We are pleased to learn that Dr. Allen of Waynesville is convalescent, and his friends hope will soon be himself again.

Hon. J. L. Robinson, though very weak, shows evident signs of improvement, which is most pleasing to all his friends.

Died, on Monday morning, in Mills River township, Transylvania county, of typhoid fever, Mrs. Malinda Girdwood, wife of W. R. Girdwood, Esq. She leaves a husband and two small children.

Waynesville's new bank will be in operation in a few days, the safes and vaults therefor having been shipped.

Robert L. Porter, Esq., a prominent merchant of Franklin, and daughter; Geo. H. Swathers, Esq., of the Waynesville White Sulphur Springs; D. H. Boyd, of Sunong, Boyd & Co., of the Augusta, Greenville and Knoxville Rail Road, in the city.

The Augusta Evening News of the 28th says that Mrs. T. P. Branch, accompanied by Miss Mary Branch and the children of the family, left on yesterday for Asheville.

Dr. A. H. Baker returned this morning from Hendersonville, N. C., where he carried his family last week for the summer.

The Waynesville White Sulphur Springs has opened under most encouraging auspices. The lawn and the drives are beautiful, the hotel as neat as a new pin, and admirably kept, the water, of course is splendid and healthful, and a most pleasant crowd is rapidly gathering, all of which render this famous place most delightful place of sojourn.

Mr. W. C. Jordan, of Mills River, was in to see us yesterday. He reports the crops in his section as better than for years. He also informed us that the dump-car used at the Boilston cold mines, for hauling the ore from the mines, slipped away from the conductor Monday and went down the incline faster than greased lightning.

Dr. W. W. Wing dropped in on us yesterday morning. He is on the "wing" figuratively, a good deal, for he is one of the moving spirits of that pretty hamlet, Weaverville, and he do not hold to the sage that "good wine needs no bush."

THE MURDER CASE!

STARTLING AND HORRIBLE DEVELOPMENTS—DELIBERATE KILLING WHERE ACCIDENT WAS PLEADED—A FATHER KILLING A MOTHER IN THE PRESENCE OF HER CHILDREN!

We briefly mentioned yesterday the killing of Maggie King by her husband Tom King, colored. The calamity was then charitably ascribed to culpable carelessness. The slayer admitted the killing; but his version of accident was taken for the while, because his well feigned grief forbid the idea of design. His were crocodile tears, and the subsequent patient and thorough examination of a coroner's jury unveiled a brutal tragedy, enacted in the presence of little children, the offspring of the hapless pair.

A coroner's jury was summoned, and proceeded to the scene of the murder, about two miles South from the court house. The examination began about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and was continued through in the until about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the verdict published below was rendered.

We give the following abstract of the testimony:

Jane Bailey, sworn and testified: Lives within 100 yards of King's house; went over to King's house to borrow meat; when I got in yard heard quarrelling; did not go in; went back home, didn't hear the gun go off; heard quarrelling about meal, knew of no fuss previous, but had known of jealousy by wife against King, but they seemed to get along amicably.

Maria Clayton, sworn and says: heard gun, stepped outside of the door; heard King holler, she ran to King's house; "gun had gone off and killed Maggie." When she got to house found Maggie on the floor dead, infant 2 years old on the bed covered with blood. Tom told her he laid gun on the bed; it went off, witness is sister to deceased. Tom was always foolishly fond about his wife, sister was cross at times to Tom; had advised her to be patient; he might leave her; never knew them to fight; had quarrels; had known Tom's wife to ask him to load gun; had known of jealousy but had heard Tom had given cause for it.

The oldest child, 5 years old, says she went to Albert Rowley, 100 yards off, to get meat. Left mother and father quarrelling. As she reached Rowley's heard the gun.

Another child, a girl 3 or 4 years old, in the house at the time, said "Papa took the gun down from the head of the bed, pointed it at mama and shot."

