War Upon Pain
Pain is a visitor to every home and usually it comes quite unexpectedly. But you keep a small bottle of Sloan's Liniment handy.
It is the greatest pain killer ever discovered. Simply laid on the skin—no rubbing required—it drives the pain away. It is really wonderful.
Marvin H. Soister, Berkeley, writes: "Last Saturday, after tramping around the Panama Exposition with wet feet, I came home with my neck so stiff that I couldn't turn. I applied Sloan's Liniment freely and went to bed.
To my surprise, next morning the stiffness had almost disappeared, four hours after the second application I was as good as new."

SPECIAL THANKSGIVING SER- VICES AT AHOSKIE.

Several Short and Snappy Talks at Baptist Church, Rev. R. L. Gay Makes Short Address.

An interesting program was carried out at the Baptist Church in Ahoskie on last Thursday night, Thanksgiving night. The exercises consisted of several short speeches on the various reasons why we should be thankful, and a plea for the orphans of the state, and more especially those at Thomasville.
Altho many of the town people had gone to Norfolk, Richmond, and other places to spend Thanksgiving Day, there was a representative crowd present, and the meeting was a success, both from point of attendance and amount of collection for the orphanage.

Those taking part in the program, and their respective subjects were as follows: W. L. Curtis, "Origin and Reasons for Thanksgiving"; F. G. Taylor, "Reasons Why the Town Should Be Thankful"; W. H. Miller, "Reasons Why the Church Should Be Thankful"; Dr. C. G. Powell, "Why We Should Be Thankful for Our School"; J. Roy Parker, "Reasons Why the Young People Should Be Thankful"; L. C. Williams, "Reasons for Thanksgiving as an Individual." Following this part of the program, Rev. R. L. Gay, of Washington, N. C., who is connected with the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League, made an earnest plea for the orphans, urging upon everyone to share their prosperity and blessings with those who had been bereft of the advantages and privileges of a temporal home. His address, tho short, was chocked full of valuable and inspiring thoughts, and it was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were present.

The pastor, Rev. C. L. Dowell, who had been called to Norfolk on account of the burial of his wife's sister, was not able to be present at the entire service, but he arrived on the 7:58 train in time to join with those who had preceded him in pleading for the orphans. After the collection was taken, amounting to about sixty dollars, Rev. Gay pleaded with those present to do all they could to wipe out liquor in the United States. He asked as many as would do so to write to their congressman, Hon. Jno. H.
Small, and ask him to support the Hobson Resolutions in the next meeting of the National Congress.
These resolutions call for an amendment to the constitution, providing for nation-wide prohibition.
Following this request, the congregation was dismissed by Rev.
Gay.

Great Books Inspire Farm Boys and Girls.

We hope sometime that it will become general to have libraries of well chosen books attached to every school—books on travel, history, biography, economics, carpentry, agriculture, cooperation, health, art and general literature.
The purpose of the teacher is not to complete education but to wave a band down the vistas and say knowledge is to be found there.
The primary teacher can only show the way. Too often after the boy and girl has left school they regard the learning period of life as over and the work period beginning, and if they have this idea they are never fit for any but the worst work. It is when the mind is young and flexible and ardent and imaginative that it forms habits and enthusiasms. It is by reading first of all that the young will get ideas of a different life from that their fathers and mothers have lived, of a life quickened by thought, by intelligent action, of beauty in the home, and of a high standard of living. The imagination of the young in cooperative matters will leap enthusiastically to national conceptions.

The idea of a cooperative Ireland, of a nation working in an agricultural and industrial brotherhood will fire them, where their parents will hardly see beyond their own parish and are content to let their cooperation end with their village. It is to youth we must appeal if we are to make Ireland a country with a high civilization. You cannot put too high ideals before youth. It is receptive for great conceptions. It is by the greatness of the desires of youth today that the greatness of our country twenty years hence can be judged.—Geo. W. Russell, Irish Homestead.

Announcement of the Winter Short Course in Agriculture.

