It is with real pleasure that I express to the public my sense of obligation to Drs. Hargan & Gatchell for relief given me from a most annoying, and at times painful, case of Piles.

I had been a sufferer from this complaint for several years, and during that time it had been a constant source of annoyance.

In March last I began a course of treatment under D s. Hargan & Gatchell which resulted in a speedy cure. Since my discharge from their office I have suffered no pain or inconvenience whatever.

whatever.
I take pleasure in saying further that in m rutercourse with Drs. Hargan & Gatchell I founthem true gouldemen in every respect and we worthy of the confidence of the people in genera and the afflicted in particular.
