The Next Best Thing to the Pine Forest for Cold is—
Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey which reaches to the very root of cold troubles. It clears the throat and gives relief from that clogged and stuffed feeling. The pines have ever been the friend of man in driving away colds. Moreover the pine-honey qualities are peculiarly effective in fighting children's colds. Remember that a cold broken

In Memory Of Our Sister.

In the morning of Thursday, August 26th, 1915, after an illness of many weeks, the lovely spirit of our sister, Nettie, was gently borne by the angels, to its Heavenly home, never from pain and care.

A happy waking there must have been, transformed from earth's sorrows to heavenly bliss. Around the great white throne she sits with her little spotless angel. She was a thoughtful, loving, worthy mother and wife, a dutiful daughter and devoted sister.

Her sufferings were great, pain at times was intense, yet she never murmured or complained, and never failed to say, "Thank You" for the smallest favor rendered her during her illness. Every art and skill of physicians, and the faithful nursing of a devoted husband, sisters and friends made her last days so easy that when God's finger touched her she slept.

Nettie's was a beautiful life, so gentle, so kind and sympathetic! In early childhood she united herself with the Union Baptist Church. Here, as long as her health permitted, she was an active and successful leader, being at the time of her death vice president of the W. M. Society, and leader of the Sunbeam Band. So often during her illness she would say, "I wish I could go to church."

On December 30, 1904, she was married to Mr. T. N. Charles, w/o, with one little girl, Antoinette Matthews, is left to mourn the death of a wife and mother, who tried by her love and care to make her home ideal.

Besides a husband and a little girl, she leaves a father and a mother, one brother and four sisters, almost heart-broken.

In the absence of her pastor, Rev. S. N. Watson, the funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. L. Dowell of Ahoskie, N. C., Friday the 27th from the Union Baptist Church. Then amid a cloud of sorrow her body was laid to rest, beside her little boy, Jesse Stanley, in the cemetery in the church yard. Her grave was covered with many beautiful floral offerings.

Time cannot heal our wounded hearts,
Or all the vacant chair,
We miss your dear, kind, smiling face,
We miss you sister, everywhere.
We often sit and think of you
When we are all alone,
For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.
"Was hard to part with one so good,
But God, thy will be done,
With Jesus she has gone to dwell
In that bright and happy home.

Her Devoted Sisters.

The Ahoskie Market.

Has Ahoskie a tobacco market? Is the Ahoskie market satisfying its customers? Well, yes, rather. The broad grin and the happy smile are the testimonials which we are using. Did you follow any of the sales last week? If you did how many planters did you see who were not satisfied with the prices they received? Did you see the man who expected to get 15 cent and received 26? Well, you should have. His was one of these unusual, long, and catching smiles. And there are others just like him. But that is not unusual, the planters do get and should get better prices here than at other markets. Why? Because the buyers here buy on commission and they go to the very limit in order to make their weeks purchases the larger. In most other markets the buyers are on a salary, and so do not care whether they buy or not. Don't forget that our buyers buy on commission. Moral! Ahoskie market is the place to sell your tobacco. And likewise your hogs, cotton, peanuts, chickens, cattle etc. There is a market for anything and everything here, but just now Ahoskie is specializing on tobacco, and giving the highest prices possible.

The Ahoskie High School Rally

On Sunday night September 12th, the people of the Ahoskie school district met in the Ahoskie Baptist Church for the purpose of arousing the spirit of co-operation among the people.

About eight o'clock, chairman, J. A. Williams opened the meeting and Rev. C. L. Dowell gave a scripture lesson and prayer. As Lawyer Johnson very aptly expressed it, he was on the skirmish line and the heavy artillery would come afterwards. His remarks were not only an introduction to the evenings entertainment; but were based on the moonlight schools. He showed by statistics and argument that the moonlight school was a practical and helpful innovation in the educational curriculum of North Carolina.

Lawyer Johnson was followed by our ex-principal Prof. L. C. Williams. Prof. Williams made a very interesting talk, showing the successive steps of the educational spirit in North Carolina. He mentioned the work of our own, beloved Governor Ayoock and the discouragements and trials which were thrown in his path when he began the campaign for an educated or enlightened state. Prof. Williams also stated that his work had continued and was continuing. Just here several small girls arose and sang an interesting and appropriate song.

County Supt. N. W. Britton then introduced the teachers to Hertford County. His local statistics were as interesting to the county people as to the new teachers. He showed our standing among the counties of the state educationally and although interesting, they were not a credit to our people. However, our progress in the last few years is something for us to boast of.

As an introductory address, Hon. E. T. Snipes was interesting as well as uplifting. He spoke of the advantages of an educated man over an illiterate one, and of the beauties of nature which he was able to grasp when the other would let them pass unnoticed. Lawyer Snipes very flatteringly introduced Hon. G. E. Midyette, as one who had spent his life in the educational world. And the "Big Gun" was not a disappointment. Hon. G. E. Midyette dwelt upon the help which co-operation gives to a school. He also was very enthusiastic over the public school system in North Carolina as it is being worked out. The only thing which we can say about his address, and the only thing necessary, is that it was a resume of the school work in North Carolina.

Prof F. Q. Barbee stated that, since it was growing late, he would postpone his talk until Monday A. M., at the opening of the school. This closed an entertaining and helpful programme.

UNION 4, COLERAIN 1

Union closed a very successful season Wednesday at Colerain, by defeating the hard hitting Colerain team 4 to 1, making it two out of three. "Buck" Darden was on the mound for Union and pitched gilt-edge ball; allowing two hits and issuing one pass. While Manning was hit at will.

The game was featured by the all round work of the Union team and the outfield of the Colerain team.
