Work Pleases! A little forethought may save you a great deal of trouble.

TON DARTER. A little forethought may save you a great deal of trouble.

CALIFORNIA. Santa Clara Valley—San Francisco, the Great Metropolis of the Western Coast—Glimpse of Oregon.

From Santa Cruz the editorial party traveled up the Santa Clara Valley, one of the most beautiful valleys in California and one of the greatest fruit growing regions in the world.

GOLDEN GATE AND SAN FRANCISCO BAY. On Saturday morning our party found trolley cars waiting to show us the city which covers 30,000 acres of land and has a population of 450,000.

Continuing our journey up the Santa Clara Valley we reached the Golden Gate City about five o'clock in the afternoon.

CLIFF HOUSE AND REAL ROCKS. Cliff House, the famous hotel and resort is on a rocky elevation above the bay, and overlooking the ocean.

From the Cliff house one gets a fine view of the Seal Rocks, bare rocks washed by the waves, water and sun themselves.

OAKLAND AND BERKELEY. In the afternoon two trips were planned. Our North Carolina party divided. I went to Oakland and Berkeley across the Bay.

Mr. J. D. Yarboro, who has been at Hoffman for the past several months, passed through Troy last week on his way to visit his people in the Canby community.

Dear Gus—I have solved the problem in my own mind that I never raise a glass of water to my lips without asking God's blessing.

Here again we started on a narrow stair way but were sent back to the place of twenty were in, and the place was filled up.

At 3 o'clock the Union Express depot and we started on the way to Oakland, where we started on towards Portland.

This was our first stop. The Chamber of Commerce took charge of the party and showed us many interesting places, among them were Fort Sutter, which was built by Gen Sutter in 1839 and was used as a place of safety for the whites against the Indians.

SCOTT'S EMULSION. We like best to call this a food because it stands so emphatically for perfect nutrition.

WASHINGTON LETTER. Extra Session—Cannon Re-Elected Speaker—Williams to Continue Democratic Leader—He is a Great Leader.

Washington, D. C., August 9th.—The call for the extra session of the 59th Congress will compel the organization of the House of Representatives three weeks earlier than it otherwise would be organized.

In the Skisyon mountains we made a circuit of eight miles to reach a point just above, of 1 of a mile, the porter pointed out the track below on which we would soon travel and when there we could look out a short distance above and see the land of fruits, flowers and sunshine and land in Ashland in time for a goodly supper.

At Salem, the capital of Oregon complimentary breakfast was in waiting after which we saw the city and wound our way to Portland and the Fair, about which I will write next week.

It will wash and not rub off. This complexion all envy me, it's no secret so I'll tell. Take them Rocky Mountain Tea, Ashboro Drug Co.

MONTGOMERY NEWS. The News of Our Neighboring County. From the Montgomery.

Mr. Taylor Bell, who recently moved from Star to Troy, did not remain with us long. He moved to Albemarle one day last week.

A party composed of Messrs I C Nance, J G Tomlinson, A W E Capel, of Troy, and Mr Henry C Watson, of Rockingham, went to Whitney Wednesday to see the works and progress of The Whitney Reduction Co. at that place.

Mr J D Yarboro, who has been at Hoffman for the past several months, passed through Troy last week on his way to visit his people in the Canby community.

Messrs Will Harley and Clete Monroe, who has been with the American Bridge Company the past year, were on the early train Monday morning going to Washington, D. C. They have been visiting relatives at Wadswille for the past few weeks.

I have so fixed the habit in my own mind that I never raise a glass of water to my lips without asking God's blessing.

Dear Gus—I have solved the problem in my own mind that I never raise a glass of water to my lips without asking God's blessing.

There is no sort of doubt that John Sharp Williams is the ablest man who has held the Democratic party in the House of Representatives for many years.
