DEATH OF MR. HUGH POSTELL.
Our community was greatly shocked Saturday evening, at the announcement of the death of the above gentleman, which occurred at his home on Church street that evening at 5 o'clock. He had been sick for some days, and Saturday morning all thought him improving, but in the evening a change for the worse occurred, and he sank rapidly. He was in his 33rd year, leaves a wife and one child, and other relatives who are greatly shocked at the sad calamity. They have the sympathy of the community, by whom Mr. P. was greatly esteemed.

ANOTHER GOOD CITIZEN GONE.
We deeply regret to be called upon to announce the death of our old and esteemed friend Mr. Isaac Webb, which occurred at his home, some three miles from town, yesterday evening about 6 o'clock. He had reached the good old age of four score years and two, and all the while maintained a character for strict integrity, and kindest, neighborly conduct. Everybody who knew him esteemed him. His funeral will be preached to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock at Bethesda Methodist church, Rev. Dr.
Bays officiating. Rest to his ashes.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.
The schedule for the arrival and departure of mail trains at Asheville has been slightly changed. The eastern train arrives at 9:29 a. m., and leaves for Salisbury at 5:32 p. m. The Murphy line leaves at 9:39 a. m., and arrives at 4:30.

GONE TO BINGHAM'S.
Our young friend Clyde West left Sunday to enter school at Bingham's.
Clyde has been for some years connected with the CITIZEN, and we of course feel a lively interest in his welfare and success.
He has our best wishes.

LADIES' TORSORIAL ARTIST.
Mr. L. Washington Kaminer of the Palmetto Excelsions offers his professional services to the ladies of this city—resident and visitors—and guarantees full satisfaction in work and prices. Hair dressed in any, and all style. A register, for orders, will be found at Dr. Pelham's Drug Store and the Grand Central Hotel.
Also envelopes, in which the address and residence of the party wanting his services can be placed and sealed up. Mr.
K. is a thorough artist in his line, and merits patronage.
Sept 2 3rd When the band begins to play and the youth beauty and chivalry of the country go whirling through the gaities of the ball room, you may see but they have bought their dancing partner at W. T.
Weaver & Co.'s One Price Shoe Store.

REMEMBRANCE.
Our friend Mr. M. S. Alexander, who resides in Turkey Creek, brought to our office to-day some splendid apple representing various varieties—Sweet Tooth, Green Sweet, Amber, Round, Belle de France, Hart, about sixty varieties of apples, and twelve of peaches. The apple crop is good. Trees all young.

CUTTING AFFAIR AT WAYNESVILLE.
A difficulty occurred at the colored Baptist church in the suburbs of Waynesville on Saturday night, in which some serious cutting was indulged in. While services were progressing in the church, some parties on the outside got into a dispute over some trivial matters and were disturbing the meeting. Bill Brown, (colored) went out to stop them, but he was struck violently by Joe Patton, (colored) and badly cut. Patton was assisted, it is reported, by Cost Allen and John Hayes, whites.
Brown may recover. No arrests made up to this morning.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE.
Yesterday morning, as the train from the east was coming in, about one mile this side of Cooper's station, some one threw a stone at it, which crashed through the window of the sleeper. Fortunately it did no damage to a passenger. We again suggest the Penitentiary stands open for all such "funny" enterprises, and the rail road will pay for the arrest and conviction of the guilty.

INGOMAR—MISS FERMIN'S GREATEST CREA-TION, PANTHENA THE GREEK GILL.
We are pleased to note that Mr. Jack yielding to numerous requests will present to-morrow evening the beautiful legendary play from the German, of Ingomar—with Miss Annie Fermin in her great part of Panthena. Every lady should visit this marvelous performance.
It had not the attention it deserved on Friday night, but interest indicated by the enthusiasm of those present will no doubt fill the house at its repetition as all unite in claiming the most beautiful play ever presented to an Asheville audience. Mr. Julian Greer the new member of the company will appear in the cast. Secure your seats at Sawyer's.

BISHOP LYMAN WITH THE COLORED PRO-PLE.
The Bishop of this Diocese visited the colored Protestant Episcopal church last night and confirmed a class of twenty persons. His text was from the Epistle for the day: "Walk in the Spirit and ye shall not fulfil the lusts of the flesh." The responses to the Psalter, and the marked interest in the choral service, show that if the church would take her services to the colored people with a plenty of symbolism and ritual, a great deal more life would be infused, and very much more good accomplished.
The Rev. Messiah has taken upon himself the responsibility of the repairs of the church which has transformed the old time into a new one. He has received contributions from the friends and well wishers of the church in Asheville, otherwise he must go East to raise funds. We hope that Episcopalians and other Christians will come to his aid.
We understand that the Rev. Mr.
Berry the old pastor proposes to return to New York. He will carry with him the best wishes of many friends among both the white and colored people.

