

HERTFORD COUNTY GOES FOR DEMOCRATIC TICKET IN BOTH STATE AND NATION

The reports that have come here from five of the six townships in the County indicate that a heavy vote all over the county was cast in the Tuesday election. At Ahooskie, the women voted freely and reports from the other townships of the county are to the effect that the women voted in large numbers. The Ahooskie vote is the heaviest ever recorded, owing to a large measure, the women votes.

The National ticket, headed by Senator Harding, led the State and local Republican tickets by a wide margin. This was due to the fact that many Democrats for the first time in their voting career voted for the National Republican ticket this year. In Ahooskie township Morrison and the other State Democratic officers received the largest majorities registered in the election. At Ahooskie as well as at the other voting precincts in the County both of the amendments carried by overwhelming majorities, the amendment to limit the tax rate, and to levy income taxes receiving the largest majority. Little work was done by any one against the amendments.

In St. Johns Township the stock law was again defeated, but by a reduced majority. The vote this time was 100 for and 151 against the stock law. In Harrellsville Township the voters decided that they wanted the stock law this time, and by the aid of the women gave a majority for the stock law of 34, the vote there being 69 to 103. At the time we go to press we have not received the returns from Maney Neck Township, but, according to Mr. Heber Vann, who is a rank opponent of the law, Maney Neck undoubtedly voted for the stock law this time.

The vote in five townships of the county give approximately the following totals: Cox and Roosevelt 943, Harding and Coolidge 339; for Senator, Overman 899, Holton 309; for Morrison and other State Democratic officers 904, for Parker and Republican State officers 310; for Congress, Ward 963, Martin 196; for State Senate, Winborne, and Griffin 947, for Elliott and Duke 187; for County Representative, Barnes 9044, Snipes 198. The balance of the County Democratic Ticket were elected by approximately the same majority as the County Representative.

For Amendment to lower tax limit and levy income 9446, against amendment 122; for amendment to change residence requirements and to abolish poll tax as requisite to voting 581, and against same amendment 249.

All of the township officers in the County are democratic, as usual.

DRIVE FOR MEMBERS TO PEANUT EXCHANGE MAKING GOOD PROGRESS NOW

Suffolk, Va., November 1.—The full backing of the Extension forces and the Department of Agriculture for both Virginia and North Carolina are to be given to the peanut growers in the perfection of their organization according to officials of these departments. In order to make the largest possible use of these agricultural workers, the Organization Committee of the Exchange has arranged to conduct two whirlwind campaigns in the two states so as to complete the organization of their Exchange by January 1.

The campaign in Virginia begins this week and will be pushed vigorously by the representatives of the Exchange in Nansemond County. At the same time the growers in Southampton County will conduct their own campaign, and they are going about the job with the determination of adding many signers to the 800 who contract in this largest peanut-producing county of the two states. Saturday, November 6, the campaign in Isle of Wight county will open and be pushed for three days in a vigorous drive. Then will follow the campaigns in the other counties in quick succession.

It is planned to complete the canvass of the Virginia counties on November 19, and to begin the canvass in North Carolina on November 20. So far, 3,000 growers have signed the contract, though none of the counties south of the Roanoke river have yet been canvassed. It is figured that on the basis of the present average of 250 bags to the grower, 5,000 signers will give the required minimum of signers to insure 50 per cent of the crop in these two states.

The announcement that the leading agricultural workers of Virginia and North Carolina are getting behind this movement has greatly enthused the growers in the determination to put their organization through by January 1. The occasion of these agricultural leaders entering into such full co-operation with the Department men in their organizational work is because they realize that it is necessary to put across one organization on the commodity basis in this section before any other group of growers can be organized on this plan. Both the tobacco and cotton growers of these two states and the growers of other commodities in the East are watching with intense interest this effort on the part of the peanut growers to organize on the plan that has brought so much prosperity to the West within the past two years. Their success, which now seems so hopeful, would give a great boost to all farm organization work east of the Mississippi.

A FAVORABLE FALL

Whatever may be said of the weather of 1920 it has given the farmer a favorable fall to get his crops in. It has enabled him to extend the period for harvesting hay and feed, and for late corn and garden truck. His sweet potato and peanut season have been lengthened. His cotton has had ample time to fill out the belated bolls. He has had good weather to pick his cotton and to do his outside work. The season has been dry and mild for him to take his tobacco to the warehouse and his cotton to the gin. The fall has done all it could. It has held frost from the late pasturage. It has saved him from drafts on his wood pile to keep warm. It has been a good winding up of a good year.

