THE DAILY CITIZEN Will be published every Morning (except Monday) at the following rates: One Year, $3.00; Six Months, 1.50; Three Months, .75; One Month, .25.

Our Carriers will deliver the paper every Morning in every part of the city to our subscribers, and parties wanting it will please call at the CITIZEN OFFICE.

Send your Job Work of all kinds to the Citizen Office, if you want it done neatly, cheaply and with dispatch.

Weather Indications. For North Carolina—Local rain, heavy temperature, variable with generally southerly.

For Virginia—Fair weather, temperature stationary, variable winds.

For Tennessee—Local rains, variable winds generally southerly, stationary temperature.

Go to Weldon's for the largest and best "Brick" in the city.

The CITIZEN, with latest Associated Press Dispatches will be found regularly at all hotels and news-stands in the city.

The rapidity with which the gas pipes are being laid and the nicely with which their tracks are being covered up are subjects of most favorable comment.

Weldon's Gem Bakery delivery wagon, so neat in its get up and so brisk in movements, conveys the idea of successful business enterprise we are glad to see and welcome. All hail to the Gem.

Mr. A. E. Clark has just completed a four mill for Mr. Jos. Garren, on Cane Creek, and has put the same in operation.

Mrs. Freck and Miss Jennie M. Ritz returned to Asheville in fine spirits last Wednesday. Although they were highly delighted with their week's visit to Greenville, they express themselves thankful to have again reached the cool and lovely "Gem of Summer Resorts."

Hell's Half Acre will soon exist only in offensive memory. The foul stain on humanity and respect to municipal indolence is being removed.

Mr. Richard H. Smith, of Halifax county, called to see us yesterday, the whole CITIZEN corps being old friends of his.

Mr. Reuben Rawls yesterday afternoon gave a picnic complimentary to the little daughters of Capt. M. E. Carter, at "Clivedon" Park—his beautiful property located just north of the French Broad bridge and overlooking that river.

The interest attached to the mysterious death of the young Virginia teacher on Pigeon River on the last of March, 1886, has never quite died away.

Recently a party who was more actively engaged in the investigation of the circumstances attending the death than any one else, received a letter from a man in a distant part of the State professing to be well informed of the facts, and stating positively that Prof. Madison was murdered, and that he knew the murderer, and where he now is.

Our countryman W. T. Dickinson was in our sanctum yesterday and made a suggestion which we trust will be adopted by all concerned. Mr. D. was a member of the Buncombe Riflemen, and took part in the first battle of the war, at Big Bethel. It is now suggested that the survivors of this company hold a reunion in Asheville at an early date.

L. A. Gov. Mandin of South Carolina is at Battery Park.

Among the visitors to the city is Capt. John W. Carlisle of Spartanburg, S. C., a distinguished member of the South Carolina bar.

The mercury here yesterday was at 85 in doors, at 2 p. m. This is as high as reached here this summer.

Messrs. H. Redwood and Richmond Pearson have returned from a week's fishing frolic on Forney's Creek in Swain county.

The coolest water melon "booth" we have seen is under that big oak that shades the corner of Patton Avenue and Haywood street.

Mr. W. B. Kendrick, representing the University Publishing Company of New York, is in the city.

The Hornet's Nest Rifles of Charlotte, about fifty strong, also went down to Asheville yesterday, where they too will pitch their tents.

The Durham Recorder says: The threshing machine of Mr. John Christian has been doing good service in Durham county, making large averages, and was quite popular.

Water—Another bursted pipe. The officers in charge turned on the water from the Swannanoa Wednesday with full hopes, but after running into the reservoir for awhile, adding about one and one-half feet to the quantity already in the old reservoir, a section of pipe near the Swannanoa river burst, which suspended operations.

It was not watered in those days. Bro. Carter of our neighbor the Baptist, after referring to the recent changes in the management and ownership of the Biblical Recorder, adds:

"The Recorder was our sainted mother's next reading matter to her Bible, and we were fed on it, when a child, as a babe in the arms of our mother."