THREE TIMES THREE CHEERS FOR OLD RUTHERFORD.
Near Editors—On last Thursday a meeting was held at Rutherfordon by the Rutherford Railway Company, which was attended by Col. R. A. Johnson, general manager of the Massachusetts and Southern Railroad Construction Company, and Mr. John F. Jones chief engineer and superintendent of the same.
Every thing was done and agreed to mutually and to the satisfaction of both companies for the immediate commencement of work on our grand projected railway from Charleston to Cincinnati, via old Rutherford. Work on that portion of the road between the work season and the Charlotte and Atlanta Air-Line is to be begun inside of twenty days, and completed by the first of June 1886.
Let us hear from the city of Asheville, and the grand old province of Buncombe, Sept. 6th.
CHIMNEY ROCK.

CONFIRMATION AT TRINITY CHURCH.
Divine services at Trinity church yesterday forenoon were conducted by Bishop Lyman assisted by the Rector and by the Rev. Dr. Minnegerode of Richmond, Va., the Rev. Dr. Porter of Charleston, S. C., and the Rev. Mr.
Marks of Aberdeen, Miss. The occasion was the annual visitation of the Bishop to the parishes, and his sermon was on "John, Chap. 16, v. 13." "For all that is in the world, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world and of the flesh, and of the devil, and the lust thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever." The sermon was eminently earnest and spiritual. A class in new persons were confirmed. Among the adults of the class we noticed Hon. Theo. F. Davidson and Mr. Robert Long. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to an unusually large number of communicants.
JURY RECEIVED.

We hope to see him out again in a few days.

THE SHAKESPEARE WATER CURE.
Afforded immense entertainment to the large audience gathered at the Opera Hall on Saturday evening, coming for amusement, but in other instances of what was before them. There was soon unfolded a series of characterizations utterly at war with all preconceived ideas of the heroes and heroines of the immortal Shakespeare. There was a rollicking delight in stripping from them the robes of tragedy or the illusions of sentiment and bringing them down to the level of every day life, with all the enjoyment of fun or with all the life, spirit or temper that belongs to the common herd, and there was an amusing and novel boldness in bringing all the characters which live in the histories of the world, in representations of different ages and people upon a contemporaneous stage. Macbeth and Lady Macbeth, Romeo and Juliet, Hamlet and Ophelia, Shylock and Portia, all looked handsomely familiar, and entered with very human zest into the pleasures of the Water Cure resort.
The young people bore their parts with admirable conception of the characters they presented, with a ready apprehension of the travesty they made of the ideal.
Lady Macbeth was magnificent in person, in costume and in carriage, but she was the domestic, the kindly, shrewish wife, rather than the fiercely ambitious woman; and Macbeth was the henpecked husband shivering in mortal terror at the voice of his better half rather than he was to be driven by her superior will to attain a kingdom through blood and murder. Juliet was the very ideal of the character in grace and beauty, but she had come down from the romance of love to show herself the spoilt young wife—Mrs. Montague—full of feminine vanities, and with a very perceptible share of feminine spite.
Romeo was no longer the devoted lover, but the spoilt handsome young husband very conscious of his good looks and his power to make very jealous the heart of his Juliet. Ophelia was in character in costume and in the presentation of the love lorn maid, but with enough of human temper and practical good sense flashing out from under her mental extraneousness to show her a lively and pian piece for her sister tragedy.
Hamlet bore himself in his tragic humors with true conception with the traits of Hamlet, but with ready facility to drop instantly into the broadest burlesque. Portia was quiet, reserved, dignified, but with a woman's readiness to yield to gold and yields to the spirit of the law. Her presentation of the love lorn maid, but with enough of human temper and practical good sense
pian piece for her sister tragedy.

THE WHOLE WAS IRRESISTIBLY COMICAL, and if all the audience did not perceive the broadness of the travesty all entered into the spirit of the fun. The performance all possessed fine dramatic powers, and the costumes were rich and in good taste—giving an elegance that raised the entertainment above the level of farce.
The closing scene of the supper and Portia the marriage of Shylock and Portia was conceived and carried out in the spirit of the opera bouffe, and would not discredit the best of the genre.
We present our individual acknowledgments for the pleasure enjoyed.

BISHOP LYMAN JUST DID ESCAPE WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN A SERIOUS ACCIDENT ON SAT-URDAY WHILE DRIVING INTO THE CITY, IN HIS BUGGY. Coming down the hill near Maj.
McDowell's, his buggy was accidentally run into by a wagon. But little damage was done, as good luck would have it. The tongue of the wagon was broken and the holding-back facilities thereof were dec-idually demoralized, which caused the wagon to run down beyond control, and nearly up if not scattered the "view and the gospel." The venerable Bishop, discovering that no one was hurt, was glad to know that perhaps his buggy, acting as a break to the progress of the wagon, may have saved the lives of others, several, including women and children being in the wagon. All is well that ends well.

