A USEFUL KIND OF CARPET-BAGGER.

The following from a recent issue of the New York Commercial Advertiser we most heartily endorse and appreciate:

"Succeeding the adventurers who invaded and pillaged the south im mediately after the war has been a class of men who have gone to that section of the country with an honest purpose to identify themselves est purpose to identify themselves this is a most important matter if properly managed, would go for him. with its fortunes by developing its to our country, as it breaks up a He then stated that he had conferred natural resources. In many cases great monopoly in steel-making in with a large number of democratis in this district that were in accord with his these settlers have prospered, and this country, and will open the way views, and that further he had consulted pride in their new homes as the natives themselves. And as an outcome of this later and better plan of carpet-bagging we find such tention to the iron deposits of Weshim a clear field. I simply stated I would see him again. Allow me to say have come to feel as deep a local a curious and suggestive episode as the exhibit of agricultural products, grown by northern-born citis zens living in North Carolina, which is about to be opened at Raleigh, of that state. At this convention it is intended to demonstrate to the country how much has been done of late years by this class of settlers to develop the agricultural, manufacturing and mineral wealth of the of the basic process will work a comstate. A "call" has been prepared and signed by over a thousand northern-born citizens of the state, which explains more fully the objects of the meeting. Its character of high phosphorus, and those large can be perceived from its opening paragraph, which reads as follows:

gens of North Carolina, having phosporous, will become the most are fellow sharers in 'the goodly herius in pleasant places,' and that we turn' of those born in this state, are sarnestly desirous that all our old friends and neighbors who are brother-in-law, told a Washington thinking of changing their homes correspondent that he was as much should come to this state. We be- surprised as any one else at Maj. lieve that they could prosper here Malone's announcement that he as they could not elsewhere, and would run as an ineiependent candi that, if persuaded to cast their lot date for Congress. "He didn't tell among us, they would never regret their choice. To this end we ask BECAUSE HE KNEW I WOULD BECAUSE HE KNEW I WOULD you to join with us in inviting all BE OPPOSED TO THE MOVEnorthern people who are contempla- MENT." ting immigration to meet us in convention at Raleigh on Tuesday, October 26, that they may hear from thi fty settlers. We wish every county in the state to be thus represented, that whether the intending immigrants prefer the rea coust, the broad midlands, the Piedmont region or the mounthe Piedmont region or the mountains, they may find pioneer settlers shortcomings we will remind him of the month in attendance to give them the information they are seeking. The annual fair of the State Agricultural Society will be held that week and will help to illustrate the resources of every county from the coast to the mountains."

There is a cheerful spirit in this in extense of society extracted and the money of the turned out a Blaine republicate at a figure that is certainly a great inducement to any man who means business. This land will enhance 260 per cent within 6 year tains, they may find pioneer settlers shortcomings we will remind him of

There is a cheerful spirit in this appeal which much recommends it to all. It is rather in the western than in the southern wein, but is for that reason all the more acceptable. What the south has needed has been some of the western sparkle of self-clorification. The sparkle of self-glorification. The boomer" has now, it seems, turned his buoyant nature southward, and we doubt not will bring prosperity before the end of the week." This

Whenever our neighbor the Adcance tells a thing covered all over cratic paper. with the truth, like thefollowing paragraph, the Crrizen will delight in encouraging it, and urging it to keep trying in the same direction, ment: and struggle manfully, and hope may be entertained that it will get used to it. The Advance says :

"This is a time when the people want to read and hear facts, instead want to read and hear facts, instead of baiderdash and hypocracy, and the politician who expects to win in this contest by the use of such in this contest by the use of such means as indicated, will wake up after the election to a realization of the fact that the intelligent voters have set their seal of condemnation upon such a political policy.'

Now, we urge the Advance to keep that standing in its colums, have copies of it struck off, and posted in the hats of editors and compositors, and on the door post and the mantel of the office, and, specially, furnish G. S. Ferguson, Haywood. Majah Malone with enough to paste all over him. It is the most awful warning the Advance and its candidate has yet received of the terririble To-Come which awaits them.
