

Secretary. Gen. Gray, not being in attendance, the following letter was received and read to the meeting:

UWHARIE, Sept. 24, 1840.

Confidential:

Your kind letter inviting myself and others, who by age are exempt from military duty, to meet you at Asheboro on the 25th inst., was received, and gave me much pleasure to find that my old personal and political friends, for whom I entertain the highest regard, will not shrink from any risk or responsibility in support of those sacred rights which were transmitted to us by our forefathers and intended to be secured to us by the Constitution. As you truly observe "the Whigs of the present day are moved by the same spirit that the Whigs of '76 were." And the causes which both then and now produced the excitement in the public mind are nearly the same. Our forefathers were then struggling for our personal and political rights which they considered had been disregarded by their European rulers; we are now struggling for the same which we conceive has been disregarded and trampled upon by the present Administration. The President not content with the Executive powers secured to him by the Constitution; appears desirous to have both the Legislative and Judicial departments of the Government under his control. The Constitution has given him the sword and his Sub-Treasury Bill which has been forced on the People without their consent, has given him the national purse. What arbitrary Tyrant could desire more than a Standing Army to keep the people in subjection! and that he has applied for. He will not permit any man to remain in office under him who has independence enough to think for himself; they must all be subservient to his will and prepared to carry out all his visionary schemes whether right or wrong.—He has expended the money of the nation on his friends and favorites, has created a national debt by the issue of treasury notes, has deranged our Currency and destroyed the credit of our country by collecting the specie for himself and his officers, while the people can get nothing better than the depreciated paper of the country. He now wants a bankrupt law passed which will give him the control over our state institutions and those rights which were intended to be secured to the States by the Constitution.—True Republican Whigs will never submit to be slaves. The people are aroused from one end of the Union to the other, and will use all Constitutional means to remove those pests of Government, those locusts and caterpillars who have been destroying the products of our labor from the stations they now occupy, and fill them with honest men, who have had the opportunity, but have not enriched themselves at the public expense, as Office-holders do under the present Administration. I am with ye heart and hand in favor of the cause of my country, Harrison, Tyler and Reform; and hope the people will turn out to a man on the 12th of November and show our present rulers that we are disposed in a Constitutional way to correct those evils which hang over our once happy land, and may that Supreme Power who Presides over the Universe, and can exalt or debase nations at his pleasure, grant us success.

With highest respect, I am, gentlemen, your old friend and fellow-servant,

ALEXANDER GRAY.

In this County, on the 22nd August, Mr. MATTHEW RUSSELL to Miss ELIZA CRANFORD.—All for [Harrison and Tyler.

FOR THE CITIZEN.

The month of November,
Boys let us remember,
And be at the polls, ev'ry one to a man,
For Harrison young,
Our country promoting
And break down the power of proud lit-

the Van.
Our Cash he has squander'd,
Our Treasury plundered,
And wants a large Army placed at his command;

To keep us from thriving,
While he is contriving

To be the sole sovereign and lord of the Land.

But though it may grieve him,

I think we'll deceive him,

Though Brown, Strange, and Fisher be placed on the stump;

His Marshal's sent forth too,

To find what we're worth too,

Our chickens to count and our property

lump.

His traps he is setting,

Our wealth to be getting,

But old birds with chaff are not easily

caught;

His Fisher deceived us,

And he may believe us,

He's counting his chickens before they're hatched.

FITZ RANDOLPH.

THE CITIZEN.

Having so much communicated (original) matter, and it being Court week, we have neither time nor room for Editorial except the necessary brief notices.

RANDOLPH COURT.

The Superior Court of this County is now in session; his Honor Judge Nash presiding. No important cases, but a good many of them. The State Docket claims precedence here, as we think it generally does, to every where. It was taken up on Monday, & is not yet closed (Wednesday morning.) Observe our paper goes to press a day earlier in the week than usual. The Judge is in good health—sits early and late—dispatches business with his usual dexterity; yet there must necessarily be much to lie over.

OLD MEN'S MEETING.

The reader's attention will naturally be called to the spirited and patriotic Meeting held at this place on Saturday last. Never have we witnessed so much ardent zeal so prudently conducted, and so well tempered. This however is truly characteristic of Whig proceedings every where, in the young as well as the old.

A THREE POUNDER!

His powder grows big, 'tis such a good Whig.