THE LONDON ABDUC-
TION CASE.
STEAD AND OTHERS IN COURT.
Great Excitement Over the Trial.
LONDON, Sept. 7.
Mr. Stead, editor of the Pall Mall Gazette, Mrs. Jarrett, Bramwell Booth, Mrs.
Coombe, Mr. Jacques and Mme. Maury, defendants in Eliza Armstrong abduction case, appeared at Bow Street Police Court to-day to stand to charges against them.
Mr. Stead conducted his own case, while counsel represented others. Excitement in court room and in the vicinity has seldom, if ever, been equalled. Police were powerless to control the mob which had assembled to hear the proceedings.
Members of the Salvation Army were arriving all morning in cabs, and were hotted at and jostled by the crowd on their way into the court room. In the court room there was a compact mass of people, including a number of reporters, many members of the Salvation Army and quite a sprinkling of brothers and housekeepers. Mrs. Jarrett sat in prisoner's dock, while Mr. Stead and Dr. Am-well Booth had seats in front of dock. Poland, of Treasury, opened the case for the Crown with a long speech in which he gave a description of how the girl was obtained from her mother, the outrages to which she had been subjected after she was installed in Madam Maury's establishment, and the ill treatment she had received from the time she left her mother until she was recovered and taken home. Mrs. Jarrett, during Poland's statement, sat with calm demeanor closely resembling Charles Dickens' "Sally Brass" in old Curiosity Shop. Mr. Stead appeared unconcerned, smiling occasionally, and at all times denying Poland's allegations. At the conclusion of his address to the Court Mr. Poland demanded the commitment of all the defendants for trial. The child Eliza Armstrong was placed on the witness stand. Identified Mrs. Jarrett as the woman who had secured her from her mother on the plea of needing her assistance in house work.
The girl then gave in detail all circumstances connected with her abduction.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND
Gets Back to Washington, and to Work
In Fine Health.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 7.
President Cleveland, accompanied by Col. Lamont, arrived here at 8 o'clock this morning. President's carriage was in waiting at the depot, and the two gentlemen were immediately drawn to the White House, where, after breakfasting, they settled down at once to work. The President, who is well tanned by the sun, and who appears much improved by his trip, says that he has had an excellent time, and has enjoyed perfect health.
He has not been ill a single day since he left, and is at a loss to understand how the report of his serious sickness originated. Secretary Whitney is expected to arrive here about the middle of the week.

EXCITEMENT IN FRANCE
Over the German-Spanish Difficulty.
PARIS, Sept. 7th.
M. de Freycinet, minister of Foreign Affairs, is hurriedly returning to Paris in consequence of the excitement occasioned by the Caroline Islands affair. Spanish residents at Marseilles threaten to attack the German Consulate in that city.
Local authorities have taken steps to prevent any repetition of the Madrid outrage. Newspapers of Paris in commenting on the trouble between Germany and Spain respecting Yap insist that Prince Bismarck is trying to embroil France in the affair.

AMERICA vs ENGLAND.
THE GREAT BOAT RACE.
Bad Day for Good Work.
SANDY HOOK, N. J., Sept. 7.
8 a. m.—Yachts of every size and shape dot the bay and each one is crowded with people who have come to witness the race for the American cup between the English yacht Genesta and American yacht Puritan. Early this morning the wind was light from the east. It after ards calmed down and now there is hardly enough wind to fill a sail. Prospects are, however, that there will be wind enough for the race. The sea is smooth.
11 a. m.—Weather hazy. Several yachts are beating out from Horse Shoe and others being towed out.
The sea is as smooth as glass, Yacht Puritan in tow of the tug Lulker C.
Ward passed out at 10:30 a. m.
11:30 a. m.—Yachts, steamers, steamboats, tugs and sailing craft of every description are going out towards Scotland Lighthouse, the starting point for to-day's race.
Never before in the memory of the oldest inhabitant was such a fleet assembled in Sandy Hook. Yacht Genesta sailed out under her mainsail, foresail and top sail, jib and jib topsail at 10:30. When outside the Hook she took a tug. Wind 5 miles an hour from north.
Noon—The prospects for the race are bad. There is but little wind.
Contesting yachts are still around Scotland light house. Such a fleet as is now assembled at Scotland light house has never been there before. The two sloops are getting ready.
Terrific Storm in Maryland.
Crops Badly Damaged.
PORT TOBACCO, Md., Sept. 7.
The most destructive hail storm ever known in this section of Maryland occurred Saturday evening. Entire fields of corn and tobacco were destroyed, in many not enough of tobacco having been left on stalk to cut, and ears of corn broken from the stalks. Hail stones as large as pellet eggs, and the destruction was general where the storm located. Damage in Charles county is estimated at $100,000.

YAP.
Germany Raises Her Banner on the Island.
EXCITEMENT SUBSIDING IN
SPAIN.
Dispatches just received regarding German's occupation of Yap states that the Spaniards on the Island had hoisted the Spanish flag and had lowered it at sunset for the night as is customary with all nationalities; and that immediately afterwards a German gunboat ran in and landed marines and sailors, hoisted the German colors and for the night occupied the place despite the protestations of the Spanish. Prince Bismarck has offered to withdraw the German forces from Yap provided Spain will not occupy it pending diplomatic solution of the question as to Spain's claim over the island.
Germany will acknowledge Spanish occupation of Yap provided Spain proves that the Spanish flag had been hoisted on the island before the German gunboat had arrived in the harbor. Excitement in Madrid over the affair has quieted down. Everything quiet last night.
