

AN EXTRAORDINARY POSITION.

The Asheville Advance of Sunday morning contained the following by way of comment upon the Citizen's contempt case...

THE CONTEMPT CASE.

From the Richmond Dispatch: The editor of the Asheville Citizen had a perfect right to say what he did about the judge and lawyers...

From the Raleigh News-Observer: The ill-advised attempt to muzzle the press at Asheville not only attracts attention...

From the Atlanta Constitution: The most remarkable case of the year is the one reported from Asheville, N. C. in which the editors of the Citizen were fined $100 each for contempt of court.

A good court cannot be injured by ridicule or abuse. Neither a good or a bad court can punish either by proceedings as of contempt...

At common law it was libellous and contemptuous to say or write what is calculated to bring the courts of justice into contempt and ridicule...

W. D. Hoyt & Co., Wholesale and Retail Druggists of Rome, Ga., says: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for two years...

M. D. COOPER, Livery and Sale Stables, In Rear of Post Office, Asheville, N. C.

be liable; but for general articles upon a court, its fitness etc., no court has the power to arrest and punish of its own power and will...

It is but due to add; we herein discuss the abstract legal question involved by the case against the Citizen, and by no means wish it understood we intend to reflect upon the high character, personal or official of the inferior court...
