Educational.
The Courier is publishing a series of articles by permission of the Randolph County Teachers' Association. This week we publish letters on educational subjects from former Senator Pritchard, now Judge Pritchard, and from Mr D A Tompkins, of Charlotte. Other educational letters of value to our people and which have been favorably received were by Senator Simmons and Col W P Wood.

Professor Crowell to be Married.
The following announcement has been sent out to friends: "Mrs Adelaide Gaston invites you to be present at the marriage of her daughter Elizabeth Louise to Mr George Henry Crowell on Thursday morning, June 25th, at 9 o'clock, at the Methodist church, Franklin, N. C. At home after July 20th, High Point, N. C. Mr Crowell is superintendent of the graded schools at High Point, N. C., and Miss Gaston has been music teacher at the schools.

Prof Crowell was formerly principal of the Asheboro Graded Schools.

Confederate Pensions.
All persons entitled to pensions, who are not on the pension roll, must appear before the pension board July 6th, unless a certificate of a physician that applicant is not able to attend in person. New applicants can get blanks from the Clerk of the Superior Court. Those now receiving pensions need not apply.

The Chatham Record, whose editor was a member of the last Senate says: "Heretofore no widow could get a pension who had married again, but the new law allows any widow of a Confederate soldier married before April 1st, 1865, to draw a pension even if she has married again, provided she is a widow at the date of her application and is not worth over $500 worth of property. The new law does not allow a pension because of service in the Home Guards, but only because of service in the Confederate army or navy."

Dr. W. A. Woolen Dead.
Dr. W. A. Woolen died at Randleman on last Friday, aged 64 years, after a lingering illness of several months.

Dr. Woolen had practiced medicine for 44 years, was a prominent physician and a leading citizen, and a gentleman of the highest christian character.

The funeral services were conducted at St. Paul's M. E. church, South, on last Sunday. Rev. L. T. Cordell, his pastor, preached an appropriate funeral sermon.

There was a large congregation assembled to pay their respects in the last and rites to one in whom there was no guile and in whose religion they had confidence, because he died as he lived, wearing the white flower of a stainless life. The congregation assembled were from different sections of the county and filled the large church and galleries to overflowing.

A sketch of Dr. Woolen's life will appear in a future issue of The Courier.

Smith vs. Ingram.
The hearing of Christian Smith vs. H C Ingram in the Supreme court is decided in favor of the plaintiff. The plaintiff's case was argued in the Supreme court by Mr U L Spence, of Carthage, and Mr J A Spence, of Asheboro. The result gives Mrs Christian Smith about one-fourth of the town of Star, in Montgomery county.

Several years ago Mrs Smith and her husband moved to South Carolina and while living there Mrs Smith sold her land at Star, but her price examination was not taken as the laws of South Carolina do not require the price examination of a married woman to enable her to convey her property, but our Supreme court in this case says that notwithstanding the fact that she lives in South Carolina, yet the laws of conveyance in this State must be observed in conveying land within the State.

The question now will come up as to whether the present owners of the lands are entitled to the improvements.

The case was decided by the Supreme court a year or two ago but the defendants got a re-hearing.

Has Jimmie's.
Duke York was lodged in jail Thursday on a capias issued from the circuit court at Greensboro. He was tried for "stifling" at last term and sentenced in his absence. He is now in jail for failing to give justified bond in the sum of $300.

He is also bound over to the Superior court of Randolph on a charge of larceny. He is in a serious condition, having a last case of delirium tremens. He has torn his clothing off and torn up his bedding in his cell.

Sues Ex-Sheriff Hendricks.
Suit has been commenced in the Superior Court of Randolph county by Mrs Nannie E. Coltrane against ex-sheriff Hendricks.

The suit, who are sued with Mr Hendricks, are Alfred Macon, E. Milton Cox, E. A. Hamner, A. H. Hendricks and J. F. Pickett.

