COMPOUND OXYGEN
and Medicated Vapor by direct Inhalation. Those who suffer from diseases of the Respiratory System—such as Consumption, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Chronic Sore Throat, Loss of Voice, etc., and who have failed to be cured by the ordinary treatment of Cod Liver Oil, Symplocaria, Fogel's Inhaler, and the like, may be permanently cured by our new treatment; since we have found and are curing cases which had resisted all other means and which had been pronounced incurable by the best physicians.

George Washington's Birthday.
The banks will be closed to-day in honor of the lamented George.
Quite a number of changes as to location of business houses in town will take place in the next week or two.

Relatively only a small percentage of the people pay any attention to Lent as a bar to getting married. When they want to get spliced they do Lent or no Lent.
The tobacco market was quite brisk yesterday, with comparatively small breaks, good prices being obtained for brights. All the houses will have large breaks to-day.

Mrs. L. J. Williams, of Morgan Hill, this county, died on the 15th inst. of measles. She was about 25 years old and leaves a devoted husband and four children.
The Public Square has of late become a resort, both day and night, for vendors of various kinds. The outcry has become at times alarming to timid ears.
We hope, at least, the town treasury is the gainer thereby.

The sidewalks are rapidly being cleared of obstructions in the shape of empty boxes, signs, show-cases and the like.
The mud that hides the pavements will be dug away soon, and if the Board of Aldermen shall, at its next meeting, agree to let the police order loafers and vagrants to move on, matters will be greatly improved.

Water has been turned into the pipes on Patton Avenue, Bailey and Grove streets, French Broad Avenue, North Main street to Rankin's tan yard, South Main street, to a considerable distance, and on Spruce street. Pipes are being laid on Charlotte and Chestnut streets, and soon the entire town will be grided with water pipes.

Dr. D. J. Cain and lady are in Aiken
S. C., having accompanied their daughter Mrs. Lizzie Ayler, who was last week married in this place to the Rev. Mr.
Ayler, of Aiken. Mr. Ayler, the happy groom who has thus carried off one of Asheville's fair daughters, was for a while pastor of the Presbyterian church at Hendersonville, but has recently accepted a call to the church at Aiken.

Now goods at Law's. Not fancy goods, but staple wares this time for actual use —crocker, glass and pottery. Greater bargains than ever in silver-plated knives, forks and spoons, both in triple

FROM RALEIGH.
Senate Proceedings—Bill to Repeal Merchants Tax on Purchases Today—The Question of County Commissioners—Solomon Pool to be Paid—The Bill to Establish a University for the Colored Race Defeated—
The House, Proceedings.

The bill to repeal the merchant's tax on purchases was tabled.
The following bill passed second reading: To authorize Alexander county to levy a special tax.
The following bills passed third reading: To require magistrates to elect county commissioners outside of their own body; To pay the claim of $6,400 of Rev. Solomon Pool against the University.

The bill to establish a University for the colored race was defeated by a vote of 17 to 7.
In the House a resolution was introduced asking the opinion of the Attorney-General as to whether the State had the power to remove the political disabilities of certain citizens. Under the suspension of rules the resolution was adopted.

The following were the principal bills introduced: To prevent the sale of convict made goods; To construct public roads in Alexander and Caldwell counties; to charter the South Atlantic and Northwestern R. R.; Private and Local Calendar was taken up. The following bills passed their final readings: Allowing 50 convicts to Madison, Rockingham county; at $125 each per year; to incorporate the Durham & Southern and Shelby, Glen Alpine & Cranberry Railways; to authorize Graham county to levy a special tax; to amend the charter of Hickory; to allow Madison county to levy a special tax to build a stock law fence in Westfork township; to extend the Durham Siding and Christianburg R. R.; to incorporate North Carolina Baptist Students' Aid Fund; to incorporate the Central and Northwest Railroad.

The following passed second reading; To amend the law in regard to the support of the Asheville graded school; To incorporate the Marlborough Railway; To settle the indebtedness of Madison county; to allow Ashe county to levy a special tax.
The only debate of the day was on the bill to allow 350 convicts to the North Atlantic & Northwestern Railway and the Central & Northwestern Railway, at $125 per annum for each. Hoover, negro Republican, offered an amendment that the convicts be not employed if free labor can be secured at the same price. The bill passed second and third readings. It allows 350 convicts only as has not been granted to other corporations in the State.

THE ASHEVILLE MILITARY ACADEMY.
A visit to this institution on Saturday afternoon gave pleasant note of the development of this institution from a private school, one however of very high grade, to that of one which draws to it public attention, and one demanding liberal public encouragement. In its material aspect the change is striking and gratifying. The plain old and somewhat unsightly red brick Academy, exposed in all its nakedness against the sky, now stands out in fine relief a castellated structure, in harmony with its objects; for while still a classical school, it is a scientific and military in accordance with the popular idea of education. The Academy is a superior one. At its head is Prof. Venable, whose boys trained in his school, have always carried off the honors in more advanced institutions. Associated with him is Mr. Mason, an old officer of the Navy, with the high outlook and firm manner of his training.
Mr. Scott, a young gentleman from Virginia, thoroughly versed in the classics and science, completes a corps which already gives distinction to the Academy.
Already in the first year of its enlarged existence, there is an attendance of about 80 pupils, enough with their careful uniform to give a pleasing, new character to the streets of the city.

There is no reason why this Military Academy may not become one of the largest and most celebrated in the South.
The character of its corps of officers invites the most abiding confidence. The location insures patronage from abroad; and it becomes our citizens, for their own interests, to give a home institution a preparation accomplishing wonderful and advantageous to the general interest.

