THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 22, 1887

There is no fun playing at soldiers in Kentucky. The State Guard has been called into service frequently during the past year to protect courts and uphold the law.

The Arkansas railroad have surprised Boston people by making at the American Pomological Society's show in that city what the Boston Herald terms "one of the finest displays of fruit ever seen in this section of country."

Such are the uses of rail roads, which rapidly interchange the perishable products of the country, giving all parts of the land participation in the orange, of Florida, the grapes and pears of California, the cranberries of Massachusetts, and enable the people of Boston to eat the first fruits of Arkansas.

Somewhat to our reproach here in Buncombe they enable us to eat the grapes of Western New York, and the pears of Pennsylvania. We ought to be sending out those things instead of paying out money for them; for there is no better fruit country for the products of the temperate zone than this mountain section.

During the past summer the night watchman and the clerk of a hotel at Sugar Hill, in the White Mountains, were both divinity students, and the scrub girl had been for five years a teacher in a public school, and speaks French and Latin.

Penitentiary Matters. The News-Observer, replying to some inquiries of Mr. Mendenhall, of Randolph county, respecting the penitentiary, gives the information published below.

The institution was an interpolation upon our penal system not at all palatable to the sentiments of our people and uncongenial to their habits. They had been accustomed to prompt, and it may be added, a somewhat severe administration of justice.

But under carpet bag and Republican rule, when the real voice of the people were stifled, and when the door was thrown open to the entrance of the crochets of advanced humanitarians, the penitentiary system was adopted, the penal code of the State adjusted to it, and to make the fact irrevocable, it was incorporated into the State constitution.

But we will let the News-Observer speak of what has been done. It says: "The average number of prisoners in the penitentiary has been about 1,400, we suppose, and the cost of feeding, clothing and guarding these has been great, of course, averaging, say, from $80,000 to $100,000 per annum."

our friend very popularly calls it, we know the affairs of the penitentiary were administered without much regard to the ability of the people to pay taxes.

Ex-Senator Simon Cameron was born before Washington died, a voter when James Monroe was candidate for President, still in the vigor of early manhood when he was an enthusiastic supporter of Andrew Jackson, a Senator of the United States nearly half a century ago.

HONEST AND OUTSPOKEN. The difference between North and South in this regard is here the negro enjoys perfect equality in theory and no equality in fact, while at the South both fact and theory agree in denying him equality and relegating him to sphere by himself.

Most women die happy feeling that the bustle of the world's behind. A Nashville paper says that "the cream of the base-ball club should be found in the pitcher," but it is sometimes found in the batter.

During the past summer the night watchman and the clerk of a hotel at Sugar Hill, in the White Mountains, were both divinity students, and the scrub girl had been for five years a teacher in a public school, and speaks French and Latin.

Brace Up. You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headache you are indolent, nervous, and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up.

Tutt's Pills. The dyspeptic, the debilitated, whether from excess of work, mind or body, drink or exposure in Malarial Regions, will find Tutt's Pills the most genial restorative ever offered the suffering invalid.

IMPORTANT TO INSURANCE MEN. Thousands of business men who are insured in "old line" companies are realizing the fact that they are paying more for their insurance than it is worth.