And the State is to profit by the weather conditions of the year. The crops will be good, offsetting in some measure at least the depressing effect of the low price. North Carolina is still dependent on agriculture as its basic industry. The factories of one kind and another are increasing, but as fast as they multiply the farm keeps pace. Whether we will be forth this year in agricultural products among the states of the union is not yet known, but wherever we stand we will still be conspicuous in farm production and the farm will continue to be the principal source of income to the state.

First Meeting of Hertford County Teachers Held in Winton on Last Friday, Oct. 30.

The first meeting of the Hertford County Teachers Association for this year was held on Friday, October 29 in the auditorium of Winton High School. The attendance was very gratifying and unusual interest was shown by all. Among those present who helped to make the day both interesting and well worth while were: Miss Hattie Parrott a member of the State Board of Examiners, Mr. J. M. Glenn, Superintendent of Schools in Gates County; Miss Janie Brown, Supervisor of Hertford County; Miss Myrtle Swindell, Home Demonstration Agent and Messrs. John E. Vann and B. G. Williams of the County Board of Education. The program was opened with the singing of "Ho for Carolina" led by Mrs. Newsome of Winton followed by prayer by Mr. Lackey.

The association was organized with the following officers: Mr. A. G. Otwell, President; Miss Mary Parham Secretary and Treasurer. In his pleasant manner Superintendent N. W. Britton extended a cordial welcome to the teachers, both old and new and asked that he might have their earnest co-operation in the years work.

Mr. John Vann was introduced and addressed to the Association on the policy of the County Board of Education, explaining the power vested therein and emphasizing the responsibilities of the teacher, assuring those present of the support of the Board in all matters pertaining to the good of the school.

Following the remarks of Mr. Vann Superintendent Britton organized a Teachers Assembly Group of which Mr. J. H. Brown was made President and Miss Janie Brown, Secretary. The delegates chosen for the Assembly meeting in Asheville in November Miss Annie Sue Winbourne of Como, and Mrs. Anna Turney of Murfreesboro.

The following subjects were then

MURFREESBORO NEWS

On Monday evening, November 1, the ladies of the Betterment Association gave a Halloween party at the Masonic Hall for the benefit of the graded school.

The decorations were both beautiful and interesting. There were the black cats—witches and weird faces and scenes. Then some more black cats. The children were disguised in many funny and quaint styles of dress and experienced great fun and were radiant in their joy.

Mrs. Geo. Underwood and Mrs. W. A. McGlohon stood behind the counter and were vendors of nice things to eat, homemade candy, peanuts, popcorn and fruit. Mrs. U. Vaughan and Eva Lawrence were in charge of the diving contest and got pretty well sprinkled. Mrs. G. N. Harrell stood at the door, of her department and invited the curious to see her "bridal procession" which never moved. Mrs. W. D. Wynn and Miss Mollie Davis went on a fishing expedition. They caught and sold to the eager, waiting children everything except fish. Miss Sarah Vaughan was the fortune teller and charmed many children within her tent by reading from their palm "good luck", love and a happy marriage some day.

Miss Ethel Freeman, a senior at Chowan College, received the prize for being the prettiest young lady present.

Mrs. Sue Lawrence, Miss Frances Lawrence and Miss Sarah Vaughan, went to Norfolk Thursday to attend the concert of Enrico Caruso, the monarch of song life.

J. Roy Parker, the brilliant editor of the Hertford County Herald, Miss Annie Parker and Miss Sallie Barnes motored over from Ahooskie Sunday and were visitors of President and Mrs. Vann at Chowan College.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes, of Ahooskie, were visitors on Sunday of Mrs. Barnes sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Willie Deans.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Barnes and son, J. B., Jr. of Ahooskie were visitors Sunday of Mrs. Pattie Watson.

Mr. John Wynn went to Norfolk Monday to attend Geraldine Farra's concert.

After last Sunday morning's service at the Baptist Church, Mrs. Humphrey, a Chowan student was received under the watch care of the church discussed: Plans for the first day of school, Miss Mary Williams; Keeping of Records and Making Reports, Miss Mary Parham; Duties and Privileges of the Principal, Miss Hattie Parrott.

At this time the meeting adjourned for the noon hour to accept an invitation from Miss Swindell and the domestic science class of Winton for a delicious lunch. This was an innovation which was appreciated by every one present and which later received a rising vote of thanks from the Association.

