WINTON WAVELETTES

The Menola Auxiliary of the Roanoke Chapter, W. H. S. Burgwyn, Chairman, have sent 19 kits here to be given to the Hertford County boys, who have gone to the National Army. Although the ladies of Menola work under the Roanoke Chapter, they sent their kits to the Hertford County boys, Menola being in this County. The kits were made of khaki with the Red Cross sign on the front, and contained many useful articles, such as wash cloths, tooth brushes, tooth paste, handkerchiefs, pins, safety pins, lead pencils, needles, thread, thimble and comb.

Mrs. E. A. Vinson entertained a few friends Friday night, at a Dime Social given for the benefit of the Eastern Star. The money was sent to the Oxford Orphanage.

Robert Matthews, a medical student at the University, came home Monday to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Maggie Matthews. Eddie Knox, of Trinity College, a grandson of Mrs. Matthews, also came home for the funeral.

Rev. B. B. Slaughter, formerly pastor of the Methodist church here but now of Rocky Mount, was in town Monday to assist in the funeral service of Mrs. Matthews.

The Minister's conference of the West Chowan Association which meets at Chowan College Tuesday after the second Sunday in each month was well attended last Tuesday, there being fourteen ministers present.

Several men from Winton attended the State Fair at Raleigh last week.

John Northcott and Hugh Jones, students of A & E. College spent the week end with home folks.

Miss Bessie Buck has returned home from an extended visit to her sister in Wilmington.

Mr. Barnes, who has had charge of the central office, has resigned his position to accept a position in the Bank of Lewiston, his home town. Misses Annie Banks and Bessie Buck now have charge of the central office.

Mrs. Nannie Holland, of Holland, Va., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Clark and daughters, Misses Emily and Estelle Clark, will leave in their car Saturday for Oxford to visit relatives. Miss Eather Royster will accompany them as far as Henderson.

Lieutenant Hoyt P. Taylor returned to Camp Jackson, Columbia, Monday, after a short visit to his mother, Mrs. S. P. Taylor.

Mrs. Sam Wooten, who has been visiting Miss Kate Taylor, returned to her home in Norfolk Sunday.

Quite a number of our people expect to attend the West Chowan Association which meets in Anoskie Tuesday and Wednesday, October 30 and 31. Messrs. S. W. Herring, J. J. Piland and Jno. E. Vann are delegates from the Winton Baptist Church.

Miss Myra Vann, of Edenton, was the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Martha Vann, the first of the week.

Horton's Personals.

We are having some fine weather for housing crops. Jack Frost nipped the potato vines last Sunday night.

Mr. Jos. A. Minton, who was reported ill a few weeks ago, died Saturday, October 18. He was laid to rest in the family burying ground near Aulander on the following Sunday afternoon, amid a large gathering of relatives and friends.

Mr. Tommy Parker, of near Conarntsa, was a caller here Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Z. V. Greene had the misfortune of losing a fine young mule last Saturday night.

Our people are busy digging peanuts and picking cotton.

Miss Mary Odum went to Norfolk last Saturday to see her brother, Mr. H. D. Odum, who has been in a hospital there for several weeks.

Messrs. H. W. and S. W. Green were in Roxobel a short time Friday morning.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Green on October 6, 1917, a fine baby boy.

Messrs. Edgar Powell and P. H. Parker are almost destroying the seed of o'possum. They hunt them most every night.

Mr. W. T. Minton is on the sick list this week.

Attend the Township meetin Saturday, October 27, and be benefited thereby.

Our people are glad to welcome

OPENING OF MARS HILL HIGH SCHOOL

Mars Hill, Oct. 22—Never before in the history of Mars Hill has there been a more encouraging opening of school than on last Monday.

There was no program planned, but the morning was well spent in impromptu talks by the patrons and heart-stirring songs by the school. Mr. Jack White, Chairman of the local board of trustees, opened the exercises. The pastor of the church conducted the devotional exercises.

Mr. White spoke of the hope and plans for a new school building by the opening of next year's session. "You are in your house," said Mr. White, "and anyone is supposed to have a right to express himself in his own house," and he insisted on the patrons speaking from their hearts.

"If you will have 'stick-to-itiveness' you will win." "Stick to your job." Mr. White also spoke of the influence of teachers. Reminiscent, he told of how he cherished in loving memory some of his teachers that influenced his life.

Mr. Joe Phelps spoke from a full heart of his willingness to help Mars Hill in every way possible. Mr. Phelps has no children, but is big hearted and generous enough to be interested in helping his neighbors' boys and girls to attain their goal.

Mr. Joe Harrell said it was true he was at home in the old building. Yet he was ashamed of the equipment Mars Hill has and added that he hopes for a building that will add greatly to the usefulness of Mars Hill.

After a song, "Loyalty," Mr. Andrew Miller very feelingly spoke of lost opportunity. High tribute was paid to Miss Pigg. He told of her interest in the school and asked the patrons to be loyal to the school and co-operate with her in her efforts. Mr. Miller closed with the injunction: "Don't talk too much."

Mr. Cassie Freeman added some rich advice. Patrons have an important part to fill to make the school a success. He admonished the children to always obey their teacher. "Don't smoke; always be present; the Lord sees all."

Mr. Jones, in speaking of the poor equipment at Mars Hill, contrasted the school buildings in 1820 and told some very interesting things about the school of that day. His closing remarks were: "Take Jesus into your life."

Mr. Early, our efficient County Superintendent, made a strong address. After preliminary remarks on the war and food conservation, he spoke on co-operation. "It is important in the best development of a school."

"Don't be a knocker." "Never make disparaging remarks about the teacher." "Send regularly." "Apply yourself." "Have high ideals."

Mr. Early said he had always been loyal to Mars Hill and expressed his willingness to be of help at any time.

We have three new teachers this year, who come highly recommended from Asheville. Miss Elizabeth Ray, a graduate from Meredith, who has had marked success as a teacher in Rocky Mount for two years. She is a splendid artist also.

Miss Whitehead possess the qualities of an ideal teacher. She is energetic and enthusiastic. We speak for the primary grades a successful term.

Having finished at Elizabeth College, our music teacher, Miss Page, studied music in New York City and taught there for a while. She is quite accomplished and efficient.

With these three capable young ladies, along with our principal, Miss Pigg, whom to know is to love, Mars Hill should flourish. To be associated with Miss Pigg is to have one's life made richer and decidedly better. With her at the front and the new ones added, we have a force of teachers that Mars Hill may well be proud of.

A Great Opportunity!

The supreme crisis in American history is now before us. America has entered the European war to protect and preserve your liberty and freedom, and the liberty and freedom of all nations, both great and small.

America has never been whipped. In the several wars in which she has taken a part, her strong arm has always administered a crushing blow. She is now to fight the greatest military machine on earth, and she is not going to be whipped this time, provided her army and navy and her citizens at home do their part.

Rest assured that the army and navy will do their part. It is up to us to do ours. All of us are not called upon to fight, but those of us who remain at home are expected to lend a helping hand.

The best way to lend this helping hand is to
