TO SEE A NEW ERA IN POLITICAL LIFE

NOMINEES OF BOTH POLITICAL PARTIES ARE GOING TO BE HARD PRE-SED

WOMEN TO KNOCK OUT "RINGS"

Attorney General Manning Rules that Winning Candidates on 11th Hour Ticket can not be Counted Out

Raleigh. The entrance of women into the political life of North Carolina means that both republican and democratic nominees for county offices in some sections of the state are going to be hard pressed in the November elections, if reports reaching Raleigh are to be relied upon.

There is going to be a wholesale repudiation of nominees in some counties where for years the "ring" is charged with having its own way in the selection of candidates. This is particularly true in counties of eastern North Carolina, so the story is told by suffrage advocates. And John Palmer, of Warrenton, is authority for the statement that such a condition exists in Warren county where the women voters, tired unto death of the "ring" domination, have set about with determination to wipe the slate clean and begin anew.

Already these first-class voters have heard from Attorney General Manning as to the legality of placing an eleventh hour ticket in the running after naming candidates in mass meeting. The attorney general is quoted as telling the ladies that vox populi cannot be disregarded. If the eleventh hour ticket carries over both opponents there is no way under the sun of counting its candidates out.

The author of the story, for years a suffrage advocate and who has tasted defeat in more than one political fight because of his progressive ideas, thinks that the women generally will vote as their fathers before them, but also believes that there is an element over the state that will not be held in line.

CHAUTAUQUA AT WINTON

The purpose of our Radcliffe Chautauqua this year is to give to the people who hear this program a deeper conception of Americanism really is. It is not our purpose to define Americanism, for we all know what Americanism is, but what we need at this time is a deeper conception of Americanism.

We are passing through the most critical period of American history, the period of reconstruction. This is a time when a confusion of ideas, tongues and party factions are attempting to undermine our Government. Radicalism was never more prevalent than it is at the present time. These things, coupled with the many industrial problems, make this a day of national unrest and a most opportune time for an awakening in regard to the principles upon which our American Government is built.

Besides the lectures of American, we are presenting a musical program which is the best in the history of our Chautauqua; a program which will please everyone—Soloists, sopranos, humorists and impersonators of the highest standard and who have the ability to please everyone. Through and through it is a program of educational value and refinement. Fourteen separate entertainments all for the price of one season ticket—$2.00 for adults and $1.00 for all school children.

PROGRAM IN DETAIL

First Day:

Dr. Robert McLaughlin, pastor of the largest Episcopal church in Brooklyn, writer and lecturer for many years. European traveller during the time of the great world war and a most convincing talker. His first lecture on "Benefits Forgotten" reminds us of what we owe, not only to men like Washington and Jefferson, but also what we owe to our great inventors, mechanics and physicians.

His second lecture deals with the History of the U. S. Government, how it was founded, the principles upon which it is built and why we should all be real Americans at this most trying time.

The musical program will be rendered by the John Ross Reed Concert Company. Featuring in this company will be John Ross Reed himself, graduate of the largest conservatory school in New York City. With him will be the noted boy xylophone player and Miss Shepherd, the pianist.

Second Day:

On the second day the lecture will be given by the director in charge, Mr. O'Neil. Mr. O'Neil has been in the Y. M. C. A. work. His first lecture on "A Canary in a Coal Mine" deals with community problems. Canaries are in mines as a test for fire-damp. While the air is pure the canary sings but when the atmosphere becomes affected with fire-damp the falls into a stupor. So it is with a community which has become affected with stagnation and a lack of co-operation. Nothing will produce stagnation in a community quicker than a lack of co-operation. In this lecture you will hear the history and the value of the Chautauqua to your community.

His second lecture deals with the making of an American. The acid test of what it takes to make an American and just who an American is; also the rights and privileges we enjoy under this Government and, at the same time, our duties and obligations toward our Government.

On this day the Fredericks Concert Company will render the musical program. Featuring in this company will be the noted Danish violinist. Accompanying will be a humorist and impersonator and Mrs. Whitlock, the pleasing soprano from Richmond, Va.

Also on the second day will come Miss Pauline Edington, the junior worker. She tells the kiddie stories of real moral value, illustrating in a fairy-like manner the importance of truth, honesty and courage. This is a special treat for the kiddies and the local committee should manage that every child in town hear these stories. The purpose is for making better Americans and better citizens.

Above all, don't fail to hear Mr. Fredericks on this day, Mr. Fredericks is the owner of a real Moggini which cost him $5000.00 and which is three hundred years old. Mr. Fredericks claims the highest paid policy of any artist in the country. He has played before nearly all the crowned heads of Europe and possesses many commitments of his work while abroad.

MISKE-DEMPSEY BOXING CONTEST

TWO BIG BRUISERS ENTERTAIN MAD CROWD OF FIGHT FANS AT BENTON HARBOR

FIGHT WON IN THREE ROUNDS

Dempsey Knocks Out Miske in Third Round by Administering Last of Three Terrific Smashes.

Benton Harbor, Mich.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, demonstrated that he still retains the terrific punch that won him the title. He knocked out Billy Miske, of St. Paul, a fighter as big and game as himself, in the third round of their ten-round match. Three hard smashes were sufficient to win him between $50,000 and $100,000, his fifty per cent share of the gate receipts.

At the start of the fight, his first in 14 months, Dempsey peeled off the same worn and patched red sweater. He danced about the ring with old time light footedness and finished up by taking the fight in the third round, just as he did at Toledo. The third round went one minute and thirteen seconds.

Miske went down three times in the less than two and one-half rounds of fighting. In the fatal third, driven to his corner under a rain of lefts and rights to the stomach and chin, the challenger took the count of nine, and had just regained his feet, when Dempsey, carefully measuring his distance, finished the bout with a left to stomach.

Confusion in Maine

Boston.—The enfranchisement of women "has caused extreme confusion" in Maine where state officers will be elected on September 13, according to Franklin D. Roosevelt, democratic candidate for vice-president, who passed through this city on his way to New York city after campaigning in Maine.

"On my return from three days in Maine," Mr. Roosevelt said in a statement, "I find it impossible to make any estimate of the situation. The passage of the nineteenth amendment giving women the vote has caused extreme confusion not only in the country districts but also in the cities in Maine. No one has any idea as to the size of the woman's registration there let alone the size of the actual woman vote on September 13.

Aim of Italian Socialists

London.—Seizure of Italian factories by metal workers as the starting point of a general taking over of industry is advocated by Italian extremists at the meeting of the heads of the General Federation of Labor and the metal workers' union and representatives of the Italian socialist party at Milan, says a dispatch from that city.

Third day:

Dr. Elmer Smith, head of English and Public Speaking Department of Colgate University, Member of National Commission on High School Syllabus, State Examiner of Regents Dept. of N. Y. State, Lecturer for A. E. F. forces in France, associate editor of English Journal, Lyceum and Chautauqua lecturer for many years. Dr. Elmer Smith's first lecture deals with Community leadership. The part co-operation should play in building a live community, the function of the home, school and church.

In his second lecture a United America offers the best solutions for the industrial and immigrant problems of any man on the Chautauqua platform. These are the most vital problems facing the American people today and problems which everyone should be familiar with.

The concert on this day will be a detachment of soldier boys from camp Upton, N. Y. They give a program full of "pep". Lots of snappy drill, setting up exercises and popular songs. In command will be a commissioned officer from West Point. The idea behind this is to give an actual demonstration of what the American army is doing to educate the illiterate. These men are mostly foreigners and were men who could neither read or write when they entered the army. Now they have the equivalent of an eight grade education.
