But "Walter" says the commissioners levied a special tax in '84 to pay 1/3 of the county's outstanding indebtedness. Now this is a mistake and shows that he is very much wanting in information as regards this matter. The commissioners levied, it is true enough, a special tax in '83 and '84, under the provisions of an act passed by the legislature of '82 authorizing them to levy a special rivals since Thursday morning. We had time really to give you a short account about the grand dress ball that took place on last Thursday night. I hear from persons that participated that it was brilliant. TOBACCO CUTTING.

Mr. J. E. Sluder, of Leicester township, gives encouraging information of the tobacco crop of his section. The same information we believe applies to the whole transmontane crop. It has been injured neither by drought nor by rain, and is ripening in the finest condition. Several planters are cutting and curing. Mr. C. F. Gilbert was the first to tell us he was cutting. Mr. Sluder tells us that Mr. A. B. IN MEMORIAM.

Died, in Baltimore on the 13th inst. JOSEPH V. LOUGHRAN. He was the youngest brother of the Messrs. Lough ran of this city, and was born in Balti-more on the 21st of july, 1863, and con-sequently was 22 years of age. He had but recently gone to Baltimore to spend a few days, preparatory to assuming the management of the extensive furniture establishment of his brother John B. Loughran, in Norfolk, Va., but soon after arrival was taken down with typhid

Messrs. Loughran of this city hastened to Baltimore on receipt of telegrams stat-ing the immediate danger of their brothand captured enough grain and cloth to make a large cargo.

The Cholera in Marseilles.

Marseilles, August 25.

Ing the immediate danger of their bloth of the median choice and only had the mediancholy satisfaction of being present at the last rites of one to whom they were so dearly attached. The funeral took place on Saturday the 15th inst. at 2:30 p. m., a very large concourse of people attending, all of whom united with the family in sincere but not demonstrative grief. Mr. Loughran was a member of St. Vincent's Lyceum of Baltimore, and was buried from St. Vincent's Church. There were eight pall bearers, members of the same society, and Father Dido delivered a most impressive sermon, and closed the last sad chapter in this most estimable young man's life. Mr. Loughran was engaged to be married to a charming young lady of Baltimore, and another most touching circumstance of the event was the fact that it called together the entire family who had not been together for nearly twenty-two years. It is needless to try to comfort those left behind. We can only sympathize for the void in their hearts, and let them know how deeply their friends sympathize with them in their dark
