On Wednesder night the Mayor and committee of the trustees of Trinity Board of Aldermen with attendant Counsel were engaged till a late hour in close conclave, devising, for what is known to the contrary, most direful plots against the rights and liberties of the people. Time was given them to perfect their constituce, when they were taken in charge of the Chief of Police at the indicates of the board of trustance of one Turner who is the propriet to of a restaurant, becoming somewhat noted, near the corner of Court House Square and Patton Avenue. The party submitted quietly to the arrest and were marched down to Turner's, to learn upon what charges they were held and to abide any penalty that might be imposed in the event that they were held and to abide any penalty that might be imposed in the event that they were held and to abide any penalty that might be imposed in the event that they were held and to abide any penalty that might be imposed in the event that they were held and to abide any penalty that might be imposed in the event that they were held and to abide any penalty that might be imposed in the event that they were held and to abide any penalty that might be imposed in the event that they were held and to abide any penalty that might be imposed in the event that they were held and to abide any penalty that might be imposed in the event that they were held and to abide any penalty that might be imposed in the event that they were held and to abide any penalty that might be imposed in the event that they were held and to abide any penalty that might be imposed in the event that they were might be imposed in the event that they were might be imposed in the event that they were might be imposed in the event that they were might be imposed in the event that they were might be imposed in the event that they have might be imposed in the event that they have might be imposed in the event that they have might be into the event that they have might be into the event and the reaches of the state, a copy to NHOLESALE ABREST. what charges they were held and to abide any penalty that might be imposed in the event that they were guilty of offense.
