Arrival and Departure of the Trains.

SALISBURY—Mail train arrives 6:14 p. m., Departs 6:19 a. m. WATKINSVILLE—Arrives 4:30 p. m., Departs 4:35 a. m.

The Washington train reaches that point at 10:10 p. m., leaving Asheville at 2:25.

Capt. W. B. Smith was in the city yesterday.

Dr. C. D. Smith leaves for his Macon home this morning.

Dr. Carmichael's limonade is a delicious drink for the season.

Strawberry Hill is a place of beauty and sweetness just now.

June came in yesterday, not sultry as Prof. Smith predicted, but very breezy.

Perry Ponder, colored, who kidnapped a child in the city a night or two ago, and fled, was arrested and brought to the city yesterday by Mr. Snider, and lodged in jail.

The Rev. Mr. Gammon will not be absent from Asheville this week as announced from his pulpit on last Sabbath morning, and will preach in his church on next Sabbath.

Mr. J. C. Brown, of Butler county Ohio, has come to our city and has determined to settle in our section.

Our friend S. B. West has gone into the family grocery business in the Hampton block, on main street, next door below Mr. Jesse B. Starnes.

Mr. A. J. Lyman report rainfall for month of April 4.02 inches; for month of May 5.24 inches.

The unusual fall for May indicates, Mr. Lyman thinks, drought in the fall. Our farmer friends will do well to prepare accordingly.

Capt. Atkinson met Baron Jervel at the Grape Growers Association in Washington and it was mainly through the influence of the Captain that the Baron extended his trip to the South.

Some orchard grass, over five feet tall, was brought to our office yesterday by Mr. Ed. Sevier. It grew on Mr. Lewis Brown's lot in this city. And it would grow all over this country in the same way if our people would only give it a chance.

Lambert is to be taken to Swain next week to be re-sentenced to death. He professes to be very confident that he will never be hung; says that he is innocent of the killing of Wilson, and that at the court he will make it known who did kill him, and that he would have done so at the trial; but he was under a threat from the real murderer. It is possible a sensation may accompany the re-sentence.

Next Monday the spring term of Swain court begins, Judge Shipp presiding. This will be an unusually busy week for Swain. Lambert is to be re-sentenced to death, a negro is to be tried for the killing of a white man on the mountains last winter, and Ingram is to be tried for the recent killing of young Welch, if he is caught. His Honor, therefore, will have his time fully occupied for the week.

The watering places are hurrying up to be ready for the season. Three very important hotels in this section are racing against time and putting contractors on their mettle; the Battery Park hotel here, which is being pushed night and day, and will be ready in a few weeks; the Warm Springs hotel, which is probably a little more advanced; and the Hotel at the White Sulphur Springs near Fayetteville, which is receiving its furnitures, and will be ready when called on. All of these hotels will be kept on the most advanced ideas of the business; and all will have the advantage of being under landlords who have required reputation.

Not Disappointed. You may need nothing in that line, but visit to Law's Silver and China store is not time wasted. The line of Stone China, Porcelain and Glassware is very large and is sold at bottom prices. In Silverware, Cutlery, French China and Faience there is no finer stock or more reasonable prices in the State. All are invited to call and inspect.

The color of our paper of this issue will show to what straits rail road wrecks and changes of gauge have reduced us. There was not enough white paper in Asheville to publish prohibition manifestos and dodgers, and the streets were filled with fluttering placards of red or blue, or whatever would receive type. For ourselves, we adapted ourselves to circumstances—got the best and all we could, a little bluish in color perhaps.

A month's supply is on the road, somewhere.

Mr. Richmond Pearson reached the city yesterday evening.

Miss Etta Summey is visiting her friend Miss Susie Tate of Morganton.

Mrs. S. M. Roberts and Mrs. E. S. Clayton are visiting friends in Morganton.

James will be like the man in the fable, it will blow hot and blow cold.

Broadsheet says that a sensible improvement has taken place in trade, due to the better labor outlook, favorable crop prospects, and brighter weather.

Harkins has hit it. He has caught the idea exactly, cool, neat, and most, beyond the reach of flies, meat, cool, sweet and clean. See advertisement.

Dr. Millard is giving special attention to the sanitary department. Our city is very cleanly now, and the Doctor says it shall remain so.

