STATE BARACA PHILATHEA CONVENTION.

Annual Meeting to Be at Goldsboro, April 27-30—Good Program—Strong Speakers.

What promises to be one of the greatest Conventions ever held by the North Carolina Baraca and Philathea organizations will be held in Goldsboro, April 27-30.
Unusually strong speakers and leaders have been secured to take part on the program. Miss Henrietta Heron, of Elgin, Ill., first Vice president of the World-Wide-Baraca-Philathea Union and editor of the popular Sunday School papers, The Young Men's Class Weekly and the Young Ladies Class Weekly, published by the David C. Cook Publishing Co., has been secured to make a number of addresses and to lead in some discussions. Miss Heron is a Sunday School worker of broad reputation and the fact she has attended similar Conventions in North Carolina before will insure a large delegation, because those who have heard her once will want to hear her again. She is an authority on Sunday School work and her coming will mean much to the cause of Baraca and Philathea in North Carolina.

Dr. Chas. D. Bulla, of Nashville, Tenn., Superintendent of the Wesley Adult Class Department of the M. E. Church South, will be one of the principal speakers of the Convention. Dr. Bulla's efforts in the interest of the Adult Bible Class work is well known throughout southern methodism. For a number of years he has been conspicuously connected with the Sunday School work of the Methodist Church in the South and the North Carolina Baraca and Philathea organizations are indeed fortunate in having secured his valuable services.

A number of other able speakers, some of them of nation wide reputation, have been secured.

All Baraca and Philathea classes are entitled to send as many delegates as they wish, and pastors, superintendents and all others interested in more efficient Sunday schools are extended a most cordial invitation to attend.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

On the night of March 6, 1916, the spirit of Jesse Thomas Brown of Menola N. C. departed this life to go into the presence of God and his soul was ushered into that Land of eternal bliss whence the night cometh no more forever.
The news of his death was sadly received among his large circle of friends. They realized that that gentle voice and pleasant smile would be heard and seen by them no more. We do not understand why one so greatly needed and wanted from us but God's ways are passed human understanding.
Sometimes we will understand the mysteries that surround us.

That gentle footstep and voice will be sorely missed. He will be in form with us no more but his influence will continue to live among us as a reminder of his sterling character and Christian life.

He has left to mourn his loss a wife, ten children, one brother and two sisters besides numerous relatives and friends. Your hearts are crushed but the blessed assurance of some glad day meeting him in that Far Away City of God to spend eternity with him is a great comfort and consolation.

From childhood until death Mr.
Brown was a faithful member of the Friend's Church of Cedar Grove N. C. He is not lost entirely to us as eyes on earth; a little father off, and that is all.

Yes, we'll meet again in the morning.

In the dawn of a fairer day; When the night of watching and waiting.

With it's darkness has passed

IN MEMORIAM.

Our hearts are crushed and our home made desolate by the sudden passing away of our dear father, Thomas J. Baanight, on March 3, 1916, at his home near Creswell, aged 71 years and six days. Although stricken very suddenly, and passing away within ten minutes, the summons found him ready and waiting to meet his Lord.

He was a faithful member of the Disciple Church at Scuppernon, where his seat was never vacant at any religious services, having attended services three times the Sunday before he died.
He had always walked upright in the christian life, faithful and true to every obligation of church and home. Indeed, his gentle nature and manner drew others to him, for in his home and community he was a true light, where he would make sacrifices to avoid imposing upon others. His sudden death not only brings sorrow to his immediate family, but to an extensive circle of friends and acquaintances throughout the County and State.

He was of a quiet, unassuming disposition, gentle and kind, and was loved by all who knew him.
In his home with his family was where he left the best and most lasting impressions of his christian achievements. May the impressions of his pure life never become dim nor faint in our minds, and we have the comforting assurance that, while there comes the greatest sorrow, to us also comes the greatest joy when we think that he, who was so dear to us, has been ministered unto by the Great Physician whose touch banishes all suffering from the soul, and with whom to dwell eternally is the supreme rapture of all who put their trust in Him.

He was a man of sound judgment and strong moral character, always standing for that which was highest and best in the community.

He was a kind neighbor, a sincere friend, and a faithful servant of God. He lived well, and died in the triumph of the faith. Dear father, you have finished your life work, a devoted life of service for the Master, how hard to realize you have gone from us. How we will miss your sunny smile; but God's way is not ours, and we must submit to His will.

He was so kind and instructive to us, and told us his prospects was a home in the heaven of rest, and it will only be a short time till wife and children hope to join him in that beautiful land where all is light. He has left a great heritage—the memory of a godly life—and he has only crossed over the river where, with the angels and loved ones gone before, he awaits our coming.

The funeral services were conducted on the following Sunday afternoon at the church by Rev.
Lee in a very impressive manner among a large crowd of sorrow stricken relatives and friends, and his body was laid to rest in the cemetery to await the Resurrection morn.

Oh! dear father, how we loved you,
But with sufferings you are done, You have left this world of trouble,
Where no sorrow will ever come.

Gone to live among the Angels, In that happy home above, Where your voice will sing the praises
Of Christ's own redeeming love.

Yes, dear father, we did love you,
And how sad it was to part!
But God needed you in Heaven; Still it's simply crushed our hearts.
But this blessed hope is left us, That we'll meet you up above In a glorious land of promise, Where all is joy, peace and love.
His Children.

Like the robes that angels wear.

One of his young friends who know him well.