A four weeks' short course, beginning January 10 and ending February 5, is offered the farmers of North Carolina by the Agricultural and Mechanical College. A special invitation is given them to come to the college and study in the classrooms and work in the laboratories for four full weeks without any charge for the tuition.
While at the college means may be obtained in the mess hall for twenty five cents each. Rooms may either be obtained in the City of Raleigh or at West Raleigh in some of the boarding houses adjacent to the college.

Special courses will be given in Soils, Drainage, Fertilizers, Field Crops, Fruits, Vegetables, Farm Animals, Dairying, Poultry, Plant and Animal Diseases, Marketing, and Farm Management. The college has a splendid equipment for the purpose of giving practical instruction along the lines mentioned, and the opportunity offered the farmer to improve himself in his farming methods has never before been equaled. This is due in part to the many changes in farm conditions and to the frequent improvements that are discovered from time to time. The new dairy and creamery at the college are now shipping butter on a commercial scale and will give new ideas along these lines. The improved and pure-bred live stock in the college barns and the methods of handling same should also be of interest.
The experiments on the college and station farms and the methods of cropping could be studied with profit to any farmer.

For these reasons a lot of practical, good, as well as a theoretical, knowledge can be gained. The invitation is extended to every progressive farmer of the State.

CRIMES AGAINST BABYHOOD.

Allowing the Chicago baby to die has created a storm of protests from a large class of humanitarians who believe that human life is sacred and that the child should have been given a chance to live.
On the other hand, the doctor who allowed nature to take its course and who believed it was right to let the defective baby die to save it from future misery and a life of suffering has been zealously commended by others for his service to humanity in saving society a mental and physical, and probably a moral, defective.

Probably no other case has called for so much criticism, both favorable and unfavorable. It has made people think. People who never before stopped to consider what are the rights of a baby or what are the possibilities that are concealed in such a helpless bit of human flesh, mightily exercised themselves over this incident.

Now, if all the energy, the emotion and sentiment that has been stirred up over the Chicago baby could be turned into practical channels of service to childhood and young life, then the Chicago's baby's life and death has not been in vain. If only a few of theories so generously and vehemently expressed could be put to work and be made of practical service, the living babies of today would be lifelong debtors to the Chicago baby.

For those who consider a great wrong has been done and that humanity has been sinned against in this case, there is wide field for thought and usefulness. Why not begin applying here and now the ounce of prevention that will prevent scores and scores of such cases from ever happening? Better education of the present and future fathers and mothers in matters of health and child hygiene would undoubtedly work wonders along this line. There are many defective babies living today needing attention and service. There are diseased and abnormal children whose defects could be easily corrected but for the price. There are babies dying daily for want of proper care and feeding and scores are born defective for lack of parental care. That these conditions exist and continue to exist are crimes against babyhood and humanity that indeed need protesting against.—Health Bulletin.

Resolutions of Sympathy.

Whereas our Supreme Grand Master in his infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove from trials and tribulations of this life our beloved brother, William Gaston Green, whose soul took its flight to brighter realms above on the 19th day of August, 1915; Therefore be it resolved:

1st. That in his death Aulander Lodge number 514, of A. F. & A. M., has lost a prominent and faithful worker. He was universally liked by all who came in contact with him. His general disposition won him friends wherever he went and his death will be keenly felt by all his brethren.

2nd. That we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, and say "Thy will be done."

3rd. To his bereaved family in this their bitter hour of trouble we extend them our sincere sympathy, and commend them to God who doeth all things for good for them that love and fear him, with the blessed assurance that when this life is over we will meet our departed loved ones on that bright and happy shore, where sickness and death are unknown.

4th. That a page on the record book of our Lodge be set apart sacred to the memory of our departed brother, and these resolutions be inscribed thereon. And that a copy be sent to the bereaved family, and to the Orphan Friend Windsor Ledger, and Hertford County Herald for publication.
Fraternally submitted,
J. Lawrence Harrington,
B. H. Hoggard,
N. S. Askew.