Our information is that several years ago Mr W W Coltrane, of Liberty township, executed to his wife's father a deed for his farm on Sandy creek. Time went on; the land remained on the tax books in the name of W W Coltrane. Finally it was sold by Sheriff Hendricks for taxes. Mr Arthur Ross, of about $1200. In the course of time a deed was executed by Mr Hendricks to Mr Ross. A quit claim deed was executed at the same time by Mr and Mrs W W Coltrane and also by Mr Coble, father of Mrs Coltrane. After paying the taxes and the expenses of the sale the remainder of the $1200 was turned over to Mr Coble. Mrs Coltrane claims it should have been paid to her as the rightful owner. She is now suing Mr Hendricks and the above named parties on his official bond as sheriff for the recovery of what she claims should have been paid to her.

Mr and Mrs Coltrane recently had domestic infelicities it is said, and Mrs Coltrane had a warrant issued for her husband and had him before a magistrate to answer a charge of abandonment, failure to support of some similar charge. Mrs J A Long, of Greensboro, is Mrs Coltrane's attorney.

Mrs Coltrane has also brought suit against Mr Levi P. Lindler, the present owner for possession of the land.

Death in Delejo.
In far away Delphner, Oregon, a great flood in Willows Creek drowned 500 people. Delphner is a town of 1200 population. Willow Creek is ordinarily a small stream. The whole town was washed away.

All Like Judge Allen.
This court is a great one for damage suits, and Judge Allen seems to be a favorite judge for all parties to try before. They have accumulated here, some of them, because very often a judge one side likes, the other does not, but in all cases on the docket with Judge Allen presiding it is a singular fact that there is nobody sick or at the point of death, etc., to delay or continue this class of cases by either party.

The above is from the Charlotte Observer's Greensboro correspondent. Judge W R Allen will be the Judge at the next two terms of Randolph Courts.

Liberty Items.
Your Liberty correspondent is not dead that you have not heard from him lately, but has simply been asleep part of the time.

Not much news going on since the commencement. All has been somewhat quiet and dull for the past two weeks.

Harvest is now on hand and everybody has plenty of work to do. A number of hands could get employment hereabouts, but they are not to be had. Most of our people have to rely on their own hands for their work.

An important deal has been made recently. Dr Amick has purchased the one-half interest in the Liberty Normal College property heretofore owned by Prof Shaw. A strong faculty is being arranged for the college and the work of the college will be put on a higher scale than ever before. Everything points to a most successful term for the college this fall. The catalogue will be published this month and will soon be ready for distribution.

Prof W B Owen, of Siler City, is now at home with his parents. He will spend the summer in Liberty.

Prof Cunley, of Siler City, spent a day in this city last week.

Mr W G Amick, of the University of North Carolina, is spending the vacation at the home of his parents, near Liberty.

The Liberty Normal College will send the following students to the University of North Carolina this fall: J M Andrews, C G Sharpe and E W Mann; to Wake Forest, A S Mitchell; to the A & M College at West Raleigh, R G McPherson and C M Causey. Not many schools send off a better array of talent than this.

Dr and Mrs Amick attended the commencement of the University of North Carolina and report a good time and fine commencement exercises.

Miss Ada Newby and Mr C F Overman are in Liberty completing their course in bookkeeping. They lacked a few weeks of work at the close of the college.

Dr W H Albright is spending a part of the time in Liberty now helping Mr W H Griffin, the cashier of the Liberty bank. He is also learning the business preparatory to going into it himself.

The bank has been established—now for a furniture factory. We have everything necessary, plenty of lumber and everything that would contribute to the success of the factory.

The Sanctificationists have not tried these parts. We hope they will not have the impudence to do so during these hundred years. We believe in the plain, straightforward gospel and in the old-time religion of our fathers, and we believe in everything that will help enable the race, but we do not believe in fanatics or fanaticism, and that is what we believe the Sanctificationists to be.

Dr Albright was in town last week.

Dr and Mrs T C Amick are at Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach this week. He is attending the annual convention of the K of P for the Grand Division of North Carolina. They will spend a few days in Asheboro during the coming month.

A number of reapers have been sold from this town this spring. People must have plenty of wheat for still they come and buy machinery to cut it with.