Trade continues very good in this city, both wholesale and retail, for the season. Indeed, our merchants inform us that it is better for the season than ever before.

Prof. Smith of Montreal predicts for the week ending Wednesday, June 3rd:—Thunder showers and wind storms notably over the upper lake region with cool weather west of Chicago—cool to cold weather for June, local frost—fine weather generally.

Dr. J. W. Vandiver of Weaverville visited us yesterday. He is lending his aid to the prohibition movement, which is entirely consistent with life long opinions.

He tells us of his seed garden operations, and are greatly in demand, which he has a larger demand than he can well supply. His cats are of a superior variety and are greatly in demand, which is the case with his corn, the seed of which he obtained from Indiana. He has improved it so greatly that his orders come in from all the States South and West. The seed farm is a success.

The Teachers' Assembly at Black Mountain this season will be the most interesting yet held. The energetic secretary Mr. E. G. Harrell, has spared no effort to secure this result, and the purposes have commanded the sympathy of not only the teachers of the State but of all who are interested in education. A most interesting program has been arranged for the entire session. His Excellency Gov. Seales will deliver an address before the assembly on the 29th inst. We hope arrangements can be made to bring up holes, rats, and by removing rods and rocks. It will repay both the city and the county to do this. The visitors here are not idle, penniless objectless strangers. They come for health, they come for pleasure, and some may come to stay; for if they are pleased there is enough of inducement here to fix their purposes. At all events, they bring with them money to spend. That they disburse among us more than they are pleased the more liberally and freely they spend. What they spend redounds to the profit of every interest. Therefore let us make their visits pleasant ones. Let the roads in the country be looked after. Let our city authorities and our county commissioners be on the alert.

MARRIED. On the 31st May, 1886, at the residence of C. T. Davis, on Cherry street, A. T. Summey, Esq., officiating, Mr. S. P. Lankford and Mrs. Lucinda Webb.

A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR. It was our pleasure to meet yesterday Baron Erik von Jervell, of Christiania, Norway. He is on a visit to this great country. He makes but a short stay, and therefore only has time to visit the central points of attention—New York, Washington, Asheville, and Chicago. The distinguished gentleman leaves this morning for Chicago, and will sail for Europe on his return trip on the 12th. The Baron thinks of returning to America next summer, and spending a longer season.

SPRAWLERY FETE. The Ladies will give a Strawberry Fete on Thursday evening at the Eagle Hotel, at which all the delicacies of the season will be served, strawberries, ices, sherbet, &c., &c.

At the ladies always have a good object in view in their festivities, we bespeak the liberal appreciation of a thoughtful and generous public.

Messrs. Fagg, Garret & Co. are prepared to deliver the best of lime, for building or other purposes, at the depot in Asheville, at twenty-five cents per barrel, or ninety cents per barrel, by the carload. Address all orders to the above at Warm Springs, N. C., or M. J. Fagg in Asheville.

We are prepared to furnish parties at other points at above rates, only adding the difference in freight.

June 1st. P. G. & Co.

The Murphy train did not leave yesterday, as announced it would do, much to the disappointment of a large number of passengers who had gone to the depot to "go west."

Friend Scharle has made a decided improvement in his removal to his present apartments on North Main street. His rooms are large, light and airy. He has a nice, carefully selected stock of goods, which he is prepared to make up to order, giving to every patron a perfect fit in coat, vests or pants, made in the best manner, of the best materials. He will be pleased to see all his friends and the public at his new quarters.

Every day's mail brings us letters of complaint from subscribers of the failure of the paper to reach them regularly, some stating that they fail two and three weeks at a time, and again that the packages for two or three weeks will reach the office together. There is some egregious carelessness somewhere, and we only wish we could locate it. We urge those having charge of the distribution and handling of the mails to please exercise some care, and see that all matter is promptly forwarded and on the proper route. The complaints of late are entirely too numerous to be agreeable.

Mr. Reuben Rawls returned on Monday from a trip to the Roan, and the Cranberry mines. His narrative of his experiences is exceedingly entertaining and instructive, and suggests to us that there are many of the wonders of mountain scenery we have not yet seen. Of the Cloudland hotel, which is an important element in the calculations of sight-seers, he says is now being enlarged by the addition of thirty more rooms, giving over two hundred in all; and this in a building 650 feet above the level of the sea. The hotel will be opened about the middle of June. Some day, not far away, it will be reached by rail road through the energies of the indomitable Gen. Wilder.

