New York, Mry 10, 1887. In the fall of 1886 I was in such poor health that I was obliged to cancel all of my lecture engagements for the winter, and to give up writing for a time. I went to Asheville and placed myselfunder the care of Drs. Hargan and Gatchell. Continuing their treakment I improved in health and strength, can into 20 rounts of flesh; and feel better than I have for years.

I regard their oxygen treatment as being of great value; they, themselves, are gentiemen of skill, and worthy of the confidence or the public.
