

Creek Indians.—We are indebted to the politeness of a Montgomery correspondent, for the pleasing intelligence that the greater number of the few remaining disaffected Creeks, were on their march to the West. Our correspondent does not give their number, but says "the greater portion of the Indians, which have been collected, are on their way to this place—will encamp to-night, (23d Feb.) at Mount Megs. They are well guarded, and under the direction of Gen. Welborn, who will convey them to Mobile Point, where it is expected they will be joined by their brethren, now in Florida, and take shipping for their destined home, west of the Mississippi. Thus it will be perceived that our difficulties on that score are at an end. We have certainly had the last Creek war. Have not these results established beyond doubt, the judicious course of Gov. Clay, who on the onset assumed the responsibility of calling out at once an overwhelming force.

Flag of the Union.

Destructive Conflagration.—We are informed by a gentleman who conversed with the stage driver on the northern route, who arrived here with the mail on Wednesday night, that a great part of our neighboring town—Washington—has been destroyed by fire. He states that about eighty dwellings and stores have been destroyed, and that the loss is estimated at $200,000. Now is the time to manifest practically our fellow-feeling for the destitute among the sufferers, and we respectfully suggest that a town meeting be held, at the Court House in this place, to-morrow, for the purpose of adopting measures to render them such assistance as duty dictates and our means will allow.

Washington, March 24, 1837.

The packet ship Albany, arrived at New York, brings Paris papers to the 10th February, and London to the 14th, but they bring no material article of news.

The large failures which have lately taken place in New-Orleans and New-York have produced great derangement to the business concerns, not only of those cities, but in the mercantile community generally; and it is feared that this is only the beginning of the commercial distress apprehended from the present disturbed currency of the Union. Ever since the perverse intermeddling of Gen. Jackson with the circulating medium, matters have been getting from bad to worse, and the issuing of the Treasury Circular, capped the climax. It is hoped, though, the Administration will in Congress decline repeating the injurious and illegal order. Mr. Buren will correct the procedure.

You will probably have seen by the papers that Mexico sent out a fleet of four frigates and two schooners against Texas, and that Bustamante has been chosen President almost by a unanimous vote, and that Anna having been received on his return very coolly, had but two votes for the President. Bustamante is gone to Rio del Norte to take the command of the Army in conjunction with Gen. Bravo. It is believed that the Texans are well prepared to meet any attack which may be made upon them, and will doubtless greatly be encouraged by the acknowledgment which this Country has made of their independence.

We have the assurance that the Florida Indians, and Mecanopy, two of the Creek Chiefs, have not yet come expected to do so. We do hear that there is to be a further expedition in an honorable warfare, and that the citizens of our work of Internal Improvement, think favorably of the work of your Senators and your Representatives, the Surplus Revenue of the National Treasury, January next. This we are aware, arises from Public Lands, and belongs equally to the State and cannot be better employed than in promoting Internal Improvement and general Education. But it is left in the Treasury, either to be employed as the Executive may direct.

Mr. Webster, on his return from Congress, was met at Amboy by a deputation of some of the first men in the City of New York desirous of showing their respect to him on account of his Public Services. On reaching the City, he and the gentlemen who accompanied him, entered carriages provided for them, proceeded up Broadway to the American Hotel, amidst thousands of cheering citizens. The mass of people before the Hotel was so great as to prevent all passing to and fro, until Mr. Webster made a short Address from one of the windows and promised to attend a meeting at Niblo's Saloon, at half past six in the evening. The Saloon was filled to overflowing, and David R. Ogden being called to the Chair Mr. Webster presented himself to the meeting, and after being received by overwhelming cheers, proceeded to address it and, for two hours and a half, held the untiring attention of the audience in a speech of surprising excellence, which will be shortly given to the public.—Correspondence of the Raleigh Register.

Extract from Mr. Snuler's oration before the Tennessee Volunteers.

"Where can you find a character that will bear comparison with such a man? Examine the records of the world's history. Look at the Eudora and Phidias, that lie in Westminster. Count over the sixty-six Emperors and empresses of the house of Austria, that sleep in the vaults of the Capuchians. You search in vain. In the language of a distinguished individual of the present day, 'Our World has produced but one Washington.' His ashes should be quietly interred in the Capitol, that his spirit might linger above those halls—might stay the hand that might attempt to darken his country's reputation—might silence the voice of uttily ambition that would dare to desecrate that sacred temple dedicated to liberty."

CONVENTION OF EDITORS.

A convention of Kentucky Editors was held at Lexington on the 23d ult. which, among other resolutions passed the following excellent one: "If they will but stick to it!"

"In all future discussions, whether political or otherwise, the Editors of the Kentucky Press shall carefully abstain from all personal allusions or epithets towards each other, that they shall not name each other, or apply nick-names, but shall conduct all controversies between themselves with decency, decorum and moderation."

In addition to the appropriations already noticed as having been made by Congress, at its late session, for the benefit of North Carolina, we find on further examination the following items:

For continuing the removal of obstructions at Ocracoke inlet, twelve thousand and fifty dollars.

For continuing the improvement of the navigation of Cape Fear river below Wilmington, ten thousand dollars.

For opening a passage fifty yards wide and seven feet deep, at low water, between the town of Beaufort and Pamlico sound, and for improving New River, in addition to two sums of five thousand dollars each, appropriated at the last session of Congress, for the harbor of Beaufort and New river, twenty thousand dollars.—Register.

