WASHINGTON LETTER.

Senator Morgan of Alabama, Speaks on Rights of States Concerning Railroad Rate Legislation.

Don't write me down as an alarmist, but really it is time that the American people and their representatives in Congress, give intelligent consideration to a few facts that are facing us.

The days of Jeffersonian simplicity have given away to those of paternalism and centralization, and neither of these are consistent with the Democratic doctrine of Jefferson and the earlier leaders of the Democratic party.

Democracy is the name of the game, and the name of the game is not to be changed. It is not to be changed, it is to be maintained.

Democracy is the name of the game, and the name of the game is not to be changed. It is not to be changed, it is to be maintained.

Senator Morgan's letter to the Alabama Assembly has called attention to one phase of the case, in which he declares that the determination to place this question of railroad rate fixing in the hands of the National Government is an infringement on the rights of the States that Congress has no right to usurp.

MONTGOMERY NEWS.

The News of Our Neighboring County.

The Smithman Cotton Mill continues to erect tenant houses for its employees. Several neat cottages have recently been erected on Factory street in the western part of town.

Farmers tell us that owing to the favorable season for opening there will be no stained cotton this year. The crops had matured long before the first frost.

A dog in the home of Mr. D. F. Morgan created some excitement in town Friday morning by exhibiting symptoms of hydrophobia. As soon as its peculiar actions were observed it was promptly killed.

A mad dog over at Cole's Store, Handolph county, bit two children Sunday morning, one of whom was Johnny Mann, the eight year old son of Mr. W. H. Mann.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all of these requirements and for speedy and permanent cure of bad colds stands without a peer.

The superior court was occupied yesterday with the case of J. M. Milliken vs. G. W. Denny in which plaintiff was seeking to make defendant open an alley way between their properties in the vicinity of Chestnut street and Summit avenue.

From Napier New Zealand, Herald: Two years ago the Pharmacy Board of New South Wales, Australia, had an analysis made of all the cough medicines that were sold in the market.

Ever since our Colonial ancestors instituted Thanksgiving day, it has been a day of rejoicing, and a good old-fashioned dinner plays the all-important part therein.

TRIP TO THE NORTH.

A Trip to New York via Washington, Philadelphia and Atlantic City by Capt T J Hoover, Ex-Chief Police of Asheville.

"Washington! Change cars here for all points North." This was the welcome summons which greeted me about 10 P. M. Upon leaving the depot, I was glad to direct my steps to the nearest hotel.

The morning found me rested nicely however; and after sending off a telegram to brother D Sherman at Atlantic City, N. J. that afternoon, I went out on the street to take my first view of the Nation's Capital.

In the short time at my disposal I decided to see what I could of the National Museum. This building is situated in a beautiful park in close proximity to the U. S. Fish Commission, Medical Museum, Department of Agriculture all of which I visited on my return trip.

The park of which I speak extends for blocks and really surrounds all of the above buildings but intersected by certain streets, thus dividing it. It is laid out in walks and flower beds with a fine growth of trees and shrubbery.

Consumption. There is no specific for consumption. Fresh air, exercise, nourishing food and Scott's Emulsion will come pretty near curing it, if there is anything to build on.

A PRETTY KETTLE OF FISH.

Anderson Drops Stunning Bomb. Claims He Was Tricked From Trough—Wants $20,000 From Holton Rollins, Hawkins and Millikan.

Hon. H. S. Anderson, who at one time represented Henderson county in the state senate, seconding the nomination of Mr. Pritchard for United States senator, last Saturday addressed an open letter to the Republicans of the state deprecating the act of the Republican organization in setting up the claim of political kinship to Marion Butler.

The story is to the effect that when the contest arose over the position of collector for this the fifth internal revenue district Mr. Anderson, who was a candidate for that position, was given assurance that if he would permit the slate to go through as framed up by the patronage dispensers he would be given "something equally as good."

Since that written contract was made, about five years have elapsed, and Mr. Anderson will set up the claim; as it is understood, that not only has the agreement not been kept, but no effort has been made to keep it.

While taking his way through the courts the case is expected to develop a large political side, and there is some talk to the effect that the complaint in the case will contribute an intensely interesting chapter of the political annals of the state.

The Plant Purchased. The promoters of the "Tar Heel," the weekly Republican paper to be started here next month, have given the order for their outfit. Several type concerns had representatives here, the successful one being the Southern Printers Supply Company of Washington, whose representative Mr. Potts, has been here for several days.

A Home for the new paper has already been secured. It will be the middle of the three Lash stores on North Elm Street nearly opposite the city hall. It is stated that the Tar Heel will have a bona fide subscription list of from five to seven thousand when it starts business.

Col. J. R. Blair, a well-known political and all-round successful business man of Troy, Montgomery county, arrived in the city yesterday. He came here from Greensboro where he had been on business and by mere accident met his sister, Mrs. Clegg B. Ashecraft, of Monroe, and accompanied her and Mrs. R. K. Blair to the fair. For the moment he forgot that he wore a two and a half karat diamond stud of the commercial white color.

It was then that Col. Blair discovered that his fine diamond was gone. There was a bit of sentiment connected with the stud, and it was a gift to him.

In talking with an Observer man about the loss, Mr. Blair said: "If the person who took the stud or hands it will return it to me or give it to you I will give him $100 and not ask a word about how he came by it or anything of the kind. I want the stud and will pay $100 to get it back."

Had Col. Blair thought of going to the fair when he left his room he would not have worn the stud but was caught on the wing as it were.