SLAUGHTER-GRIMES.

The Methodist Episcopal Church of Murfreesboro was on Tuesday, March 14, the scene of a beautiful wedding, when Miss Elma Grimes became the bride of Rev. Baxter B. Slaughter, the Rev. Mr. Bundy Presiding Elder of the Warrenton District, officiating.

Long before the appointed hour the church was filled to overflowing with friends of the contracting parties, the marriage being one of unusual interest because of the extreme popularity of the bride and groom. Before the ceremony, Mrs. M. E. Worrell sang "I Love You Truly", while Miss Goodwin, of Chowan College, sang as a benediction "O Perfect Love". Mrs.
Southall Lawrence rendered the wedding marches, Lohengrin's as a processional and Mendelssohn's as the recessional march.

The bridal party entered in the following order, the ushers, Messrs Stanley Winborne and Russell Nicholson, Carl Lawrence and Emmett Evans, coming down opposite aisles and meeting at the chancel, then came the groom-smen, Rev. C. B. Culbreth, of Elizabeth City, and Rev. H. B.
Hill, of Oriental, followed by the bridesmaids, Misses Ellen Vaughn and Annie Barnes, in gowns of white net with girdles of green, white picture hats with green tulle and pink roses, carrying bouquets of pink roses. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Gertrude Lawrence, gowned in green pompadour taffeta and silver lace carrying pink sweet peas, after whom came the flower girl, little Miss Ethel Lawrence, of Bristol, dressed in white over pink, while the ring-bearer, Master George Harrell, came from the opposite door.
The groom next entered with his best man, Mr. Graham Slaughter, of Atlanta, and last of all came the bride with her cousin, Mrs. C.
W. Walker, matron of honor, who also gave her in marriage. Mrs.
Walker's gown was of white crepe and chiffon en train, with pearl ornaments, and she carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas. The bride was gowned in white satin with pearl trimmings and court train, and wore a bridal veil of tulle and orange blossoms; her flowers were a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Slaughter left for a honeymoon trip followed by the good wishes of a host of friends.
The bridal gifts were numerous and beautiful, attesting the high esteem in which both are held by their friends.
On Monday afternoon and evening before the wedding the bridal party were the recipients of many social attentions, two pre-nuptial events being given in their honor.
In the afternoon Miss Ellen Vaughn gave a very delightful tea.
Those receiving with Miss Vaughn were Miss Grimes, the bride-elect, Mrs. C. W. Walker, of Portsmouth, and Mrs. Nathaniel P. Lawrence, of Bristol. A delicious salad course followed by ices in flower and fruit shapes, with appropriate bridal favors, completed a most happy afternoon.

In the evening Miss Gertrude Lawrence received with Miss Grimes, Mrs. Lawrence and Mrs.
Walker assisting. Cutting the bride's cake, and drawing fortunes from the lovely flower laden (gold and white) table were features of this merry gathering, at which dainty cakes and ices were served.

The out-of-town guests for the wedding included: Mrs. C. W.
Walker, of Portsmouth, Mrs. N.
P. Lawrence and Miss Ethel Lawrence, of Bristol, Mr. Graham Slaughter, of Atlanta; Rev. C. B.
Culbreth, of Elizabeth City, Rev.
A. B. Hill, of Oriental, and Rev.
J. D. Bundy, of Weldon.

ST. PATRICK'S CELEBRATION IN AHOSKIE.

Young People Entertained at the Home of Mrs. Lillie M. Garrett—Enjoyable Affair.

St. Patrick's Day was celebrated in gorgeous green style on last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Lillie M. Garrett on Main Street. A St. Patrick's party was given by Mrs. Garrett and Misses Hood and Sparger to the social set of Ahoskie, on the event of the anniversary of the birth of old St. Patrick. The Irish color, green, was predominant, and the shamrocks were plentiful, embodied in most everything imaginable.

As per the rhymed invitations sent out to those who made up the party, green wearing apparel was a requisite; and green evening dresses, green handkerchiefs, green bandanas, ties, hose, and shoe strings were plentiful. The decorations both in the reception hall and parlor were of a green hue, and in fact it was green in toto.

Horace and Rhoden, the two little boys of Mrs. Garrett, showed the guests into the dressing rooms, and from thence ushered them to the punch bowl.
The guests, after paying their respects to the punch bowl, entered the parlor, where the remainder of the evening was spent in telling Irish jokes of Pat and Mike, and contests, followed by a delicious course of cream and cake. Small favors were also distributed later in the evening.

In a rhyming contest, in which each couple had to make a rhymed verse containing the word "lucky" using as the rhyming words those found on small cards, the winners were Miss Doris Jenkins and Clarence Blount. The prize, a green pig, containing candy, was presented by Mr. Clarence Perry.

Miss Roberta Crews won the "Green Contest". Ten questions, all of which had to be answered in something green, were passed around on printed cards, and so perfect were the answers that six couples tied, which required a pulling of straws. Miss Roberta Crews drawing the short straw.

The evening was pleasantly spent by the following: Misses Roberta Crews, Florence Johnson, Buelah Vann, Mina Holloman, Minnie Baker, Della Dowell, Doris Jenkins, Agnes Johnson; and Messrs. Walter Sumner, Clarence Perry, Clarence Blount, J. O.
Casper, S. P. Watson, Ross Holloman, John Mitchell, Roy Parker, and Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Curtis.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable.
For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and gy constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable.
Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment.
Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case fails to cure. Send for circulars at 4