ALFRED H. MARSH, Esq., of this place presented us the other day with a real curiosity—a 12-pdr. weighing three pounds! Its portership was of the Irish or round species; and Irish it may be; but it is not round by a long fall. It is a perfect non-disrupt in form, (or rather without form,) and we are keeping it as a show. Price of admittance a subscription to the Southern Citizen, paid in advance. All who wish to see this huge unshapen mammoth of Potatation, must come soon and take tickets of admission—in other words, subscription receipts; for we shall probably begin about next Monday (the memorable 5th of October) to feast ourselves on some of the most remote corners.

MAINE REDEEMED!

A WHIG GOVERNOR! A WHIG Senate.—Five Whig Congressmen!

A more splendid political victory was never achieved. Last year the Van Buren candidate for Governor was elected by a majority of between six and seven thousand; seventeen Van Buren men and eight Whigs were elected Senators, and of the Representatives returned one hundred and twenty-three were Van Buren men and only sixty-three Whigs. We are now represented in the U. S. House of Representatives by six Van Buren men and two Whigs.—THE CHANCE IS INDEED GREAT.—THE REVOLUTION GLORIOUS.

POSTSCRIPT.

The winding up—all right!—No mistake!—The mail of last night brought us the entire county of Aroostook, and settles the question about the election of EDWARD KENT. The Locomocos have died rather hard, but we do not well see how they can live any longer. It is a gone case for John Fairfield, beyond the power of resurrection.

We have now the whole State, with the exception of three or four plantations, which do not throw 100 votes, and the following is the result:

For Edward Kent, 45,856
For John Fairfield, 44,925

Kent's majority, 433.

A GOOD IDEA.

The following capitol toast, says the Wilmington Chronicle, was given at a Barbecue in Sampson county on the 29th ult. We commend it to the special attention of Messrs. Montgomery and Hawkins, Representatives in Congress from the 6th and 8th Districts of North Carolina:

"By Hardy E. Royal.—Gen. Harrison. His enemies say he is in favor of selling out poor but respectable rogues and thieves. If this be true, what a big auction he will have at Washington on the 4th of March next!"

"What service has Mr. Van Buren ever rendered the country? What peril did he ever encounter in its service? What ENEMY did he ever encounter or overcome? What sacrifice did he ever make to promote its interests? What trusts did he ever discharge without reproach, or even with dignity?

What monument attests his genius or patriotism? What measures in council or deeds in battle evince his wisdom or his valor?"—Mr. Lyons, of Va.

"Of the career of Gen. Harrison, I need not speak—the history of the West is his history. For forty years he has been identified with its interests, its peril, and its hopes. Universally beloved in the walks of peace, and distinguished by his ability in the councils of his country, he has been yet more illustriously distinguished in the field. During the late war, he was longer in actual service than any other General Officer; he was, perhaps, oftener in action than any one of them, and never sustained a defeat"—R. M. Johnson, Vice President of the U. S.

I am no alarmist. I have ever relied with confidence upon the intelligence, integrity and patriotism of the people of this country. But when we see the highest functionaries of our Government conniving with public plunderers—when we see the Representatives of a sovereign State, holding in their hands credentials clothed with all the solemn sanctions of law, kicked out of Congress for the express purpose of consummating a conspiracy between Mr. Van Buren and John C. Calhoun; and finally, when we see every prominent leading man—Mr. Van Buren pointing to one single object, the concentration of all power on his hands, there is just cause of alarm.

WE SKIP A WEEK.

In consequence of the absence of our office hands at the State Convention at Raleigh next week, we expect not to issue a paper on Friday next.

The following paragraph we copy from the North Carolinian, a Van Buren paper, printed at Fayetteville:

From the Newbern Spectator.

THE PLOT!

The Newark Daily Advertiser, of the 7th inst., contains the following communication to which we beg attention.

There is no doubt in the world that the Treasury party will resort to every means, fair and foul, to keep possession of the spoils, and such a report as that stated below might be used to advantage on the very eve of the election, when too late to be contradicted. But the people will be prepared to repel every hellish falsehood of the traitorous cormorants who lead the duped democrat and plunder the nation. Their character is already well known, at least to their opponents; and that they never tell truth when falsehood will answer their purpose, has long been an established fact. We hope that some unprincipled mercenary may not be induced to do more than circulate a false report of General Harrison's death. There are some capable of hastening it, and more who would rejoice to hear that the virtuous and brave old patriot had been numbered with the dead.—Gen. Harrison, however, is not yet dead; and Heaven, in its mercy to a wronged and suffering country, will, we hope, preserve his valuable life for many years after he shall have been the means of driving from public trust and office those now so undeservedly in high places.—But to the letter.