At the afternoon session Mr. Britton introduced Superintendent Glenn of Gates County. After some felicitous remarks Mr. Glenn made a strong plea for better preparations and increased ambition and interest on the part of the teachers.

The County Rural Supervisor was next introduced. In a lucid manner, Miss Brown outlined the work of the group meetings which are to be held in the county this year under her supervision. This is one of the most forward movements we have undertaken and places Hertford in line with other counties which are catching the broader vision. Miss Brown enters upon her new duties with enthusiasm and the county is to be congratulated upon having her in this work.

Plans for the Reading Circle course were discussed and the following leaders appointed: Winton, Mr. J. H. Brown, St. Johns; Mr. Otwell, Ahooskie, Miss Duffy, Murfreesboro; Miss Parham. Miss Parrott briefly reviewed the text adopted for study this year, touching upon some of its best features and ended by emphasizing the very great importance of professional improvement.

The program was concluded by a short talk by Mr. Brown on School Games and Recreation, and excellent suggestions from Mr. Otwell on how to arouse community spirit.

for the rest of the school term. At the evening service, Miss Wilmer Grant was a candidate for baptism and Miss Elizabeth Topping was received under the watch care of the church. The last two are also Chowan students.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Forbes of Mapleton and Mr. and Mrs. Tomie Forbes of Ahooskie, were in town last Sunday to see their sister, Mrs. Ella Wiggins who were we are sorry to hear is still very ill.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Miss Fannie Brown Harrell entertained on Monday afternoon at a party given at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. N. Harrell, in honor of her eighth birthday anniversary. The room was beautiful in the color scheme of red and white.

Red, dim lights shed a soft glow over the table on which were red and white candles. The centerpiece and doliies were of white. In the centre of the table was a lovely bouquet of red roses. There was a large cake around which were placed eight white candles.

Ice cream and cake, candy and the fruit were served for refreshments, and games were played for amusement.

Fannie Brown's little guests included Marjorie Pipkin, Mildred Watson, Frances Ferguson, Julia Short, Lucy Livrman, Corrine Lawrence, Emely Lawrence, Russell and Mary Louise Deans.

HYPHENATED CARNIVAL HERE

What might be termed a "hyphenated Carnival" came to town on Monday of this week, and is now plying its business on Copeland's lot on Church and Railroad Streets. The affair came to town unannounced, and, except for the advertisement given by their usual reputation and the bleating of the merry-go-round, which is a big portion of their entertainment, had no publicity.

Among their list of attractions are one or two gambling devices, including the roulette wheel. It is presumed that they are doing a rushing business.

BIG CELEBRATION OF WORLD WAR VETERANS AT WINTON FOR NEXT THURSDAY, 11TH

The Hertford County Post No. 102 of the American Legion will celebrate Armistice Day with an all day celebration at Winton, to which all Confederate Veterans and Spanish War Veterans have been extended an invitation. This Post was organized Legion, which was organized about three months ago, is made up of all ex-veterans of the World War of the entire County, several local posts having merged into the larger and more useful county organization.

The program as arranged is as follows: 11 A. M., Address by Colonel Albert L. Cox, 113th F. A., 30th Division, of Raleigh; 12:30 P. M., Presentation of Victory Medals to the Veterans; 1:00 P. M. Dinner at Riverside Park; 2 P. M., Meeting of the Hertford County Post No. 102, American Legion at the Courthouse; 3 P. M. Racing at the Fair grounds. The fair Association of the County has kindly consented to let the Post use the grounds for the racing events; and several good races have been arranged for the afternoon. Dinner will be served to all World War Veterans, the Confederate veterans, and the Spanish War veterans who attend the celebration and it is hoped that all will attend in full force.

A. S. Mitchell of Winton, who served in the 30th Division with Colonel Albert Cox, the speaker of the day, is Commandant of the Hertford County Post, and Attorney W. H. Boons of the same place is Adjutant. At the meeting next Thursday, it is hoped that every Ex-Veteran of the World War will attend and join the organization forth while to the men who served worth while to the men who served in the war.

BIG RACING EVENT IN NORFOLK

The biggest Race Meet which has been held in Norfolk since the Jamestown trac was in the height of its glory, is scheduled to take place on Tuesday, November 9th, continuing all through the week.

The racing will be governed by the National Trotting Association, and will feature some of the best trotters from the Metropolitan Circuit and Laurel. There will be runners from the Haverstown in purses, and this amount is bringing such horses as "Oros" who won the 2.18 trotting purse of $1000, at the "Pennsylvania Fair," in 2.14-1-4 time. There are over 40 horses at the track now.