Albert Rowley, col., sworn and testified: was in his house, heard report of the gun, ran out the back way; looked toward King's, and all round for at least two minutes; was satisfied no one was in sight, while in the act of turning to go back to house King ran out of his house, exclaiming, "Oh, Albert! Albert! killed Maggie." Was first one to be seen. When he got to house, Tom was crying and wringing his hands. Witness entered the house, ran to the deceased, lying on the floor. Called to her to know what was the matter. All he noticed was a movement of the muscles of the shoulder. She was dead. Then he came to the city to notify the authorities. Tom wanted to come, but did not. At same time witness instructed that the body be not removed from its position. Witness knew of no jealousy. The Doctor therefore constituted himself newspaper, soliciting agent, puff general, special correspondent, all in one, and has the pleasure now of having his reward in sight.

H. McKee and J. Nowell, by me summoned for that purpose according to law, after being by me duly sworn and impleaded, the death of Maggie King, the county aforesaid, did hold an inquest over the dead body of Maggie King, col., and after examination into the facts and circumstances of the death of the deceased found as follows, that is to say:

That the deceased, Maggie King, col., came to her death by gun shot and by wounds inflicted by a butcher knife in the hands of Thomas King.

(Signed) THOMPSON HARGOOD, HENRY BARNWELL, R. H. MCKEE, J. NOWELL, T. K. DAVIS, R. A. HUNTER.

Inquest had and signed and sealed in the presence of I. A. Harris, Coroner of Buncombe county.

June 30, 1887.

And the prisoner was committed to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury at the next term of the Buncombe Superior Court.

The weather continues delightful, neither hot nor cold, and at present meets all requirements.

The berry crop in this section is singularly small this year; and the fruit crop generally is small; even the apple crop will be a small one.

Meers, Ray & Shivers have tendered the use of their vehicles to the members of the Amateur Athletic Club and the band, who will give a street procession at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Don't fail to attend their exhibition at the Warehouse to-night and enjoy the fun.

Mr. J. C. S. Timberlake, formerly lessee of the Haywood White Sulphur springs, reached here on Wednesday evening from Atlanta. He is one of the passengers injured by the accident on the A. and S. road last fall near Fletchers, and is still a sufferer, having received a severe concussion of the spine. He moves with pain and difficulty, but looks well. He will be in the mountains some weeks.

DIED

In this city on Wednesday night Eileen Louisa, infant daughter of L. A. and L. B. Bailey, of Greensboro. The remains were taken yesterday to Greensboro for interment.

PASSENGER RATES FOR THE FOURTH OF JULY.

On the National Anniversary round trip tickets will be put on sale at all the stations on the Western North Carolina Division of the R. & D. road for one regular fare.

Tickets on July 2d, 3d and 4th good to return, and including July 7th.

MORE ROOM.

The complaints of sufficient accommodation at the Asheville passenger depot are now partially removed by the transfer of the officers rooms to the brick building south of the depot, and the transformation of these apartments into rooms for passengers. Ladies and invalids will fully appreciate this separation from the general crowd, and the provision of distinct accommodation.

HAYWOOD WHITE SULPHUR.

There have been sixty six arrivals at this place since the season opened on the 18th, including visitors from distant parts of the Union.

The current has set in and the house will soon be filled under the knowledge that it is well kept. A large crowd is expected in July, and engagements are made running up into September. Too much can not be said of the charms of the Haywood White Sulphur Springs.

CLOSING OF THE FOURTH.

The bird of liberty will be let loose. A large number of merchants have signed an agreement to close their doors on Monday. We will publish the names of the signers to-morrow.

HABEAS CORPUS.

Yesterday Pink Aiken, colored, one of the parties indicted at the present term of the Superior Court for participation in the murder of Foreman, colored, a few weeks since, and now under confinement in jail pending legal proceedings in the case, sued out a writ of habeas corpus. The writ is returnable before Judge Merrimon at day not yet fixed.

"DO MEN GATHER FIGS OF THIS KIND?"

