Perfect Hair

Indicates a natural and healthy condition of the scalp, and of the glands through which nourishment is obtained. When, in consequence of age and disease, the hair becomes weak, thin, and gray, Ayer's Hair Vigor will strengthen it, restore its original color, promote its rapid and vigorous growth, and impart to it the lustre and freshness of youth. I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a long time, and am convinced of its value. When I was 17 years of age my value. When I was II years of age my hair began to turn gray. I commenced using the Vigor, and was surprised at the good effects it produced. It not only restored the color to my hair, but so stimulated its growth, that I have now more hair than ever before.—
J. W. Edwards, Coldwater, Miss.

IF YOU ARE SUFFERING from debility and loss of appetite; if your stomach is out of order, or your mind confused; take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine will restore physical force and elasticity to the system, more surely and speedily than any tonic yet discovered.

For six months I suffered from liver and stomach troubles. My food did not nourish me, and I became weak and very much emaciated. I tooksix bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was cured.

INTERVIEW WITH ADELAIDE NEILSON

The Real Secret of Dramatic Success Figure in the Doorway.

"I noticed a moment ago something I have often observed—you have shedding toars. Are you often so affected by your "Always. Unfortunately, I can not help it. It is not simply that I am carried away by the scattment I am called upon to express; it is a physical weakness. The tear duct is in an inflamed condition, and tear duct is in an inflamed condition, and the drops fall willy-nilly. Sir John Gull, my physician, told me some time ago that I should put a stop to it, for that form of weakness has a bad effect on my health and my disposition. I told him that the only effectual remedy within my knowledge or his was to stop acting. Did you note, by the way, the paculiar stillness or hush of the audience when I was delivering the 'She never told 'her love' speech? The flattery of rapt attention is the most sincere and gratifying an actress can re-sincere and gratifying an actress can re-ceive. I always feel it strangely; it opens the door of my soul and lets it into my acting. When the spectators give us rea-son to believe we have enlisted their sym-pathy they get the best work of which we are capable."

"Can you tell me what, in your opinion, is the real secret of dramatic success?"

She hesitated a moment, and then said She hesitated a moment, and then said reflectively: "It consists in as ympathetic alliance of the head and the heart. There should not be a preponderance of either—each should bear a just proportion. In that proportion the secret reposes. Nature in the rough, abandoned to its own crude instincts, is utterly helpless. Art rightly directed molds nature into symmetrical form."

The actuary duties again a blad heat a metrical form."

The actress' duties again called her to the stage. There were no more long "walts;" it was time to go. I started to grope my way back through the Plutonic passage. Nellson hastened to draw back the portiere, allowing a flood of light to escape into the hall way.

"Draw the bolt—no, the upper one," she exclaimed. "Turn the knob to the left; that's right."

I paused to look back at the graceful figure standing in the doorway down the passage—at the beautiful face, suffused with the flush of animation.

She touched her lips with her hand in cavalier fashion, and gayly said "Good-That was an eternal good-bye. The door swung shut, and closed out the picture of womanly loveliness. I had looked upon Adelaide Neilson and heard her voice for the last time.-Harrison Grey Fiske in New York Star. A Cockroach in a Cigar Hox.

"While I was on the Union Pacific," said the conductor, "I made up my mind to break up card playing, because it led to so many disputes. The boys used to get the best of me, however, and they always had a substitute for Hoyle's game of chance. The best I ever saw was one time when we were coming east from Ogden. There were four in a party, and one of them had common cigar box with a hole cut in the center of the top. Within was a cock-roach. Each of the party placed a piece of lump sugar on the corner of the box nearest to him as it was placed in the middle of the quartet. The 'ante' was a dollar, and the game was to see which lump of sugar the roach would tackle first when he came up through the hole. Open my His highness made his appearance soon tion and then dart for one corner. "Just as the lucky owner would think his sugar was to be seized and the stakes won, the roach would turn suddenly around and go for another lump. Thus the excitement would be continually on the rise, and the outside bets would com-mence. Sometimes it would be twenty minutes before the roach would light on a lump, and only those who have seen this game can imagine the interest created. Why, poker is nowhere in comparison, and the night I speak of it caused more confounded trouble on my car than fifty games of cards. The ladies grew wild over the game. I must confess I got interested myself, and came near missing some local fares. The roach game kept up all the way to Cheyenne, and over $700 had changed hands among the players, to say nothing of outside winnings. I was afterward told that the man who had the box had just come out $1,500 ahead on the game in Frisco, and that there it was all the rage."-Omaha Railway News. The Brazilian Emperor and Empress. Easy going as Dom Pedro is in pretty early all matters, there is one subject in regard to which he is wont to be omewhat punctillious. He is in the habit of delivering little lectures upon scientific subjects and humanitarian topics, and at these lectures he exacts the presence of members of the imperial household and the great nobles of the empire. He requires the closest attention, and any one is liable at any time to find himself, or herself, called upon to stand the test of a rigid examination. The express is a woman of rare qualities, chief among which are her womanliness, her charity, and her affability. She is much more practical in her charitable undertakings than is Dom Pedro, and she is said to frequently remonstrate with the emperor for being so easily humbugged and misled. She is a fine looking old lady, with snowy white hair, and a bright, kindly face. Dom Pedro is particularly proud of America, and looks upon the United States as the model country of the world. A number of New England and western deas have been introduced into Brazil. He looks with gratification upon the prog-ress made toward the abolition of slavery in Brazil, and, although at the head of an empire, his sympathies go distinctly to-wards advanced liberalism.—New York

The labor required in opening up these lands has made the Town of WHITTIER a necessity, which is now a station on the Western North Carolina Railroad, 6 miles east of Charleston. The founder of Whittier will spare no pains or expense to makelt the most attractive and desirable resident and business town in Western N.C.

Mills, stores, mechanics shops, residences and hotel now erected. Lots are donated to churches, schools and public buildings.

The improvements of the lands and the town requires all kinds of mechanics and laborers.

Purchasers will be furnished lumber for improvements at $10 to $12 per 1000 feet.

Comfortable quarters and rations will be provided for purchasers and their families, at the mere cost, until they can erect their own houses. Come right along.

Thus you can buy lands, lots, and build houses, on long credits and work to pay for them.

Such inducements have never been offered before, as are now offered at Whitfier.
