The western train, Murphy Division, which left yesterday morning, proceeded as far as Waynesville, but owing to some slides or washouts beyond could go no farther, and returned to this city on time yesterday evening. We could not learn, on enquiry, the extent of the damage west of Waynesville.

WILL REMOVE TO MARSHALL.
Mr. J. McMurray who has had charge of a large contract for some time on the railroad between this city and the mountain filling cuts and straightening lines, has been ordered to remove his force to Marshall, as some straightening is desired on the lower end of the line.
For twenty-two months he has had a force of one hundred or more at Gas's Creek treatise and neighborhood. In that time he has lost one by death, and three by escapes. This speaks well for the healthfulness of the place, for the management and discipline of the force. Mr.
McMurray is a good officer.

Abraham Southern, a color-man who resides near Old Fort, has reached the ripe age of 107 years. This is well authenticated by a bill of sale for Abraham made to Noah Southern who purchased him which stated his age, and is now extant. This shows the age to be as above. He is hale and healthy, does not run a two-horse cry by himself, but can work around and find the shady places of the premises with commendable energy.
NORTH CAROLINIANS COMPLIMENTED.
Mr. Cecil G. Butt, formerly of Elizabeth City, but who has been residing in Orlando, Fla., for some time, and who married Miss Katie H. McDowell, formerly of Asheville, has been appointed by the Governor of Florida, Judge of the Criminal Court for Orlando county.
Mr. J. Hugh Murphy, a former Asheville boy, has been appointed Solicitor of the same court.
The local papers speak in high terms of both gentlemen.

REDBRIDING HOON.
Notwithstanding the very inclement weather the above charming opera was presented to very fair audiences, and its rendition was very highly creditable to the young ladies and gentlemen, especially so to Miss Emma Pond who arranged and superintended the whole matter. Miss Pond is a vocal teacher of distinction, and has conducted a school of vocal music in Raleigh the past year or two with flattering success. Her success in training the boys and girls, some sixty-odd, shows capacity and talent of a high order. She and her pupils, mentioned richly the applause they received at each performance.
The following is the cast of the characters of the first evening: Red Riding Hood, Miss Nannie Weaver; er, Roy, Master Francis Gung; Buttercup, Miss Rosa McBee; Grandmother, Miss Bessie Richards; Rose, Miss Daisy Sawyer; Mamma, Miss Louisa Wilson; Violet, Miss Eva Branch; Woodman, Mr. J. F.
Summey; Queen of Fairies and Flowers, Miss Annie Sinclair; Wolf, Mr. J. A.
Porter; Robin, Master Willie Richards; Accompianist, Mrs. D. M. Davidson.
On the second evening the characters were represented as above with the exception of Miss Carrie Summey instead of Miss Nannie Weaver as "Little Red Riding Hood"; and Miss Eva Branch instead of Miss Rosa McBee as "Buttercup"; and Mr. Jas. Young for Mr. J. A. Porter.
They were absent on account of indisposition, and being so well suited to the characters they were highly commended by the audience. Misses Wilson, Summey, Richards, Sawyer, and several others who acquitted themselves so admirably, and besides those mentioned above two doctors, one a brilliant surgeon, and a prettiest little girl took part in this very enjoyable affair, and as they appeared in each of the tableaux, or singing solos, duets and choruses, presented a spectacle of beauty which will be long remembered. The opera was under the management of Miss Pond, of Boston, and by the Young Ladies' Aid Society, who spared no efforts to make the affair one of pleasure and success. It is hoped that the same play will be repeated again when the weather is more favorable. The music by the Asheville Orchestra was splendid and set the heart to the interest of the occasion. The entire performance was watched by the audience in town or city in the State can give a better entertainment than Asheville, especially when music, dramatic and instrumental, constitutes a great part of the programme.

THE EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS.
CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Dispatches from Jacksonville, Centralia, and Jonesboro, Illinois, this morning, indicate that the early earthquake shocks noted at Nashville, Tenn., St. Louis, Mo., and Evansville, Ind., were general throughout Southern Jonesboro from Northwest to South. In the latter place a rumbling noise was heard and the shocks were of sufficient force to cause picture frames to fall from the walls. The time was 12:40 a. m.

Several whites got aboard, one of boat returned to Hickman the affair broke out in a fight with knives and pistols, in which 25 or 30 engaged, black and white. Five were wounded more or less seriously, and one died yesterday from the effects of wounds. Others are in a precarious state. All was quiet at the last achim eminently able to represent our striving home. The exhibit embraces everything needed by the surgeon or

THE MEETING OF THE DRUGGISTS' BOARD OF EXAMINERS.
To-day the Druggists of North Carolina, in a very large number of them, will meet in their annual convention in this city, to consult upon matters of interest to druggists. At least to-day is the appointed time for the meeting, but unless the eastern members come by way of Spartanburg they will not reach here today or before late this evening, being detained yesterday at Salisbury by the breakages in the road, which could between seventy-five and one hundred of them are expected, and it is hoped a full representation will be in attendance, and we trust that every one will enjoy himself while here. Our local druggists, we know, will spare no efforts to render the visits of their brethren most agreeable.
There will also meet this week the Board of Examiners of the State Pharmaceutical Association, for the examination of applicants for license to dispense drugs and compound prescriptions.
The gentlemen are most heartily welcomed to Asheville, and we trust everyone will make himself entirely at home while with us.

full representation will be in attendance,
druggists, we know, will spare no efforts
most agreeable.
Board of Examiners of the State Pharmaceutical Association, for the examina-
drugs and compound prescriptions.
comed to Asheville, and we trust every-
while with us.