No more can they be expected to receive good returns in agriculture when old and poor seeds have been sown. To do the one would be quite as difficult as the other. Landreth's new crop Turnip Seeds have just been received at Fellman's Pharmacy, and they are going off rapidly to be sure. No old turnip seeds, but pure and reliable Turnip Seeds just received. Selling very low.

PELLMAN'S PHARMACY, 48 South Main st.

Avoid by all means the use of calomel for bilious complaints. Ayer's Cathartic Pills compounded entirely of vegetable ingredients, have been tested for forty years, and are acknowledged to be the best remedy ever devised for torpidity of the liver, costiveness, and all derangements of the digestive apparatus.

LADIES' LEAPING-HORN SIDE SADDLES. A fine lot just arrived at Jones & Porter's, 19 North Main st.

Picture frames fine and cheap at Lindsey's Studio, Main st., opposite postoffice.

LETTER.

True Bills Against Murderers.

(By telegraph to the Asheville Citizen.) JACKSON, Miss., June 30.—The Grand Jury in their report yesterday brought in true bills against Jones S. Hamilton and L. W. Eubanks for the murder of R. D. Gambrell, on May 5th, at Jackson, Miss.

The case of Albrecht, who was placed under bonds in the same connection, is now under consideration. Very possibly if the case is tried this term, a change of venue will be obtained.

Another Strike Threatened.

(By telegraph to the Asheville Citizen.) PITTSBURG, Pa., June 30.—A strike is threatened at the Fortenayre Railroad shops in Allegheny City which is likely to throw out of employment between 400 and 500 men. The trouble is caused by a new style of box car in which there is almost twice as much labor on as in the ordinary cars. The men refuse to work on them unless their wages are advanced. Yesterday sixteen carpenters quit work. Sympathy for strikers is very strong in the other departments; and unless there is a settlement a general strike is probable.

Another More Trick—The Jeff Davis Forged Letter—Who is the Author.

(By telegraph to the Asheville Citizen.) CHICAGO, June 30.—A Times special from Danville, Ill., says: Regarding the forged Jeff Davis letter to the Danville Fair Association, regarding himself and the rebel flags, Secretary Howes says: The Association did not authorize Phocian Howard this year, but only last year, to write Mr. Davis to speak at the fair. They never saw the original of the alleged reply. Howard showed him a copy only, and took it away. Howard says the Davis letter is entirely written in Davis' hand writing, "Davis, Beauvoir, Miss., June 2d," and post-marked New Orleans, no post office being at Beauvoir, but only the Mobile and Ohio Railroad station. He says he sent the original to Rokker & Co., Springfield, to have a fac simile made.

The Bomb Throwers' Explanation.

(By telegraph to the Asheville Citizen.) CHICAGO, June 30.—The News says: Rudolph Schnaubert, the alleged thrower of the bomb at the Haymarket rink, has addressed a letter to the Arbeiter Zeitung, which is claimed by them to be authentic. The letter is dated Christiania, Norway, and reads as follows: "It is supposed that the man who threw the bomb on May 4th, 1886, was Rudolph Schnaubert. The truth is I (Rudolph Schnaubert) attended the meeting on Haymarket and witnessed its proceedings. I went home before the meeting was over and had not the least idea that the fact of my being there would prove so fatal to myself. But when I think and the blackguardism of the police has its own way. The day following Haymarket events I went to work; not apprehend anything wrong. My employer brought me news that the editors of the Arbeiter Zeitung had been arrested and the paper 'stopped.' Being one of the trustees of the socialist publishing society, I felt obliged to see what was to be done and went to the Arbeiter Zeitung office. A band of detectives-like vandals were at work at the composing room destroying type and forms. They also found material for the preparation of bombs, namely, type and stereotyped plates. My brother-in-law, M. Schwabe, was also arrested, despite the fact that he was absent from the meeting at Haymarket. I thought that he would be let free on bail; but I soon discovered that I was mistaken. The next day I again went to work; but soon two blackguards invited me to go to the chief, who after questioning me at length let me go. But nevertheless, I thought it advisable to get out of the way for a while. I stayed around Chicago until I was informed that I was the most sought and very desirable person. They accused me of having thrown the bomb because the actual thrower of the bomb could not be found by the search hounds for want of brains and wit.

