In the fall of 1886 I was in such poor health that I was obliged to cancel all of my lecture engagements for the winter, and to give up writing for a time. I went to Ashoville and placed myself under the care of Drs. Hargan and Gatchell. Continuing their treatment I improved in health and strength, caining 29 rouses of flesh; and feel better than I have for years.

I regard their oxygen treatment as being of great value; they, themselves, are greatlemen of skill, and worthy of the confidence of the public.
