NOTES AND COMMENTS.

'A Quaker may be quite as un-desirable citizen as a Socialist.'—Theodore Roosevelt in life of De Witt.

Elsewhere in these columns will be found a statement given out by Superintendent Way of the condition of the public schools in this county and their growth since 1890.

Judge Alton B. Parker was formally notified of his nomination of candidate for president at Essex yesterday through Hon. Champ Clark.

'You tickle me and I'll tickle you,' says the administration to the trusts.—The latest advice to the sugar trust to raise a republican campaign fund.

The appointment of a negro woman as postmaster at Erad, Miss., following so closely some other acts of the administration merely adds insult to injury.

When we compare ourselves with ourselves we have done well; when we compare ourselves with more progressive countries we find a great deal that must be done.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the letter of Henry S. Barker, a northern negro, as published in the Washington Post.

LOOK AFTER YOUR WHEAT. Until the recent heavy rains the prospects for the farmers in our own county were excellent.

The A. & N. C. Road Again. A meeting of the stock holders of the A. & N. C. Railroad will be held in Newbern September 1st.

THE WHITE TRIAL IN SEPTEMBER. Rowan county superior court convenes on the first Monday in September.

AS A NORTHERN NEGRO SEES REPUBLICANISM.

The Scene at National Convention—The Grandest Example of the Equality of the Races Recorded in History.

Booker T. Washington in 1905. The following highly interesting communication to the Washington Post presents in a nutshell as it were the race question as it appears to the negroes of the North.

Let not my colored brethren forget that scene in the Republican convention when a beautiful white girl was placed upon the stage, and by her side a negro boy.

In the Democratic convention there was not a single colored man. It was in vain and in deed a white man's party.

Progress of Public Education in Randolph County. Amount apportioned for schools and school-houses in 1899.

When we compare ourselves with ourselves we have done well; when we compare ourselves with more progressive countries we find a great deal that must be done.

Republicans for Parker. Parkersburg, W. Va., August 6th.—Ashby Harrison, of Ripley, W. Va., Republican nominee for Judge of the Circuit Court of the fifth district.

Hoover Family Reunion. THE COURIER has received the following notice: The annual reunion of the Hoover family will take place at Chestnut Hill Park, Philadelphia, Pa., on Wednesday, August 17, 1904.

LOOK AFTER YOUR WHEAT. Until the recent heavy rains the prospects for the farmers in our own county were excellent.

The A. & N. C. Road Again. A meeting of the stock holders of the A. & N. C. Railroad will be held in Newbern September 1st.

RALEIGH LETTER.

Special Correspondence of the Courier.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 8, 1904.—From a news standpoint the depths of dog-days dullness has been found during the past week.

The public in North Carolina will first read it in the Raleigh Times-Vision, and two or three other North Carolina evening papers.

There is a strong and growing belief among democrats and well-developed far among republicans that Mr. Parker is to be the next president.

The 'business interests' of this country, which so largely control the great independent vote in the doubtful northern and western states.

Work on grading the Durham-Charlotte railroad here has been going on about a week, and only in the last few days has the work been started.

A sudden attack of slight of vision from Bowel Compton, my cousin to my wife.

Worthwhile Items. Worthville, Aug. 8.—Dr. Smith spent Saturday and Sunday in our town preaching and singing for us with great force and power.

Our community was saddened by the death of Miss Bessie Winslow, a bright girl of 16 years, which occurred this morning at 1 o'clock.

News From Millboro and Providence. The business meeting has been going on for several days near Lake-berry.

ITEMS OF NEWS.

The republicans of Durham are to get out a campaign daily.

The friends will hold their next yearly meeting at Guilford college, instead of High Point.

David Biggers, a resident year old while they stood before him in a well.

John D. Armstrong and son Walter (Frank) M. Phillips, of Norfolk, were drowned in Little Bay Monday, as the result of the son's desire to save the drowning of his father and friend, who had been taken with cramps.

James Allen, a negro was convicted and sentenced to be hanged at Erad last week for a criminal assault on the person of Jennie Oakley, 21 years old.

Wisconsin Democrats will try their luck again with the title of 'Duck's Bad Boy' as candidate for Governor.

The next meeting of the North Carolina Press Association will be held in Asheville, the time to be fixed by the executive committee.