Hall's Vegetable Sulfur Hair Renewer imparts a fine gloss and freshness to the hair and is highly recommended by physicians, clergymen and scientists as a preparation accomplishing wonderful results. It is a certain remedy for removing dandruff, making the scalp white and clean and restoring gray hair to its youthful color.
We do not sound a needless alarm when we tell you that the faint of scrofula is in your blood. Inherited or acquired, it is there, and Ayer's Sarsaparilla alone will effectually eradicate it.

STATE NEWS.
The Governor has received $600,000 in Confederate bonds from an England, which were deposited there by Jno. White, the State agent, in 1884, by order of Gov. Vance.

Capt. S. B. Alexander, being spoken of by the newspapers as the man for next Governor. There is no better man than the Captain, and we know he would make a good Governor.
S. B. Pearson, confined in Burke jail, played a sharp trick on the jailer, by writing two letters, purporting to come from his aunt and the sheriff, telling the jailer to release him; as the aunt would go on his bond the next day. Sam is now "loose."

George D. Randall, an elderly Newark merchant, was charged by a young woman calling herself Emeline F. Randall, that he was the father of her child and her husband.
The jury brought in a verdict on the issue presented to them, that the relationship of man and wife had never existed between the plaintiff and defendant, their intercourse having been of a meretricious nature.

The San Francisco police captured J. C. Hines, a bomb thrower implicated in the recent dynamite outrages in that city. The officers fired several shots at him, but none took effect. After a sharp chase, he was overtaken and placed in jail. A large quantity of material for making dynamite bombs was found in his house. H. C. Dean, said to be an accomplice of Hines, was also captured.

"Happy Kitty" and her sister-in-Kramer, were the active means of Joseph Harrington's conversion to Salvation Army principles, and their fascination drew him away from home nearly every evening.
He failed to contribute to the support of his wife and three children, and made his home with the Kramers. Every night he went to the docks and exhorted while fair Kitty sang the delicious light religious ditties that were in vogue. Divorce for Mrs. Harrington.

A few weeks ago in this city a poor widow died, leaving one child, a little lame boy to the cold charities of the world.
After his mother's funeral the little fellow was taken ill from the combined results of grief and neglect, and it was then evident that he would soon be united to his only friend.

He was left alone much of the day, there being no one who could spare the time to stay with him. It was often noticed that the voices of two persons could be heard in his little room. But when those in charge entered he would be alone and apparently asleep.
One day they listened, being quite sure that no one was with the child, and they overheard this strange monologue:
"Is you rite there, mamma?"
"Yes, my little boy, I is rite here."
"Was you went away?"
"I went back to heaven to tell God about my little boy."
"Didn't you was afraid, mamma?"
"No, my own little boy, 'cause God is nicer'n peoples."
"Did you told him about me, mamma?"
"O told him I had a little boy named Harry an'—an'—an'—"

THE RICHMOND DISPATCH SAYS:
"Major Sully and General Logan will leave on a special train this afternoon to make inspection of the lines in Western North Carolina under the control and management of themselves and associates. If the time will permit, these gentlemen will go as far South as Atlanta, Ga., but as it is limited to a few days it is probable that the tour will have to terminate short of that point.

THE RAILROAD COMMISSION QUESTION.
Mr. J. H. Currie received information yesterday from Raleigh, that the special committees appointed by the State Senate and House of Representatives to consider the Railroad Commission matter will meet in joint session on Wednesday the 23d inst., at 8 o'clock p. m., when and where all parties interested, either for or against a railroad commission, are invited to attend. It is understood that a committee representing the business men of Wilmington in favor of the appointment of commission, will be in attendance.—Wilmington Star.

AN IMPORTANT BILL.
The following is the full text of a bill introduced in the Senate in connection with the Machinery Act of the Bill on Finance:
That all persons, whether as owners or in trust, or in any fiduciary capacity, who shall have in their possession or control any note, bond, account, mortgage, or other and every obligation of debt of any and every form whatsoever, bearing interest, shall be required to furnish the assessors of their respective towns and townships, within the State, with a written statement of all and every said obligation, subscribed and sworn to, together with the value upon which they estimate such obligation as above mentioned. And if any person or persons shall fail to comply with the said requisitions, or to place a certain valuation on the obligations shall forever be barred from recovery by any and every said obligation, subscribed and sworn to, together with the value upon which they
estimate such obligation as above men-
shall fail to comply with the said requi-
estimate such obligation as above men-
shall fail to comply with the said requi-
estimate such obligation as above mentioned.

Mrs. R. P. Price, a respectable old lady whose husband was absent, was murdered at Pound, Wis., on Wednesday night, by a brute, who chopped and mutilated her body. The object was robbery. The murder was witnessed by a little girl.
The man is now in jail, but refuses to give his name.

The suit suit at New York in the United States Court by J. H. Lester against General B. F. Butler for $1000 damages for false imprisonment during the rebellion, while General Butler commanded the Department of Virginia, Saturday ended in a verdict for the defendant under the instruction of Judge Code, who said General Butler had simply obeyed orders.

Gov. Bob Taylor has stirred nerves here in Tennessee by his advocacy of the Blair Federal school teaching, grab bill. Many Democratic papers are trouncing him at a lively rate and the Republicans are happy.—Wilmington Star.

No other medicine is so reliable as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for cough, cold, croup, all derangements of the respiratory organs tending toward consumption. In all ordinary cases it is a certain cure, and it affords sure relief for the asthmatic and consumptive, even in advanced stages of disease.
If a well be poisoned we be to those who drink thereat. It is worse to poison the fountain of life for one's self, and for posterity. Often by carelessness, or misfortune, or inheritance, this has been done. Ayer's Sarsaparilla frees the blood, the vital stream, and restores appetite, strength and health.
