

POETRY.

There are some beauties in the following lines.

Hast thou one heart that loves thee,
In this dark world of care,
Whose gentle smile approves thee,
Yield not to dark despair.

One rose whose fragrant blossom,
Blooms but for thee alone;
One fond confiding bosom,
Whose love is all thy own:

One gentle star to guide thee,
And bless thee on thy way,
That e'en when storms betide thee,
Still lends its gentle ray:

One crystal fountain springing
Within life's dearest waste,
Whose waters still are bringing
Refreshments to my taste:

One tuneful voice to cheer thee,
Whose sorrow has distress;
One breast when thou art weary,
Whereupon thy head to rest:

'Till that sweet rose is faded,
And cold that heart so warm;
'Till clouds thy star have shaded,
Heed not the passing storm—

Till the kind voice that blest thee,
All mute in death dost lie,
And the fount that oft refresh'd thee,
To thee is ever dry:

Thou hast one tie to bind thee,
To this dark world of care,
Then let not sorrow blind thee—
Yield not to dark despair.

SONG OF THE HENPECKED.

Her hair is as dark as the midnight
wave,
And her eye is like kindling fire,
And her voice is as sweet as the spirit's
voice,
That chords with the seraph's lire.

But her nails are as sharp as a toasting
frok,
And her arms are as strong as a bear's;
She pulled my hair, and she gonged my eye,

And she kicked me down the stairs.
I've got an eye that's made of glass,
And I've got me a wig that's new;

The wig is frizz'd in corkscrew curls,
And the eye is a clouded blue.
She may shake her knuckles full in my face,

And put the lamp to my beard,
And hold the broomstick over my head—
But I'm not a bit afraid!

For I've bound her over to keep the peace,
And I've bought me a crabtree cane;
The justice will come, and the constable
too,

If she meddles with me again.
My head was a week in the linen cap,
And my eye a month in the patch;

I never thought of the torch of love,
Wrought light such a brimstone match.

SWAIM'S JUSTICE.

THE Author of the "Man of Business" is now preparing a new and complete Treatise of the common statute Laws of North Carolina, relating to the official duties and responsibilities of Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Coronors, Constables, and Administrators.

The whole will be comprised in one moderate sized volume of perhaps about 400 or 500 pages. The work will be well printed and bound, and ready for subscribers during the month of March next; to be promptly delivered at any Court-house within the State at $3-50 per copy or $30 for 10 copies.

Any subscriber who may be pleased to pay now in advance, shall have a receipt in full for $2-50. Address B. Swaim Atty. at Law, Ashborough, N. C. Free of postage.

October, 1837.

All Editors of the State are requested to publish the above notices, and take a copy of the work on payment.

PROSPECTUS
TO THE THIRD VOLUME OF THE PHILADELPHIA VISITER.

Containing quarterly Fashion Plates, Music, Illustrated Articles, &c.

The cheapest periodical in the World

The Third Volume of the Visiter will be published on the first Saturday in September, and will be delivered regularly every other Saturday, throughout the year.

In commencing a new volume, the publisher would take occasion to observe, that not only will the same exertions be continued, which he ve secured to his subscription list an unexampled increase, but his claims upon the public favor will be enhanced by every means which unceasing endeavour, enlarged facilities and liberal expenditure can command.

The unjoined is a brief plan of the work: Its OUTLINE PARAS will be so varied as to form a combination of the useful with the entertaining and agreeable. These will embrace the departments of current events, essays, tales, and reviews which may deserve the name.

It is the publisher's design to make the Visiter agreeable to the old and the young—the sedate and the gay—to mingle the valuable with the amusing—and to pursue the tenor of his way with the entertainment of good feelings towards all parties.

TERMS.
The Visiter is published every other Saturday, on fine white paper, each number will contain 24 large super-royal octavo pages, enveloped in a fine printed cover, forming at the end of the year a volume of nearly 600 pages, at the very low price of $1 25 cts. per annum in advance. $2 00 will be charged at the end of the year.

Post Masters, and others who will procure four subscribers and enclose Five Dollars to the proprietor shall receive the 5th copy gratis. All orders addressed to the publisher, 49 Chesnut Street, post paid, will receive immediate attention.

Editors by copying this prospectus and sending a paper of the same to the office, shall receive the Visiter for one year.

CHEAP JOB PRINTING.

WE would inform the public that we are now amply prepared to execute all manner of Job Printing in the office of the "Southern Citizen,"—such as hand bills, circulars (though circular time is nearly over,) cards, horse-bills, blanks, &c. &c. on the shortest notice, and most reasonable terms. It can and will be done, neater, cheaper and quicker than at any other office in our knowing.

THE PRINTER.

Two apprentices wanted at this office, of from 12 to 16 years of age. Apply soon if at all.

FORWARDING
Agency

THE SUBSCRIBERS inform the Merchants of the interior, that they are still engaged in the Forwarding way, and trust that with the facilities and experience they now possess in the transaction of this business, to merit the patronage heretofore conferred. They have large Ware Houses at the river and in town, for the reception of forwarding Goods, apart from other buildings, and comparatively safe from fire.

Increased Attractions!!!
THE PHILADELPHIA
SATURDAY COURIER

THE vast patronage which has been awarded the Courier, is the best evidence of its approval. It has the largest subscription list in this country. It is the largest and cheapest Family Newspaper ever issued in the United States, containing articles in Literature, Science and the Arts, Internal Improvement, Agriculture, in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets and news of the latest dates.

Without interfering with the usual variety, the Courier has presented ten volumes of the most popular literature of the day within the last year. This has been the result of its current literature being added and popular each year to six times the price of other papers.

And, in short, from the whole range of the current literature of Europe, with which our arrangements will supply us at as early a moment as they can be received in the country.

Besides we have the pleasure of numbering among our contributors many of the most distinguished writers of our country, from whose pens ORIGINAL TALES, POEMS, SONGS, NARRATIVES, AND SKETCHES, will continue to add interest to its columns.

The Architectural beauty of many of the PUBLIC BUILDINGS of this city is proverbial. We trust it will be acceptable to our numerous patrons to be presented with

Engraved Illustrations

Of these edifices, we are engaged in bringing out a complete series, which will form a collection that may well be termed

THE LIONS OF PHILADELPHIA. Where it is expedient, we accompany the engravings with such descriptions of size and facts of history, as may be of interest.

The Courier is published at the low price of TWO DOLLARS. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter each week enough to FILL A COMMON BOOK OF TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY PAGES, and equal to FIFTY-TWO VOLUMES a year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes.

This approved FAMILY NEWSPAPER is strictly neutral in religious and political matters, and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.

STRAYED AWAY

RECENTLY FROM THE SUBSCRIBER
Four Head of Cattle,

A Milk Cow, bell on, Brindle, marked with a Swallowfork in right ear, crop and under bit in left; another Milk Cow, reddish collar, split in left ear, Crop and under bit in right.

The other two are young, 2 or 3 years old, reddish color, split in left ear, Crop in right. These Cattle are probably ranging toward the head of Deep River in Guilford County. Any information concerning them will be thankfully received.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

THE New-Salem Temperance Society, being requested to take into consideration the propriety of calling a Temperance Convention, made the following report, viz:

1. That a State Temperance convention will undoubtedly advance the important cause of Temperance.

2. That the convention meet in Pittsboro' on Wednesday the 25th of October, next, 10 o'clock, A. M.

3. That each local Society in the State, be entitled to one delegate in said Convention, and it is hoped that every local society in the State will meet at as early a day as practicable, and elect their delegates—so that the interest due the subject may be properly attended to, and the views of the Temperance friends fully represented.
