DAILY EDITION.

EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

1 Year, 1.50 6 Mos. 1 Year, 6 Mos., ADVERTISING RATES LOW.

VOL I.-NO 296.

Asheville Citizen.

ASHEVILLE, N. C. SUNDAY MORNING, MARCH 28 1886.

BEST KENTUCKY

- Lassa. Bed

POWELL & SNIDER'S COLUMN

determined whether it was not the result of accident. If you had thought the old man died in a struggle, in defense of life, you, as honest men, would have looked for a reason and for the guilty. Col. Lusk argued the men went there to kill Mary Rice, and had to kill others; but as Mr. Douglas Carter the went with a determination of the guilty. Col. I whether motive be great or small, the act must be shown to have followed the motive or proof of motive.

beautiful lawe looked for a reason and for the guilty. Col. Link argued the men went there to him for a reason and for the guilty. Col. Link argued the men went there to kill thany like, and had to kill have been been as the law of the proposed of the law of the l

Garden Seedsin

Bulk and planes

German and the seeds of the control of the seeds o

PRICE: 5 CENTS

VOL. TOW 396

SAREVILLE, N. C. SUNDAY MONNING, MARCH 36 1886.

PRICE: CCENTS

ASTERNOOS

ASTERNOOS reports against his son? He wanted to maintain the respect of his neighbors.

Law books don't place very great importance on threats. (Reads from Wharton on Homicide, chapter xx, paragraphs 531,693.)

Witnesses who spatch fragments

CITIZEN JOB OFFICE, WEST SIDE PUBLIC SQUARE.

BILL HEADS, LETTER HEADS. POSTERS

BLANKS, &c And Job Work of all hinds done with promptness and at low prices