PERSONALS. We had the pleasure of a call yesterday morning from Lt. A. H. Cobb, a retired officer of the U. S. Navy, who, in company with his wife, is visiting Asheville for recreation, and possibly with views that may lead to permanent citizenship. Mr. Cobb thinks this the most beautiful

Mr. Gonzales of the editorial staff of the News and Courier, also paid us a visit. No doubt he is taking notes. Mr. Gonzales is a son of Gen. Beauregard's chief of Artillery. Mr. Gonzales Sr., was a Cuban who took an active part in the ill fated Lopez expedition. Lopez was captured and executed. Mr. Gonzales, a price set on his head, fled to the United States, settled in South Carolina and there married. His resemblance to Gen. Beauregard was most striking; only the superior gravity in the manners of Mr. Gonzales prevented numberless mistakes.

Mr. William M. Wiley formerly of Salisbury also called on us. He is just from Europe, a passenger in the famous Etruria, now, since the loss of the Oregon, the largest, swiftest, and finest steamer afloat. Mr. Wiley is now connected with the American consulate at Bordeaux, and visits the United States on business. Since boyhood he has been a wanderer on the deep, taking a keen interest in the health of his country, and now after numerous voyages to different parts of the world he has developed into a healthy, robust, and very well informed and intelligent man.

Good Results in Every Case. D. A. Bradford wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he was recently afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced by Dr. J. C. New Discovery for Consumption, he so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all Coughs and Colds with the best results. The experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery. ANCIENT HISTORY. In the opinion of the Achilles the leader of the Greeks' chieftain Hector, the champion of the Trojans, several times around the city of Ilium and finally killed him. This would look as if Hector lacked backbone, but in truth, such was not the case; he wasn't weak. For unfortunately he had lost his bottle of Dr. Hart's Great Relief. If this sad occurrence had not happened, the issue would have been different.

REV. EDWIN ALLISON. Was in the city yesterday on his way from Tenn. since where he has been holding some meetings lately. At Morristown he reports a glorious meeting, about forty additions to the church, and work still going on. At Fancherburgh they had a good meeting, about ten joined the church and the cause was much revived. Mr. Allison has been called to the pastorate of the church at Fayetteville, and has accepted of the charge, and will leave for his home in Tennessee soon.

We regret very much to lose Brother Allison from Western North Carolina. His success in evangelic work is hard to equal. The Lord has blessed his labors, and in this respect, as he has blessed the labors of no man in Western North Carolina. He will be greatly missed. Let us success in evangelic work be hard to equal. The Lord has blessed his labors, and in this respect, as he has blessed the labors of no man in Western North Carolina. He will be greatly missed. Let us

It will be remembered that some time since R. E. Leo Camp of Confederate Veterans of Richmond received an invitation to attend the memorial exercises in New York at the tomb of General Grant, on National Decoration Day. The invitation was accepted and it was resolved both to send a floral tribute and a committee to accompany it.

To-day 28th, one of the largest and handsomest funerals ever conceived and conducted in Richmond was witnessed at New York by the Old Dominion Steamship line. The funeral service was furnished by Mr. H. A. Catlin, our popular florist at his own expense, he refusing to accept any remuneration whatever. The flowers were transported free of charge by the O. D. Dominion Company, and all are entitled to the thanks of the veterans for their liberality, and Commander John Murray, Adjutant A. A. Spitzer, Quartermaster George C. Mountcastle, Chaplain J. J. Bowles, and Hon. William Lovenstein, as the committee, will leave to-morrow as the guests of U. S. Grant Post, G. A. R. They will be quartered at the Pierpont House, Brooklyn. Every true soldier and citizen North or South will rejoice at the funeral act, and hope and pray that the best results may flow therefrom. Forever be blended the blue and the gray, and may our union be perpetuated.

The flowers are beautifully blended with all the colors of the rainbow, the gray and the blue predominating. It is inscribed: "Let Us Have Peace. From R. E. Leo Camp, Va., May 31, 1886."—Richmond State.
