It is instructive to note the form which the representative business JESSE R. STARNES men of Atlanta think the proposed measure of relief should take. They

"We therefore respectfully petition your honorable body to pass an order, on or before the 5th day of April instant, to the effect that the schedule of rates in the territory south of the Potomac and Ohio. and east of the Mississippi River, so far as these rates relates to Inter-State commerce, be declared of force until the further order of your honorable commission, and that a reasonable time be given for a further hearing and revision before any changes are put in force."

This is equivalent to asking the Commission to suspend the operation of the main provisions of the Inter-State Commerce law, in the indicated Commerce law, in the indicated territory, and, if it have LAND PLASTER! the power, it is probable that the Commission will comply with the request. It is a curious state of affairs, however, when the business men of the country have to petition the Commission to save them from the effects of the very law which it | UMBER!
