

DAILY EDITION... FARMER, STONE & CAMERON, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

The Asheville Citizen. VOL. II.—NO. 287. ASHEVILLE, N. C. TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 15, 1887. PRICE 5 CENTS.

CITIZEN JOB OFFICE... WEST SIDE PUBLIC SQUARE... BILL HEADS, LETTER HEADS, POSTERS, BLANKS, etc.

ADVERTISING RATES... DAILY... WEEKLY... ADVERTISING RATES LOW.

DAILY EDITION... THE DAILY CITIZEN... WILL BE PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING (EXCEPT MONDAY) AT THE FOLLOWING RATES...

THE BUSINESS OFFICE OF THE CITIZEN... has been removed to the front corner of second floor, at the old site of the old office, on Patton Avenue.

STATE NEWS... MINISTER JARVIS... He will return to his home in Maine to say farewell to his friends.

RAILROAD RATES... A Re-arrangement of Tariffs Under the Inter-State Commerce Bill.

The ocean yacht race between the British Schooner 'Coronet' and the American Schooner 'Dauntless' began on Saturday from Sandy Hook, N. J.

Powell & Snider's Column... 100 bags Coffee, 60 lbs. Sugar, 400 lbs. fine Fea, 200 lbs. Soda, 100 lbs. Soda, 100 lbs. Soda, 100 lbs. Soda.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness.

COMPOUND OXYGEN. There were good breaks at the Warehouses yesterday, considering the weather, and prices were fast for good grades.

Dr. Morgan, Stone & Gatchell, SPECIALISTS, OFFICE: Patton Building, Main St., ASHEVILLE, N. C. We use in the treatment of Chloron.

JAMES MEANS' $3 SHOE. Our celebrated... LEADING RETAILERS THROUGHOUT THE UNITED STATES.

INTERESTING READING MATTER ON FOURTH PAGE... Try Moore & Roberts' Excelsior Soda...

Redwood began his move yesterday to his handsome and commodious new quarters on Patton Avenue.

The crowd in town yesterday was small, considering that Court was in session.

There was a strong easterly wind, came up Sunday night with considerable fall of the mercury yesterday.

We are sorry to see our friend Mr. J. P. Stepp to Black Mountain Station limping from the effects of a kick on the leg from a mule.

There has been a change in the passenger trains over the W. N. C. Road—the train bound East arriving here ten minutes earlier.

On the question of the 'Drummers' Tax the Wilmington Star says: 'The State papers are discussing the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States...'

For Buncombe county it is in session, Judge Graves presiding. There is no case on the State docket.

The following were drawn as grand jurors: Lewis Allman, C. F. Anderson, G. Wallbridge, J. H. Mac, A. P. Sorrells, J. O. Hawkins, J. H. Mac, J. P. Gaston, R. W. Williams, E. Z. Gentry, W. F. Rice, M. Bonham, R. O. Allman, Jas. Grant, A. Foster, M. S. Sledge.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch says: 'Under the provisions of the amended law for amending the militia North Carolina now (beginning July 1st next) draws $10,000 annually in stores, for which there is a direct accountability to the United States government...'

The standpipe is fully repaired, and has become a conspicuous object with its coat of paint of brick red.

Col. Daniel H. Hays, the purchaser of the Poison Springs, is making arrangements to build a cottage on the property, and his wife will summer there.

Smith's bridge to the White Sulphur Springs in good condition. His new hotel for the summer is ready for the summer.

The weather yesterday was a somewhat of those ugly experiences in December. Had it not been for a spring had been little to be desired.

It is said that Tourgee, who reported yesterday in his report to the State, is to return to North Carolina, and will be in the hands of his friends.

We had the pleasure of a call yesterday from Dr. J. B. Beck, and his brother Dr. J. P. Beck, both of Marshall, both popular and successful members of their profession.

Many improvements are being made at the Hot Springs. The bridge across the French Broad opposite the Hotel is being built, and about twenty miles of drive around the Springs will soon be completed.

Bishop Morris, of Oregon, will preach on Sunday evening at the Episcopal Church in Asheville. He is a Danish born, 4 feet high, 1 foot long, and 22 months old.

The largest church in Asheville is especially designed to assist the transient young people, and it is hoped that the attendance on Friday evening will be large.

It is your hair turning gray and gradually falling out? Hall's Hair Restorer will restore it to its original color and luxuriant growth.

Go to Turner's restaurant for oysters on the shell. The finest oysters are served here.

Some very foolish and sensational figures are going the rounds of the press to the effect that there will be a deficit in State revenues of $207,000.

PRESENT RATES TO BE CANCELLED. Mr. Sol. Hays, traffic manager of the Associated Railways, yesterday said in conversation with a Dispatch reporter that the present rates and tolls on all of the depot agents are being cancelled.

The following gentlemen connected with the lines centering here are conferring and spending several hours together daily arranging their schedules of charges: T. M. Emerson, general freight and passenger agent of the Atlantic Coast Line; F. W. Clarke, general freight and passenger agent of the Seaboard Air Line; J. H. Drake, general freight agent of the Richmond and Danville; L. T. Myers, superintendent of transportation of the Seaboard and Roanoke; and U. A. Taylor, general passenger agent of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad.

Capt. Jas. B. Eads, a man of great schemes and great achievements also, is dead. His ship, railway perhaps dies with him; but the great St. Louis bridge and the Mississippi jetties remain enduring monuments of his genius.

The four Presidents who passed their fiftieth birthday while Chief Executive were Polk, Pierce, Grant and Cleveland. Of these but one served more than four years—Grant, and he was anxious to serve twelve.

The State Board of Health wishes to publish each month, in the Bulletin it issues, the mortality statistics of all the larger towns of the state, and in that laudable purpose it should certainly have the hearty support and co-operation of every citizen.

It is spring. A resurrection of nature's latent forces is taking place. Like the body around you, renew your complexion, invigorate your powers, cleanse the channels of life.

ICE! ICE! ICE! I desire to let my old customers and the people generally know that I am prepared to furnish them with all the ICE they want, of the best quality.

LAND PLASTER! BEARDS, RANKIN & COMPANY'S. This is to certify that I have been using Mr. D. Gooden's Compound Cure for two weeks, and so feeling very well.

A Newly Discovered Remedy. This is to certify that I have been using Mr. D. Gooden's Compound Cure for two weeks, and so feeling very well.

FOR SALE ONLY AT West End Pharmacy. 268 PATTON AVENUE, Below Depot Street.

FOR SALE ONLY AT West End Pharmacy. 268 PATTON AVENUE, Below Depot Street.

FOR SALE ONLY AT West End Pharmacy. 268 PATTON AVENUE, Below Depot Street.

FOR SALE ONLY AT West End Pharmacy. 268 PATTON AVENUE, Below Depot Street.

FOR SALE ONLY AT West End Pharmacy. 268 PATTON AVENUE, Below Depot Street.

FOR SALE ONLY AT West End Pharmacy. 268 PATTON AVENUE, Below Depot Street.

FOR SALE ONLY AT West End Pharmacy. 268 PATTON AVENUE, Below Depot Street.

FOR SALE ONLY AT West End Pharmacy. 268 PATTON AVENUE, Below Depot Street.

FOR SALE ONLY AT West End Pharmacy. 268 PATTON AVENUE, Below Depot Street.

FOR SALE ONLY AT West End Pharmacy. 268 PATTON AVENUE, Below Depot Street.

FOR SALE ONLY AT West End Pharmacy. 268 PATTON AVENUE, Below Depot Street.