URGENT DEMAND FOR PEANUTS

The Peanut Has Become A Very Important Factor In Food Conservation—The Peanut Should Be Cultivated For Its Food Value—It Is Not Solely Money Crop.

Never before since the introduction of commercial peanut growing into the United States has the farmer of North Carolina experienced such price as he is at present receiving. This condition is partly explained, says Mr. T. E. Brown, by the fact that all food products are high and are destined to remain high for some time to come. The peanut has now become an important food product, both in the form of roasted peanuts and in many manufactured products. They rank among the highest nuts in content of protein. The shelled nuts contain from 45 to 50 per cent of oil.
This fact, taken with the present scarcity of animal and vegetable oils creates an unusual demand for peanut oil.

Until faced with the present high prices and unusual shortage of oil, farmers did not consider the growing of peanuts for oil production to be profitable. There is at present, however, an indication that the demand of peanuts for oil and for human food is going to grow and the farmer may be pretty well assured of a good price for his 1917 crop.

There is being waged by the Agricultural Extension Service a strenuous campaign for the production of food and feed crops. Every patriotic citizen wants to do his part.
Many farmers have all the land allotted to corn and other grain crops that they think is advisable. Here the peanut offers them the opportunity to put in a very valuable food crop as well as a safe money crop.

There is still time to plant peanuts. The large varieties may be planted on good land through the month of June. The Spanish peanuts may be expected to mature a crop when planted as late as June 15. For oil production, the Spanish ranks first and the red Spanish second. This insures a good price for these varieties of nuts, and they are the ones for the novice to plant.

The mature good nuts under a wider range of soils and climatic conditions, and they would do well where the cotton seed has been plowed up this spring. All over the State this has been done, and there is no good reason why peanuts should not be planted here.
They are more easily cultivated than cotton, and, at $2 per bushel, they bring money into the pocket of the farmer. It is up to us, as the saying goes, to aid in supplying the world short age of oils, fats, and other foods, and a good bit may be done with a good crop of peanuts.

Indicted—But

Around two hundred million pounds of onions is the yearly crop in the United States. The growers get an average of about two cents a pound for them and the consumers pay from 10 to 15 cents a pound.

Why? Because eighty-eight corporations and individuals buy up three-fourths of the crop in the early fall year by year, and hold the supply out of the markets until the prices give them profits ranging from 500 to 1000 per cent.

The Federal Grand Jury has indicted the Onion Trust. But, then, it indicted the Coal Trust, and the News Print Trust, and many other trusts!

The public is interested in the results of these indictments—if ever there are any results.

PRESIDENT W. C. RID- DICK DOCTOR OF LAWS

South Bethlehem, Pa., June 9—Thirty-two of the 130 members of the Class of 1917 of Lehigh University were present to receive their degrees at graduation exercises in Packer Memorial Church this morning. The others are in military camps and in engineering and industrial work, the faculty having granted Seniors permission to take their final examinations a month ago because of the war situation.

Degrees were conferred by Dr.
H. S. Drinker, President of the University, upon students from ten states and from Russia and China, —Bachelor of Arts, 16; Bachelor of Science, 16; Civil Engineer, 15; Mechanical Engineer, 22; Metallurgical Engineer, 3; Electrometallurgical Engineer, 2; Engineer of Mines, 10; Electrical Engineer, 18; Bachelor of Science in Chemistry, 5; Chemical Engineer, 10; Master of Arts, 2; Master of Science, 3.

Three alumni of Lehigh received honorary degrees as follows: Doctor of Laws, Wallace Carl Riddick, President of North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts; Master of Science, Taylor Alderdice, Vice-President of the National Tube Company and Chairman of the Board of Education of Pittsburg, and Homer D. Williams, President of the Carnegie Steel Company, Pittsburg. The address of the day was delivered by Dr. Riddick.

