

TUESDAY MORNING, AUG. 31, '86

Democratic Nominations.

FOR CONGRESS. 9th District—Thos. D. Johnston. FOR THE SUPREME COURT. W. N. H. Smith, Thos. S. Ashe and A. S. Merrimon.

THE COUNTY CONVENTION.

Owing to the length of our report of the proceedings of the great democratic convention, and other matters, we have not space to comment upon the convention or No one can look over the list of delegates, or could have looked in upon that convention, without being impressed with its high character, intelligence and representative capacity.

NOT THE TRUTH.

The Advance of Sunday morning contained the following: "Mr. Pearson is in rather a singular dilemma, when that simon-pure democrat, Robt. M. Furman, editor of the Citizen, has advised him that he cannot do otherwise than run for the Legislature in the present curious complication."

SPECIAL BARGAINS

REAL ESTATE.

A rare chance for a capitalist to make money on the purchase of 80 acres of land in Asheville, N. C. at a price that is certainly a great inducement to any man who means business.

The News Observer says: Rev. R. B. Brane, of Elenton, who was elected head master of the Ravenscroft school at Asheville, declines the position.

The Goldsboro Argus says: There are two hundred children in the asylum, and money to board, clothe and educate them must be had.

Speaking of Capt. Thos. D. Johnston's candidacy, the Piedmont Press says:

He will be opposed by Maj. W. H. Malone, who announced himself as a candidate on Sunday last—the day before the Democratic convention met.

The Wilmington Star says: A line of railroad is now being located by the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line from Winder to Carthage, in Moore county, a distance of about eleven miles.

THE SHELBY AURORA

says that several unmarried men were alarmed at a decision of Judge Gudgee last Friday in regard to a case of alimony. A clever wife sued for alimony and alleged bad treatment and drunkenness of her husband.

The Piedmont Press says: The Shelby Aurora of the 29th says that the Battery Park Hotel recently built in Asheville has added twenty-five per cent to the visiting population of Asheville this summer.

THE RALEIGH DISPATCH

correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch says: People walking in the woods near Elkville, Columbus county, found a dead colored girl twelve years old whose body had been beaten and bruised, and whose head showed she had been severely hit with an axe that was lying near.

Just What They All Say.

Hon. D. D. Haynie, of Salem, Ill., says he uses Dr. Doan's Kidney and Lung Syrup in his family with the most satisfactory results.

DR. R. H. REEVES, D. D. S.,

Office in Sluder Building, opposite Central Hotel, - ASHEVILLE, N. C.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE ASHEVILLE MILITARY ACADEMY.

Prof. S. F. Venable who has been for eighteen terms Principal of the "Asheville Male Academy," having associated with himself Prof. W. Pinckney Mason formerly of the U. S. Navy and for some years a resident of Continental Europe, and having procured, through the aid of the school building, as well as greatly improved and equipped it, will, on the 29th of August, 1886, open a first class military school for the instruction of boys and young men.

THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION

is comprehensive and thorough, embracing a full course in "The Classics," "Mathematics," "Modern Languages," "English," "History," "Political Economy," and "Book-keeping." No pains will be spared to impress upon the pupils that their aim should be to acquire a perfect knowledge of the subjects studied, and not a mere learning, more or less, of certain text-books.

TERMS:

The terms are, for day scholars, from Forty to sixty dollars per session, payable quarterly in advance. A neat and serviceable uniform for the Cadets will be selected, and each Cadet will be required to provide himself with a uniform suit, the material for which, including cloth, buttons, and cap will be provided by the Principal at cost.

DISCIPLINE.

The corps of Cadets will, at all times, be under strict military discipline, and will be required to attend the U. S. Military Academies at West-Point and Annapolis, as directed by the Principal at cost.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The many friends of M. J. L. CATHEY of Houlmy will urge his name before the Democratic county Convention for the office of Superior Court Clerk, subject to the action of said convention.
