Something to Think About
By F. A. WALKER

THE SOFT ANSWER

WHEN you shall see, feel and know the sovereign power of the soft answer, you will not hesitate to admit its priceless value in preserving the friendship of peoples and nations.

Though a sponsor or all that is good and noble in mankind there is an illogical willingness in most of us to shun its charming companionship and turn to rougher acquaintances.

When the world is jangling and vicious tongues are spitting fire and brimstone, it is quite natural for us to pile more fuel on the flame, regardless of the spreading conflagration, even though it be singeing the good names of our friends.

We lose our grip on self-respect until calmness comes with afterthought, and shows us the error of our way.

Then, as the scales fall from our eyes we become penitent.

For days we move shame-facedly from pillar to post, avoiding the friends we have hurt. And aside from the terror of separation which confronts us, we are tormented by remorse which undoes our nerves and throbbles our spirits.

As we reflect upon our behavior, we realize that our miseries come from our own workshop. They are not ground out in the mill of fate, tied in hulging bags and delivered at our door, as apologetic folk would have us believe, but of our own grinding—horrible grist filled with worms.

Upon those persons who have habituated themselves to use gentle words, and to use in stressful arguments the soft answer, the sun of good-will shines perpetually.

They are courted by the young and the old for their friendship and cheerfulness, which comfort and delight in the darkest days of sorrow, and warm in winter's cold.

Their influence for good is as immeasurable as a mother's love.

Perhaps you may have friends among these kindly persons to whom you turn when difficulties torment, life's skeins are tangled and your heart is burdened beyond its strength. If you have, heaven indeed has blessed you.

Observe the lightness of their eyes, the smile that is ever about the lips, the musical intonation of the voice when it answers softly. And as you do, resolve that you, too, will wed your tongue to the soft answer that "turneth away wrath."

THE FRIENDLY PATH

By WALTER I. ROBINSON

DON'T count over your burdens. They'll seem greater if you do.

It is always poor policy to go about trying to find all the disconcerting things along the pathway of life. Those which are of sufficient importance to command one's attention are sure to bob up without a search.

Never meet trouble until trouble meets you. If it's going to overtake you, it'll do soon enough. It is always good policy to be prepared for difficulties in order that they may easily be overcome. But to be prepared does not mean that one must constantly go about with strings on his fingers so that he may not forget any of the problems which are likely to bob up.

Nearly all the stumbling blocks along the trail followed by humans in this world are imaginary. But for their willingness to admit that they face serious problems, most of the discontented would hardly know that they are battling against odds when they actually are.

Because one has to face a trying task or great disappointment, does not mean that he is more unfortunate than others, nor that fate has turned against him. No one ever passed down the pathway to the valley of contentment (as they believed it) without working against odds at times and not infrequently being displeased when progress seemed slow. The same is true in the efforts of all who have tried to climb the steep places on the way to success, for neither in arriving at material goals nor in seeking the peace of comforting surroundings will there not be some troubles which have to be met.

But when one counts over the burdens which he expects or regrets, the future will usually appear to have a darker aspect than is justified by developments.

If one tries to find the bright side, he'll usually be so greatly enthused by his prospects that the burdens will seem small and easy to face.

THE TIME TO TAKE PEPTO-MANGAN

When You Feel a Little "OFF" It Will Bring You Back to Health

Some people never need any medicine at all. They are, as the saying goes, "strong as a bull." They are mighty lucky. Most people need a good tonic once in a while. They take a cold, or through overwork or social activity do not get enough sleep; many eat improper food and thus hurt their digestion. It is mighty wise to take Gude's Pepto-Mangan with the meals for a few weeks and to build up. One cannot have too much good health. Pepto-Mangan gives you plenty of red blood, and everyone knows that red blood means feeling good and looking good all of the time. Sold by druggists in either liquid or tablet form. Advertisement.

RED PEPPER FOR COLDS IN CHEST

Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

"Red Pepper Rub" is the cold remedy that brings quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the congestion and soreness right out.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers, and when heat penetrates right down into colds, congestion, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints relief comes at once.

The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the congested spot is warmed through and through. When you are suffering from a cold, rheumatism, backache, stiff neck or sore muscles, just get a jar of Rowies Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE— DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

"St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia.
