VOL. III.—NO. 136. ASHEVILLE, N. C. TUESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 20, 1887. PRICE 5 CENTS

DAILY EDITION.

THE DAILY CITIZEN Will be published every Morning (except Monday) at the following rates—

Send your Job Work of all kinds to the Citizen Office, if you want it done neatly, cheaply and with dispatch.

Arrival and Departure of Passenger Trains. SALISBURY—Arrives 8:15 p. m., leaves for MORRISTOWN at 8:30 p. m.

Weather Indications.

For North Carolina—Threatening and rainy weather, nearly stationary temperature, fresh to brisk and on the coast brisk to light easterly winds.

For Virginia—Cooler, threatening weather, rain, light to fresh winds, becoming N E and increasing in force.

For Tennessee—Threatening weather, with rain, nearly stationary temperature, fresh to brisk easterly winds.

The Citizen, with latest Associated Press Dispatches will be found regularly at all hotels and newsstands in the city.

Senator Pon of Johnson county is in the city. Judge J. H. Merrimon reached home yesterday.

Nat Atkinson & Sons have two elegant residences to rent. Call on them.

Gen'l Johnstone Jones returned from the Philadelphia Centennial yesterday. The clouds have swept by without giving out any rain.

Full reports from contributors to the Barbecue are so numerous that it is impossible to publish them all.

California Peas. We were shown yesterday some mammoth peas shipped from Napa county, California.

Miss Mamie Hatcher. Has contributed to the Southern Home, a monthly published at Kernersville, N. C.

A Big Land Suit. We clip the following from the Rutherfordton Banner: Our esteemed citizen, Mr. C. W. Watkins has had quite a reputation as a surveyor.

KILLED ON THE TRACK. Sunday morning the engineer of the shifting engine at the Asheville depot, while running his engine up the track was horrified to find the mutilated remains of a human being lying near, and partly on the track.

HOME TREATMENT. We manufacture the Compound Oxygen, and sell it to all parts of the country.

H. L. LANG, "THE JEWELLER," 54 South Main St., Asheville.

CITY MARKET. I have just put in a New Refrigerator and am well prepared to keep meats in good condition.

Jackson court Monday next. The Citizen will be there. Be ye ready. Mr. C. Miller, millwright has located in this city with headquarters at the Western Hotel.

The business of Haywood's two weeks term was dispatched in one week; so much for a working judge. Brother Carter, of the Western North Carolina Baptist, desires to see all his Baptist friends of Buncombe in the city on Saturday at the barbecue.

Misses Artie Rice and Sallie McCracken of Crab Tree, Haywood Co., passed through the city yesterday for Hendersonville to enter Judson College which has just opened.

The City Library has been moved from the second story of Mr. S. R. Kepler's store to the handsomely fitted rooms of the new brick building of Messrs. Barden, Rankin & Co., one door south of their store.

Mr. J. H. Law enlarged his business to such an extent that he was forced to get more room to display his china ware, hence he has rented the new building next door and is now moving a portion of his goods into it.

Pliny says that sick headache may be thus cured: Extract the small head of a snail found between two cork ruts, pass it through a gold ring with a piece of ivory, sew it in a piece of dog skin and fasten it to the patient.

Col Jim Webb says he has full faith in this remedy. Letters received yesterday by Capt. Nat Atkinson from prominent railroad officials give the highest encouragement to the projects now entertained by the people of Buncombe county and the city of Asheville.

A large party of ladies and gentlemen who left Asheville one week ago for a trip to Caesars' Head and other points reached home Sunday afternoon, having visited Broadway, Cesar's Head, Buck Forest, Hendersonville, Hickory Nut Falls, Chimney Rock, Fair View and other points of interest.

CABBAGE. A Virginia exchange says: "Cabbage, the most profitable crop of the immediate section round Wytheville is on the boom. Mr. H. Vernon has sold his crop of thirty-two acres, aggregating about six hundred thousand pounds, to a Memphis firm at 2 cents a pound, yielding him $12,000."

For the past several days Mr. John N. Murray, brother of our townsman W. R. Murray, has been in connection with visiting relatives and friends.

The Wilmington Star says: The Carolina Oil and Creosote Company find it necessary to increase their already large plant, and are putting in additional retorts for the manufacture of wood creosote for all their works in this city.

Nashville at the Boiling Point. Nashville, Sept. 19.—The city is in a ferment over the presence of a large number of detectives suddenly centered here, mainly from outside States, and supposed to be the interest of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

Another Fatal Collision. CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—A News special from Dubuque, Iowa, says: A terrible accident on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad, two miles north of this city took place about 5:30 this morning.

I Had a Dreadful Cough, and raised a considerable amount of blood and matter; besides, I was very thin and so weak I could scarcely go about the house.

Stoves, Tinware, Ranges. Our manufacturing department is now complete. We have all the latest improved machinery, work the best grades of material, and duplicate any bills bought North, East or West.

FOR SALE. Two Fine Saddle and Carriage Horses, Apple Box, W. C. GARMICHAEL.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY. A man with eight or ten thousand dollars capital can hear of a good business in Asheville, N. C.

SITUATION WANTED. A lady of considerable experience in teaching desires a situation as governess. It is also willing to assist in plain sewing, dressmaking, etc.

FOR SALE. In order to sell at once, and make a desired change in my business, I now offer my place, worth $2,000 for $2,000.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA.

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT. J. E. Carpenter, et al. vs. J. H. McPherson, J. C. Peabody and T. E. Gilbert.

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT. J. E. Carpenter, et al. vs. J. H. McPherson, J. C. Peabody and T. E. Gilbert.

TELEGRAPHIC. NASHVILLE IN A RAGE! Pinkerton's Detectives in Full Force!

SENT TO CONTROL A RAILROAD ELECTION. The Blue and the Gray to Hob-Nob Together—No G. A. R. in Theirs.

ROANOKE COLLEGE REMEMBERED—A LIBERAL BEQUEST. The Cyclone on its Northern March—Its Tendency Towards the Atlantic Coast.

ANOTHER RAILROAD COLLISION—FIVE KILLED AND MANY WOUNDED. Liberal Bequest to a College.

Movements of the Coming Cyclone. WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The Signal Office reports the cyclone reported southwest of western Cuba, as moving westward Friday afternoon and Saturday morning as moving northward in the Gulf, is now approaching the central and western Gulf coast.

Reunion of the Blue and the Gray. [By Telegraph to the Asheville Citizen.] EVANSVILLE, IND., Sept. 19.—Arrangements for the reunion of the Union and Confederate soldiers at this place are about completed, and there will doubtless be as large a gathering of the people as was ever witnessed in this section.
