PERSONAL.
Mr. Carter Berkley and Mr. W. H.
Crow, both prominent in insurance circles, are in the city.
The Rev. P. P. McLean, of Macon county, is also here.

STATE NEWS.
The Wilmington Star says: The Asheville Citizen has begun its third year as a daily. It is a favorite exchange, contains editorials equal to any of its State contemporaries, is Democratic, is new, and is true to North Carolina and the South.

THE CALHOUN MONUMENT.
Tuesday is the day set apart for the unveiling of the statue of the great Calhoun at Charleston. We say great—for he was so recognized not only in South Carolina, but all through the United States, and wherever the English language is spoken, admired and respected, but not always loved—except in South Carolina—and there love was idolatry. The passion has never weakened. Now it is to have public demonstration in this monument to be unveiled next Tuesday.

THE INTER STATE COMMERCE Commissioners vary in height from the gigantic Walker, who is much over six feet in height, to Judge Cooley, who is only five feet six.
Commissioner Bragg is the typical South-erner. In his dress he evidently takes Attorney General Garland for a model. Commissioner Schoonmaker looks like a conservative business man. His features much resemble Blaine's.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.
This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kind, and cannot be sold in competition with the mill-made of low cost, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO. 106 Wall St., New York.

COMPOUND OXYGEN.
We had the pleasure of a visit from Mr. D. H. Lee, a prominent citizen of Savely, and a banker of that place. He is much struck with the vigorous movement in Asheville, and may be induced to make some investments here.

TER ON FOURTH PAGE.
R. R. Jones at the Pioneer No. 23 South Main street opens the season of Mixed Drinks today. Milk Punches, Big Yellows, Whiskey Punches, Sangares, and other mixed drinks called for, delivered free of charge, anywhere within the fire limits of the city.

FOUND DROWNED.
We learn that on Wednesday morning a white man, James Hart, was found drowned in Pigeon river at Newport, Tenn. He had been intoxicated the night before, and is presumed to have fallen accidentally in the water. He was a shoemaker by trade, his home at Jonesboro, Tenn., but was carrying on his trade at Newport.

LOOK AHEAD.
The rapid advance in the prosperity and population of Asheville is due to the combination of many circumstances. The great beauty of its surrounding scenery and the healthfulness of its climate were chief and primary inducements, utilized fully when made accessible to the great business prospects which opened under the acknowledged centrality of location and the absolute certainty that it was an inevitable focus of several important lines of road which would connect it by the shortest routes with every part of the country.

THE THERSIAN ENTERTAINMENT.
At the Opera House last night drew one of the largest crowds we have seen in the hall, and the performance throughout was a splendid success. We shall speak of it more fully to-morrow.

THE TOBACCO MARKET.
The breaks were good yesterday and prices fully maintained. The following are some of the sales at the

INTERESTING HAYWOOD COUNTY ITEMS.
Our much respected friend Mr. D. V.
McCracken writes us that the farmers in his section are doing well, and that peaches are not killed, apples not hurt; that there is a large quantity of plants killed by freezing.
Mr. McCracken gives us some interesting items relating to the first settlement of the county. Among the first settlers, who came in between 1802 and 1810, were the families of the McDowells, Mc-Connells, McCrackens, McFarlands, Ste-phensons, Williams, Ratums, Kinseys, Davidsons, Nelsons, Gibbons, Walkers, Fowlers, Scrapps, Rowen, McIntyres, Wilkinsons, Russells, Morgans, Craw-fords, Murrys, Pattersons, Stiles, Pen-lands, Plotts. These were all revolutionary soldiers. There were also the Hag-gards, Rogers and others.
In 1801 the first grist mill in the county was erected on Raccoon creek, at Welch's.
The first saw mill was erected two miles below the present Clyde, on Pigeon river.

A BAD BOSTON BOY.—A small boy in Boston, who had unfortunately learned to swear, was rebuked by his father. "Who told you that I swore?" asked the bad little boy.
"Ow, a little bird told me," said the father. The boy stood and looked out of the window, scowling at some sparrows which were scolding and chattering. Then he had a happy happy thought. "I know who told you," he said; "it was one of those sparrows."

Health Notes.
The summer is once more on us, and while we may, in our excellent climate, reasonably hope to pass through it without a visitation of the frightful scourges which are so terrible in some parts of the South; yet we must expect the usual amount of summer troubles. Among these, diarrhoea or summer complaint is most to be dreaded. Fortunately this may be rendered harmless by using Dr.
Lytle's Elixir, which should be found in every family.

THE WILMINGTON REVIEW SAYS:
The Wilmington Review says:
Hon. A. M. Waddell has been invited to deliver the oration at the unveiling of the monument at Smithfield, Johnston county, on May 10th, in memory of the Confederate dead who lost their lives at the battle of Bentonville, in 1865. Senator Vance had been invited to deliver the oration on that occasion, but owing to other engagements has been obliged to decline. It is probable that Col.
Waddell will accept the invitation.