Melancholy Accident.—On Tuesday, 11th instant, (says the Boston Atlas,) as the small stage from Brattleboro' to Windsor, Vermont was crossing a short bridge over Cold Water creek, in Walpole, it gave way, and was precipitated into the water, carrying the stage with it. It was carried down the stream, into the Connecticut, where the remnant of the bridge was completely broken up, and the stage sunk. The passengers were Mrs. Hannah Chesley and Miss Rebecca Wasker, of Charlestown, Massachusetts, Miss Dunham, of Woodstock Vermont, a Mr. Swain, and another gentleman, the name not given.

The three ladies were drowned, & the two gentlemen and the driver succeeded in making their escape, though with great difficulty.

We ask the attention of the reader to a notice in another column advertising the sale of our real property in and near New Salem.

HENRY SWINE.

Who was convicted of the murder of his wife, it is already known to our readers was refused a new trial by the Supreme Court. The cause was therefore remitted back to the court of this county for final proceeding, and coming up on Thursday last his honor Judge Saunders, pronounced sentence, that he shall be hanged on Friday, 21st of April.—Salisbury Watchman.

On Saturday, one of our largest and most influential houses failed for seven millions, carrying with it full five millions more. When and where this is to stop we know not."—True American.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

ON Saturday the 29th day of this month, in the town of New Salem, I shall sell at public auction, (unless previously sold by private sale,) all my real property in and near that place, consisting of an improved LOT, on which there is a good and commodious DWELLING HOUSE, garden, convenient out houses and two other houses that may serve well as a Doctor's Office or a mechanic's shop, and a good Store house; also an unimproved Lot handsomely situated, a 5 acre lot adjoining town; a tract of land well timbered half a mile distant; and a plantation of 94 acres near a mile off, well situated, having a comfortable dwelling, barn, good spring &c. mostly in good repair.

N. B. My town property is now entirely vacant, and full possession will be given forthwith. As to the plantation, it is occupied by a tenant on shares, who is entitled to occupy the premises, till he saves his crop. Bond with approved security will be required for the purchase money, due in one year with interest after six months; and a title made immediately to the purchaser. The premises can be examined at any time on application to Peter Dicks. B SWAIN, April 1st, 1837.

$50 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber on Saturday the 11th instant a Mulletto man named MILLS, Slave the property of Kelley White. Said Slave is a well looking fellow, pretty well set, strong and active. He is quite fagged, and has but one year [a natural deformity.] It is uncertain what he may wear, but he took with him his Sunday clothes, which consisted in part of a black fur hat, lined homespun coat with metal buttons; and white pantaloons. He is said to be about 37 years old, and has had for some time a coat of pearl in his possession, which was given to him by his Master in last September, as well as I recollect, stating in substance, that he had liberty to pass and re-pass, on his good behavior, without being limited to any certain time. It is apprehended that he will aim for one of the Western Free States, as two or three white men of rather exceptional character left the neighborhood about the same time, who may possibly attempt to sell him on the way. He was hired to me, and his master is a distance from home. But I will undertake that the above reward shall be promptly paid to any person who will confine him in any Jail, or otherwise, so that I get him any where out of the State, or a Reward of $10 if he be apprehended and confined in this County or Guilford, and $20 if he be secured any where in this State before he succeeds in getting away. It is supposed that possibly he may be lurking in Guilford County somewhere towards the head of Hickory Creek. WILLIAM COULFRAIN, Jun. Randolph County, N. C. March 23, 1837.

UHARIE

WILL make his last sale in this County at my stable in Lexington, N. C. ending on the 4th of July. The purity of his blood, his size—his length—substance and power—his fine energetic action, I think will cross excellently well with our common mares. He will be six years old this spring.

In order to accommodate all the Farmers who are desirous to breed fine horses at a rate within the means of all breeders, I am induced to put down the price of the season of Uharie less than that of any other horse in the Union of equal blood and character. He will make his present season at ten dollars; ensurance twenty dollars.—In addition to the yearling filley and two colts that I sold in 1834 for 3,000 dollars (out of Uharie's dam.) I refused last fall for a yearling filley by imported Lubbock 800 dollars, and for the old mare 1,000. For further particulars see Handbills. W. R. HOLT. March 18th, 1837.

TEMPERANCE ADVOCATE, AND YOUTH'S INSTRUCTOR.

The subscribers propose to publish in the town of New Salem, Randolph County, N. C. a monthly periodical under the above title; to be devoted to the statement of facts, and advancement of argument, calculated to arrest the progress of one of the most alarming and destructive vices that at present infest human society. Our attention has often been called to the fact, that no paper now is, or ever has been published within the limits of the State, exclusively devoted to the cure of intemperance; nor shall we feel ourselves entirely restrained from the publication of entire matter that may appear aptly associated with the main object in view. Believing, as we do, that there is a loud call for such a work as the one we here propose; we thereby take the liberty of soliciting the patronage and influence of all well wishers to the cause of religion, sobriety and good order.

TERMS OF PUBLICATION.

Each number will consist of a fine super-royal sheet, in pamphlet form (16 octavo pages,) to be issued the first Saturday in every month. —to commence as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained. The price will be one dollar per vol. (consisting of 12 numbers,) if paid within 3 months from the date of the 1st no. received; or one dollar and twenty-five cents within the year; if payment be delayed until the expiration of that time, $1.50 will be exacted. Letters relative to the paper must be addressed [post paid] to the subscribers, New Salem, N. C. Postmasters, and officers and members of Temperance Societies will be considered agents for this publication.