In presenting the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws upon President Riddick, Dr. Henry S. Drinker, President of Lehigh University, said:

"Wallace Carl Riddick, President of the N. C. College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts,—an institution leading in Engineering and Industrial Education in that great State which has the distinctive American impress of a citizenship composed practically wholly of American born citizens, a state of hardy, honest American men and women, loyal to its traditions of service,—patriotic,—progressive,—which rose Phoenix-like from the desolation of the Civil war, and today is known as a State striding forward in the development of agriculture, industry, and education,—to you, distinguished son of Lehigh, we tender the loving greeting of an Alma Mater whom your career as Engineer and Educator has highly honored, and we convey through you to our sister educational institutions of the South greetings and Godspeed in their work."

A Privilege

Some confusion has arisen relative to the privilege granted to subscribers for one $50 bond or one $100 bond to pay the full amount at once, with the assurance of an immediate allotment in full and delivery of an interim certificate at the earliest possible moment.

It should be clearly understood that this is a privilege and not a requirement. The subscriber for one $50 bond or one $100 bond may avail himself of this privilege of full payment, or he may pay 2 per cent upon application and the balance as provided for other bonds; that is, 18 per cent on June 28, 20 per cent on July 30, 30 per cent on August 15, and 30 per cent on August 30.

The subscriber, therefore, for a $50 bond or a $100 bond has the assured certainty of obtaining a bond either by the cash payment in full or the payment in the stated installments. Subscribers for larger amounts will have to await the allotment when all the subscriptions are in and may not obtain the full amount of bonds subscribed for.

monthly meeting with Mrs. Julia Newsome Thursday evening, June 7. June 8th being Jefferson Davis' birthday sketches of his life were read by the members. A most interesting paper, "Why we are U.
D. C.'s," was prepared and read by Mrs. R. C. Bridger. The hostess served delicious refreshments at the close of the program.

Miss Annie Banks entertained a number of friends at a birthday party—Tuesday evening. Various games were played, after which cake and cream was served.

The Y. W. A. of Chowan Church will meet with Miss Ruth Vann Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Cyril Pearce who enlisted as a machinist in the aviation corps, is stationed at San Antonio, Texas.
On account of his weight he would not be accepted for training as an aviator.

H. B. Eason, who had charge of the music in the meetings conducted by Rev. Fred N. Day last summer, will lead the singing in the meeting to begin in Chowan Church Friday evening, June 22. Mr. Eason has a voice of unusual sweetness and his friends will be glad to see and hear him again.

the illness of her father, Capt. D.
H. Graves.

GOOD ROADS CONVENTION

Owing to the fact that quite a number of the members of the North Carolina Good Roads Association are also members of the Press Association, that meets at Wrightsville Beach, June 27th to 29th, it has been decided by the Good Roads Association to change the dates for the Road Convention to Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, July 9, 10, and 11.

The three principal topics for discussion at the Convention this year will be:

1. Operation of the laws passed by the Legislature of 1917 relating to road building.
2. Road Maintenance, with special reference to the use of the automobile tax in maintenance of the State Highways.
3. The building of roads of military value.

It is believed that a meeting of the Good Roads Association at this time will have a very distinct value in connection with the solving of problems which have arisen out of the present emergency. It is hoped to have someone from the War Department or the Council of National Defense to make a talk and discuss with the members of this Convention questions relating to road building which are so vital now to our State and Nation.

Headquarters will be at the Battery Park Hotel, and special rates will be arranged for. Announcements as to program, rates etc. will be made later through the press.

Secretary.

DEATH OF "UNCLE JAKE" LASSITER

Mr. W. J. Lassiter, whom most of us called "Uncle Jake," after years of intense suffering past away last Saturday morning very quietly and without a struggle, as though falling asleep. The funeral service, which was beautiful and impressive took place in the Rich Square Baptist Church, where he held his membership, was conducted by his pastor, Revs. John F. Cale, Rev. C. L.
Dowell, of Ahoskie, and J. E. Holden of Rich Square, taking part and paying tributes to his life and character. The pall bearers were his nephews. A number of his neighbors and friends were present.

