

STATE NEWS IN DIGEST

The immediate and pressing needs of all families reported to the Red Cross Relief Committee at Wendell have been met.

Organization of the Tar Heel district Boy Scout council, including five counties, was perfected at a meeting of representatives from Wilson, Tarboro, Henderson and Rocky Mount at the latter city last Friday night.

None the worse for being eight days over-due on account of the flood that descended upon eastern North Carolina last week, the schools of Chowan County staged their pageant of three hundred years of the county's history before a crowd of 3,000 at the fair grounds in Edenton last Saturday.

The Worth While club of Wadesboro is asking the women's clubs of North Carolina to co-operate in a movement for the appointment of a poet laureate for the State and has nominated Rev. John Jordan Douglas for the honorary position.

New Bern, swept by the State's most disastrous fire in December, has embarked upon a building program which will in a few weeks mean the investment of more than a million dollars.

Raleigh brokers are of the opinion that the law exempting foreign stocks from taxation in the State has had little effect upon securities bought by North Carolinians, but if the act is not repealed by the next General Assembly the amount of foreign stocks held by North Carolinians will be very greatly increased.

Three men were killed at a tale mine near Carthage last Saturday when the cave fell in.

Sixty gallons of perfectly good liquor was poured into the city gutter at Greenville last Friday. Officers of that city are making a determined drive upon the dealers in illicit liquor.

A farmer living near Wilson was instantly killed last Saturday when a tractor, used to plow his farm lands, overturned on him.

All reserve officers in North Carolina are urged to take advantage of the opportunity to go into training for 15 days during the summer months in letters that have been sent out by Adjutant General J. Van B. Metts.

The boll weevil has begun an attack upon Fords. Fishermen at a pond near Wilson last Saturday were astonished to see a drove of weevils crawling about on their Ford when they prepared to leave for their homes.

Hon. Claude Kitchen has announced that he will again be an aspirant for the office of Congressman from the Second District. He is expected to have no opposition from his party members.

George Burfeel, son of the former chief of police, was burned to death in a fire at Kinston Monday.

The State Board of Charities and Public Welfare will hold a meeting in Raleigh Friday.

In the city election at Raleigh last Monday, all of the old officers were defeated for re-nomination, and a new line-up substituted.

Judge Henry Groves Connor, of the United States District Courts, will teach law in the University Summer School this summer.

Guilford county deputies say good times are reflected in the improvement noted in the quality of stills now found in operation by moonshiners.

The Commission on Farm Tenacy appointed by the last General Assembly left Raleigh at noon Monday for a tour of Eastern North Carolina which will take its members through several counties and permit them to visit a dozen or more farm settlements that have been developed by private capital.

Lester Hill, cotton operative at Raleigh, is not entitled to recover from a bottling concern because he found a rat in a Coca-Cola bottle is the ruling handed down in Wake county court.

The Prison Board of North Carolina has refused to make an investigation of charges of mistreatment to prisoners, made by E. E. Dudding, President of the Prisoners' Relief Society of Washington. Much unfavorable comment by state newspapers has been given on account of their decision.

Another month will be required for auditors to complete the work of auditing the books of the State of North Carolina. An extra force of 18 men has been put on the job lately.

D. H. Blair, internal Revenue Commissioner, says he has no idea of resigning his job. Reports were current that he would quit.

More than $100,000,000 has been lost by citizens of North Carolina in worthless stocks in the past four years, according to Stacey W. Wade, Insurance Commissioner. He said probably but one other period in the State's history had witnessed such a flood of worthless stocks.

The North Carolina Drainage Association held a well attended meeting in New Bern last week.

Blocade hootch, or corn liquor for the lack of a better name, caused the untimely death of a buzzard near Winston-Salem last week. A deputy investigating the accident found that the buzzard had partaken of the carrion of a hog (himself a victim of the mean liquor), and died as a natural result.

The annual session of the North Carolina Medical Society came to a close last Thursday, after holding one of its best meetings in late years.

The building committee appointed to outline the construction program for the State University has decided that the woman students will be built a building during the next two years, to cost approximately $100,000.

Loss estimated at around $150,000 was sustained in the destruction by fire last Thursday of the lumber manufacturing plant and large store of C. M. Wall & Son at Southmont, near Lexington.

The Carolina Power and Light Company will soon erect a power plant on the Cape Fear River near Fayetteville, to cost three-quarters of a million dollars.

County and city school officials heard Dr. E. C. Brooks, State Superintendent of Education, explain the new features of the State School law, at a meeting in the hall of the House of Representatives at Raleigh last Friday.

Members of the T. P. A. of North Carolina are making more and more use of the highways in their business, have less and less love for the type of prohibition agent who springs from ambush and yells "Halt"; and they are determined to start a campaign against the unscrupulous agents.

Three blows with an axe delivered by Dewey Smith, age 23, and his father, age 75, wealthy Wayne county farmer, last Wednesday lay dead, his head smashed almost beyond recognition. The boy was taken into custody.

MENOLA LOCALS

Mrs. J. M. Eley is at home after a ten-day day visit to her daughter, Mrs. Spencer Boyette of Warsaw. She was accompanied home by her niece, little Pauline Boyette, who will spend a while with her grandmother.

