The Riblical Recorder recently said editorially:

"We need a campaign throughout North Carolina in behalf of cornomy in public administration, and expectally in our towns and cities. We should never stop until affairs are pecially in our towns and cities. We should never stop until affairs are conducted as private affairs are. In some of our towns we notice ther are maintaining departments of Latin and French in the free schools. This issue impositions. We should be cornected to confine instruction in our free schools to reading, suffing, suffing and the field to eccee after the first imming.
