Mr. E. B. Wells, of Marshall, will remove to Asheville soon, for the purpose, we understand, of establishing the manufacture of the Hardwicke tobacco cure flues. This will be done by the recently organized company for this purpose, and the work will be pushed with ener-gy backed by a sufficient capital.

The Atkinson syndicate to which THE BOOM. we referred a couple days since as having purchased the Morrison lands in the North-western portion of the city, yesterday purchased fourteen additional acres from the same gentleman, being a part of the adjoining greve, for which they paid $400 per acre.

THE BOOM.

Property is advancing upon all sides. Everybody is talking of the boom. But in all this excitement for more money and great profits, one man has been found who desires the good will of the people more than individual gain, that man is H. L. Lang at Lang's Jewelry Store, No. 188 Main st. He refuses to advance his price, but continues to sell his goods at lowest prices—everything $400 per acre.

Two hundred and ten guests at Battery Park Hotel. This shows a handsome beginning for the summer, and evidences the great necessity which was felt for the enlargement of the hotel. The new addition will enable the house to accommodate about a hundred and fifty more guests.

It is well worth your while to pay a visit to Law's on Main st. New goods are coming in rapidly. A large new let of Japanese Wares just in and more to arrive soon, all in latest styles; also new Decorated China Lamps, and Art Pottery and Glass.
