(Special Dispatch to the CITIZEN.)

The following is the proceeding of the Legislature on the 3rd and 4th:

Mesra. Editors:—Our citizens were taken for the sale of the Governor's mansion if sufficient amount therefor can be obtained. The Railroad Commission bill was introduced in the Senate for the sale of the Governor's mansion if sufficient amount therefor can be obtained. The Railroad Commission bill was taken up. Mr. Evart offered a setheral strate to provide for a vote by the people on the question of whether Railway Commission should or should not be created. This substitute was voted down. Repeated attempts were made to pass the bill, but all failed. The machinery bill was considered and passed. The floure passed the following bills: To incorporate the real estate and trust company; to authorize the hiring of convicts to the Chesleston.