Mr. Lassiter was born October 23, 1846, and was therefore in his seventy-first year. He was the son of Bryant and Penelope Lassiter, who were leaders in good works in the community in which they lived.
Only two of their children survive, Mrs. H. E. Peele, of Greensboro, and J. C. Lassiter, of Richmond.

"Uncle Jake" was a man of most kindly disposition and rejoiced to see others prosper. We never knew him to try to build himself up by trying to pull others down.
He lived to a ripe old age and to see his children occupying honorable positions in the communities in which they live. "Uncle Jake," some four years ago, spent several weeks at a hospital where he underwent an operation. He never fully recovered his health, but gradually grew worse. His devoted wife and children did everything possible for his comfort. Peace to ashes.—Roanoke-Chowan Times.

A GOOD WAY TO SAVE

In encouraging the people of America to save it is believed that the Liberty Loan Bonds are going to perform an important function in our national life. The small denomination of some of the bonds renders it practical for the ordinary wage earner to purchase one with the savings of a few months, and the banks of the country have undertaken to provide for the purchase of these bonds in small weekly or monthly payments.

By devoting each week or each month to the purchase of Liberty Loan Bonds such little sums of ready money as are often frittered away for useless things one can not only acquire property that ranks among the very best securities in the history of the world, but can at the same time feel that a patriotic duty has been performed and a habit of saving acquired.

Of course the ultimate result of this will be a victory for America, but what the effects of the war will be upon America and American people is unknown. When such an unknown future confronts us prudence demands that contingencies be provided for. An uncertain future is a time to be provided for.
No one knows how great a help savings invested in a Liberty Loan Bond may be a few years hence.

And your savings not only will be absolutely secure but will be constantly bringing in interest—an income absolutely free from taxation and absolutely certain.

There are other possibilities—they might better be called probabilities—and one is that the Liberty Loan Bonds, when peace comes and money now in active industrial use will be seeking quiet investment, may bring a handsome premium.

The Liberty Loan Bonds offer every incentive to saving—easy payments, absolutely safe security, a service done to the country, and a probable handsome profit.

Foresight

People are learning that a little foresight often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E.
W. Archer, Caldwell, Ohio, writes
"I do not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since we commenced keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." Obtainable everywhere. Adv.

LEST WE FOR- GET EDUCATION

Superintendent J. Y. Joyner Makes An Appeal For Education and Urges People Not to Subordinate the Training of the Youth in This Time of War.

In this time of war, it is of transcendent importance to take proper precautions against the starvation of the bodies of ourselves and of our allies by increasing the production of food and conserving food supplies, but let us not forget that it is of equal importance to take proper precautions also against the starvation of the minds and souls of our children by the preservation and the conservation of the means of education. Let us not forget that the preservation and the perpetuation of the freedom and civilization that we shall save by victory, that the rapid repair of the waste and wreck and ruin of war, that preparation for the new duties of the finer civilization that shall follow, demand the proper education of the present generation of children.

While we are waging a patriotic crusade for food conservation, let us not forget also to wage a patriotic crusade for the conservation of the means of education. Let us not forget that the children of the present generation are the seed corn of future civilization. In spite of the direst needs of war, therefore let us see to it that this seed corn be not ground up in its horrible mill, that our schools and colleges, the means for its preservation and cultivation, be not destroyed nor diminished.
Let us not forget the lesson of the war between the states. The one most tragic loss of that war to this State, which has not been repaired in two generations, which can never be wholly repaired, was the loss of a whole generation of education through the destruction of its schools and colleges.

Let not that tragedy be repeated.
When this war closes the need for trained leaders and citizens will be greater than before. The danger of the terrible toll that this war may take in killed and wounded from this generation of men increases the duty and the necessity of educating and training this generation of children and of supporting and strengthening the means therefor. Let it cost what it may the school and college must be kept open that the youth of this generation may be properly educated and trained for the increased burdens and duties of the future.

State Superintendent Public Instruction.
