I AM YOUR TOWN

Take of me what you will—I shall reflect you as clearly as a mirror throws back a candle beam. If I am pleasing to the eye of the stranger within my gates; if I am such a sight as, having seen me, he will remember me all his days as a thing of beauty, the credit is yours.

Ambition and opportunity call some of my sons and daughters to high tasks and mighty privileges, to my greater honor and to my good repute in far places, but it is not chifty these who are my strength. My strength is in those who remain, who are content with what I can offer them, and with what they can offer me. It was the greatest of all Romans who said: "Better be first in a little Iberian village than be second in Rome."

I am more than wood and brick and stone, more even than flesh and blood—I am the composite soul of all who call me home. I am your town.—American Legion Weekly.

KNITTED BATHING SUITS PREFERRED

ACCORDING to the calendar, anticipation will soon be realization to those looking forward to the season of swimming and sea-bathing. Why not forestall the usual plea of regret, "I have no bathing suit," by preparing aforesaid.

It was remarked at the sea-coast winter resorts this season, that the plain high-quality knitted bathing suit were prime favorite. Of course there were many novelty creations which pass under the title of bathing suit, which are in reality beach costumes of the elaborate sort. If one is not a water fan, this sort of outfit is charmingly in accord with the picture, but when it comes to real sport, genuine healthy hearty playing the waves, or professional swimming, nothing gives the satisfaction of the knitted bathing suit.

It is, however, good economy to buy only the best. There are certain standard makes which guarantee fast color and enduring shapeliness. It is a waste of money to invest in any other.

Some of the new knitted suits are most attractively designed as verified in the accompanying picture. This model is to be had in very interesting color combinations, such as gray with navy, scarlet or orange border. It is of jersey knit and in every line shows that style and becomingness has been thought out by the designer down to the slightest detail.

The attached full skirt is belted and bordered, in a way which adds to the general attractiveness. The refinement of this suit is one of its characteristics.

It is just as essential to wear attractive correct accessories with the bathing suit, as with one's dressiest costume. Bathing caps are becoming millinery achievements these days. The rubber flower caps are great favorites. For instance an ocean blue cap is entirely covered with white petalled rubber daisies. Roman stripe bandanna caps are immensely becoming and it carries out a color mode which is fashionable throughout dress accessory this season.

For beach capes there are creations in rubberized silk in gayest colorings. The three-piece bathing suit with knitted cape to match is meeting with success, not only because of its attractiveness, but also from the standpoint of utility.