Winter barns have been constructed which will accommodate fifty horses, and these will be used as permanent training stables after this season's races are over. It seems as though old Mariner's Track, which is one of the best half mile tracks in the South will again be famous among those who follow the higher class horses.

It is expected that matinee races will be run every Saturday through the winter, using the horses that are stabled there for training purposes.

HERALD DELAYED THIS WEEK

The Herald is delayed one day this week, owing to troubles with our typesetting machine, which has absolutely refused to act decent this week, even though she has been teased along for several days. The editor is now sitting in the office of the NORTHAMPTON PROGRESS, at Jackson, setting up the type for this issue of the Herald. Till late tonight, which is Thursday, he will be here and hopes to get back to his own office on early Friday morning and publish the paper on Friday, instead of Thursday, as is our usual custom.

We are expecting a mechanic from the home offices of the Mergenthaler Linotype Machine some time next week and hope to be able to publish the paper next week and every week after wards on time.

MOTHERS' CLUB WILL MEET

The Twentieth Century Mothers' Club will meet at the home of Mrs. H. B. Chapin on Tuesday, November 9, at half past two o'clock. The members are urged to be present. The committee on civic improvement will make reports that will interest all members of the club, and a large attendance is requested.

WEST CHOWAN ASSOCIATION HOLDS ANNUAL SESSION WITH MT. TABOR LAST WEEK

Murfreesboro, November 1.—The West Chowan Association convened with the Mount Tabor Baptist Church near here on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

The Tuesday morning session opened with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. W. H. Hollowell. After the business preliminaries and election of officers for the ensuing year, the next in importance was a talk by Mr. J. S. Farmer, of Raleigh, who represented the Biblical Recorder. M. Hamrick, Secretary and Treasurer of Thomasville Orphanage, made a fine speech which was greatly enjoyed by all who heard it. There were other good speeches which were also enjoyed.

The principal feature of the afternoon session was the report on education, followed by a general discussion on Christian Education by Rev. W. R. Haight and J. H. Matthews of Windsor, and President, Preston B. Vann of Chowan College. The final and most interesting subject was a discussion of Chowan College. Mr. Vann stated that Chowan had entered upon a new era and that it was among the first in the state in up-to-dateness. Of course this was fairly absorbed.

Tuesday evening at seven o'clock there was a praise service conducted by Rev. J. W. Whitley, pastor of the Murfreesboro Baptist Church and a sermon by E. G. Stephen.

On Wednesday morning the second day, there was devotional exercises by J. H. Barnes. Next of importance was a report on Church Statistics by Mr. Long. Discussion on State, Home and Foreign Missions by C. W. Scarborough of Franklin, Va., and F. B. Raymond of Como. Mr. Farmer gave a talk in behalf of woman's work, which feature was appreciated by the women. An interesting feature of the morning session was a talk by Mr. T. C. Britton, returned Missionary from China.

Wednesday afternoon Mr. J. H. Matthews gave a report and talk on the 75 Million Dollar Campaign. This was followed by a report from all the churches. Then Miscellaneous business and adjournment.

One of the most fitting and appreciated features of the Association was the talk Wednesday afternoon by C. W. Scarborough, relative to having the undesirable and debasing features which have attended the county fairs forbidden hereafter.

Mr. Matthews of Windsor was appointed to draw up resolutions which were unanimously adopted. He was authorized to present these resolutions to the next meeting of the Legislature when it is hoped they will go into effect. This was a grand move.

The people of Murfreesboro and the community were amazed at the indignant at the immorality that was allowed to exist at the County Fair. We feel like giving Mr. Scarborough and his colleagues a hearty handshake.

COTTON GROWERS AND WAREHOUSE MEETING

There will be a meeting of the growers of Wamnamaker Cleveland Big Boll Cotton and the stock holders of the Chowan Co-operative Warehouse Co., at the Court House at Winton at 2 o'clock Tuesday, November 9th, 1920 for the purpose of reorganizing the Warehouse Co., and making arrangements for storing cotton and forming a selling organization for the planting seed grown in Hertford County.

All who have subscribed for the stock of this company and all farmers who expect to have seed for sale will please be present at this meeting and learn how the plans will work.

The North Carolina Extension Service will co-operate with the seed organization but since there are so many growers in the county it will be impossible for this service to be given to each individual as has been done in the past. If you expect this service to help you in disposing of your planting seed it will be necessary that you get into the organization or sell thru it.
