 7 o'clock and the store has been thronged with ladies all day. Miss Smith now occupies her handsome new store in the Elwood building. The fixtures are all modern and up-to-date in every particular. The cases of handsome oak with plate glass, artistically arranged about the store. The hats this season have been pronounced pretty and stylish. Among the creations attracting attention was a large black picture hat with strings and handsome plume made of silk and velvet.

One of the new peacock feather hats and handsome brown fur were admired very much.

The evening hats were all lovely.

There was also a line of the celebrated Hummel tailored hats on exhibition for which Miss Smith is exclusive agent here. These hats are very stylish.

The opening was a success in every particular.

GOOD ROADS THE TOPIC

JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS TO STUMP VIRGINIA

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 30.—Congressman John Sharp Williams has been invited to visit both Maryland and Virginia, and the Democratic State Executive Committee is especially insistent that he shall visit the latter State and deliver addresses in behalf of Congressman Swanson's candidacy for Governor. It is very likely that Mr. Williams will go to Virginia, delivering his first address at Salem on October 29th.

Greensboro, Oct. 3.—Special.

There were no cases of importance tried in the Federal court yesterday the only matter of especial interest being the refusal of Judge Boyd to continue until today the execution of the sentence of three months imprisonment of D. L. Arey the wealthy distiller of Salisbury. Arey was ordered to be taken to jail, and deputy Brim left with him last night for Salisbury to deliver him into the hands of the jailor of Rowan county, to serve his term. Arey also has to pay over $25,000 in fine and costs, the amount of his distillers bond. He had been given about six months indulgence since his plea of guilty at Statesville court, to arrange his business, escape the hot weather and raise the large amount of cash. When October second arrived Judge Boyd declined to hear to any further extension of the time. Only five thousand dollars of the $25,000 had been paid up to last night.

It is reported that Arey's lawyers have been trying to get the sentence and fine remitted at Washington and were working a sort of a bluff on the court, but it seems that such things have played out in this district at last. The court promises to be a big one if there is any sign in a great number of lawyers. Besides the local bar, there were twenty visiting lawyers here yesterday and more coming on every train.

Capt. W. D. Guthrie, one of the Southern's younger conductors, and son of Capt. C. B. Guthrie, conductor on the Greensboro and Wilkesboro road died at the residence of his parents here at one o'clock yesterday morning, aged twenty-six. Funeral services were held at the residence today at 10 o'clock. Rev. C. E. Hodgin officiating and the interment was at Green Hill cemetery.

Members of the order of Railway Conductors and of the South Side Hose Company acted as pall bearers. Captain Guthrie had been sick for some time suffering from lung trouble. His death is deeply lamented for he was a fine character and an excellent railroad official.

Mr. George H. Royster, general organizer of the endowment rank of K. of P. for the Carolinas has had Virginia added to his field of operations.

Mr. J. B. Ellington who recently sold out his interest in the jewelry business of Bernau & Ellington will open up a new jewelry business this week in the store room in the Benbow hotel block recently vacated by the removal of Wills book store to the Guilford hotel block.

HIGH POINT TRANSFER COMPANY

The good things always come eventually. The business men of the town who have heretofore had to stop their work to look up a team for transfer work are pleased over the arrangement of the High Point Transfer Company, whereby phone service has been established and business can be done with some dispatch. Since Mr. Jesse Harrison has inaugurated this service for the city there has been a great improvement in the transfer service. Any one may reach him at phone No. 225 at any time and calls are answered promptly. We congratulate the town that Mr. Harrison has solved a problem here which has given us all trouble.

PORTRAIT OF GENERAL

ROBERT E. LEE

The fact that too frequently it transpires in American history that no accurate and authentic portrait of her great men is faithfully preserved has caused a number of the devoted admirers of General Robert E. Lee to interest themselves to cause a perfect picture of the great General to be made and to be preserved for all future history.

This work, after a lapse of forty years, is now under way by the John A. Lowell Bank Note Company, of Boston, who are using for this purpose the exact photograph made at General Lee's residence in Richmond a few days after the surrender, which picture has always been considered by the Lee family and friends as the most perfect likeness ever taken of the General at that period.

The work, when finished, will be of the highest art of steel engraving, so that it will thus be preserved for all future time.—Washington Post.

RESULTS

J. Matt Hedgecock advertised his wood-cutting machine in the Daily Enterprise a week and he told us Saturday that as a direct result of the advertisement he has secured orders for 900 cords.

MR. COX APPOINTED

Mr. J. Elwood Cox has received information from Raleigh as one of the marshalls to meet and assist to entertain President Roosevelt during the Fair on the 19th.

OLD HOMESTEAD QUARTETTE OCTOBER 4

The entertainment was furnished by the Old Homestead Male Quartette, and consisted entirely of vocal numbers. The program called for ten numbers, but in addition there were given no less than fourteen others in response to encores. The concert was an unqualified success. The Old Homestead Quartette have not lost their hold upon the public. They retain in the fullest measure the popularity they have enjoyed ever since their appearance.—Danbury News.

GETTING IT RIGHT

The sprinkler kicked on the first round Saturday night and chairman Kirkman did not get as much laid as he intended. The machine is being repaired now and we will soon be in good shape.

GREAT MARKET

A visitor who was here recently to buy stock said that High Point was now the horse market in the Piedmont section. At any time of the year a man can get what he wants from the High Point dealers.

NOT OUR CUSTOMER

Mr. W. J. Armfield was walking down the street this morning when a farmer stopped him and asked: "Can you tell me where the type works are?" Now of course a man's first impression under a question like this would be to send a man to the printing office, but on second thought Mr. Armfield knew that the enquirer meant something else and he tried the experiment and found he was right: He directed him to a photograph gallery.

The farmer wanted a tin type Where would you have sent him?

NEW OFFICERS

At a meeting of the board of governors of the Manufacturers Club Saturday night the following officers were elected: Chas. F. Tomlinson, president; A. E. Tate, secretary and treasurer.