Rev. John F. Cale of Roxobel filled his regular appointment here Sunday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. William Brown and little son, Ronald of Rich Square, spent Sunday as the guests of their mother.

Messrs. Kelly and W. Harvey Vinson were in Aulander Saturday afternoon on business.

Miss Berta Parker, principal of the Mapleton School spent the weekend at home.

Mr. A. G. Otwell was in Ahoskie one afternoon of last week on business.

Mr. Stanley Brown of the Hickory Chapel faculty spent the weekend at home.

Miss Janie Parker left last Thursday to visit her friend, Miss Elizabeth Brown who is a member of the Frankinton High School faculty, Frankinton, N. C. Before returning home, Miss Parker will also visit her sister, Mrs. Archie M. Brown of Union.

Mr. Cleve Vinson made a business trip to Potecasi Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Margaret Brown and son, James Robert, and Mr. and Mrs. Berry Lee White, visited in the home of Mrs. Ella Jessup of Woodland Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Robert Brown, Mrs. W. B. Pollard, and Miss Thelma Brown of Winton were the guests of their mother the past week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Parker and Mrs. Laura Parker were in Ahoskie one day last week shopping.

The B. Y. P. U. members gave a very interesting program at church Sunday evening. We urge every young person in the community to be present at the next meeting. If you go once you will want to be there the next time, try it.

Mrs. Mary Brown and children, Miss Deborah and Mr. Henry, spent Friday afternoon in Rich Square as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Brown.

Sheriff B. Scull and Mr. John W. Taylor of Harrellsville were in town Monday on business.

Mr. Charles W. Parker spent Monday in Winton attending court.

Teachers and pupils of the graded school are preparing for commencement which will be some time in May.

The farmer who doesn't worry much today is the one who has a monthly income check from chickens, cows, hogs and a big check when his cash crop is sold.

MURFREESBORO NEWS

Weekly Quotation

A man can get no nearer God than by giving health to his fellow man.—Socrates.

Revival services will begin here Sunday in the new Baptist church. The inside of the church, although not fully finished up, need not interfere with the spiritual poise of its worshippers, according to the pastor, Mr. Whitley, who has given largely of his time, personal service and means in order to hasten the completion at this time. It has also been largely due to his untiring efforts and perseverance that the members have caught much of their inspiration.

The Rev. Mr. Yarborough of Henderson lectured on Sunday School work last Sunday morning at the Methodist church.

Mr. Paul Boyette has left for Lake View hospital, Suffolk, where he is waiting to undergo an operation. His wife and mother are with him.

The Womans' Missionary meeting met on Monday afternoon with Mrs. E. B. Vaughan, the president.

Misses Willie Mae Horton and Minnie Dunning, students of Chowan attended last week, the Students' Government Conference at Westhampton College, Richmond, Va.

Carey Vaughan's nefariously imperial career has sparkled out.

Mrs. D. C. Barnes Gives A Reception Monday afternoon, April 16, Mrs. D. C. Barnes gave a large, informal reception at her home from 8:30 to 6 o'clock, in honor of her sister, Miss Mary Smith, and Mrs. Frank Barnes, both of Williamston, N. C. Mrs. Barnes entertained charmingly. Her guests, numbered between forty and fifty.

Miss Virgie Wynn Entertains Thursday evening, April 19th, Miss Maude Vinson and Mrs. Virgie Wynn entertained four members of the College faculty, Misses Booth, Fannie White, Caroline Lane and Gertrude Knott, at a seven o'clock dinner, given in honor of Miss Booth, Mrs. Wynn's art teacher.

Franklin Sherman wants to get the first live boll weevil that a farmer finds this season. Send it to him at Raleigh.

DO IT NOW—SUBSCRIBE TO THE HERALD—$1.50 per year

"GOOD WILL"

IT'S NOT WHAT WE HAVE DONE FOR OUR CUSTOMERS, but its the way we have done it, that has secured their GOOD WILL.

IT'S NOT ATTENDING TO THE ROUTINE BANKING, BANKING functions which we're obliged to perform, but it's the going out of our way voluntarily to be helpful to all that has made people speak well of us.

HELPFULLNESS, OR COURTESY IN ACTION, IS NOT SELECTIVE in this bank. WE NEVER HESITATE before rendering a service, nor discriminate between customers--all are valued friends.

WE CORDIALLY INVITE EVERYONE TO USE THIS SERVICE which our depositors have found so helpful, and which has given to us our biggest asset--their good will.

Farmers-Atlantic Bank

"The Bank Of Service"
AHOSKIE, N. C.

It Pays to Pay Cash at the Hub

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

The Hub

Norfolk's Great Store for Men and Boys will celebrate its 28th Birthday with a Tremendous Anniversary Sale

of new

Spring Clothing and Furnishings

for Men and Boys

This is a bargain feast the like of which has never been seen in Virginia. Every department in this great store comes forward with specials of unusual high quality at prices that mean important savings to you.

Remember the date - Beginning Saturday, May 5th

MANSBACH BROS.

The Hub

NORFOLK VIRGINIA
MAIN STREET - near GRANBY