Coercion Coming.

(By telegraph to the Asheville Citizen.) LONDON, June 30.—In the House of Commons to-night W. H. Smith moved that the report on the crimes bill be not reached by Mr. May, as he would demand a cloture. Parliament opposed the motion which, however, was carried by a vote of 220 to 120.

The Speaker then called up Parnellite to move amendments standing opposite their names on notice paper. Parnellites who were watching the proceedings from the members' side of gallery, made no reply.

Amendments introduced by Balfour, Chief Secretary for Ireland, were agreed to without debate, and the bill was reported.

Balfour announced that the third reading of the bill would be moved Tuesday next.

Market Reports.

(By telegraph to the Asheville Citizen.) CHICAGO, June 30.—Cash quotations for to-day were as follows: four cent; No. 2 spring wheat 97 1/2; No. 2 corn 38 1/2; No. 2 oats, 25 1/2; mess pork 20; lard, 6.50.

CINCINNATI, June 30.—Flour dull; wheat lower No. 2 red 75; corn easy No. 2 mixed 29; whiskey steady 1.05.

ST. LOUIS, June 30.—Flour steady; wheat No. 2 red cash 73; corn lower, 33; oats nothing done, cash 27; whiskey steady 1.10.

LOUISVILLE, June 30.—Grain quiet; wheat No. 2 red 73; corn No. 2 mixed 40; provisions firm.

The Dispatch says: A Boston lady who is teaching school at the South, and whom the Boston Herald describes as "a highly-cultured lady of rare refinement and a member of one of the Abolitionist families of Massachusetts," writes privately to a friend in her native city as follows:

"One cannot know the South by any rapid tour through it; one must live in its houses and hear what the people think and feel, and understand why they think and feel as they do. The South is happier than the North; people here are less restless; less goaded by competition and envy, and there is a purer democracy, fewer social lines founded upon merely external advantages. The spirit of brotherly love is more obvious here, and much is real love between themselves. I do not even exempt the colored man, for I believe he gets as much sympathy here as he does at the North."

Perhaps the closing sentence of this extract may enlighten Mr. Halstead as to the reason why the poor, persecuted negro does not migrate to the North.

TEMPERATURE.

Asheville is the Mecca for those who wish to escape the great heat of the summers both North and South.

During 8 years the mercury but twice rose above 88 degrees. The maximum temperature as far North as St. Paul, Minnesota, is 12 to 15 degrees greater than that of 'Buncombe.' Another important feature is this—there is here—as in the mountains generally—a great difference between the heat of sun and shade. In the North it is often nearly as warm in the shade as it is in the sun, but here the moment one steps in the shadow of a tree he feels a great variation in temperature.

HEALTHFULNESS.

This climate is extremely healthful; there is almost no scrofula, owing to the dry, invigorating air, cool summer nights, and pure water.

Malaria is absolutely unknown in these mountains; there is not a lake or a swamp in the entire region. There are absolutely no mosquitoes in this region.

As to pulmonary diseases, probably there is no other resort in the United States which deservedly enjoys so enviable a reputation in the cure of diseases of this character.

Any one desiring further information may obtain it by addressing DR. HARGAN AND GATCHELL, Homoeopathic Physicians, Asheville, N. C.

Human Calves.

An exchange says—"Nine-tenths of the unhappy marriages result from human calves being allowed to run at large in society pastures." Nine-tenths of the chronic or lingering diseases of today originate in impure blood, liver complaint or biliousness, resulting in scrofula, consumption (which is but scrofula of the lungs), sores, ulcers, skin diseases and kindred affections. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" cures all these. Of druggists. d&wlv
