Mr. G. A. Shuford returned last evening from Transylvania. He says from the best information he could obtain, the railroad election to be held next Saturday will result favorably to the project.

Lieut. Governor Mauldin of South Carolina was in the city yesterday and favored us with a visit. He is one of those gentlemen who are intensely interested in the success of the Carolina, Knoxville and West in Rail Road.

The Rev. Dr. Atkins, of the Asheville Female College, and Dr. Bays, who has had charge of the Asheville Methodist Church, South, for the past four years, leave to-day to attend the Holston Conference which meets this week in Abingdon, Va.

We are requested to read an erroneous statement made in the Citizen in regard to Mr. J. M. Campbell's new dwelling. Mr. J. A. Wagner was superintendent—not Mr. G. W. Roberts. The latter was foreman. No real harm done, we presume, but the exact truth is the best among the world.

Among the world-wide by the county commissioners yesterday was to order the widening of the street on the north side of the court house to the extent of 25 feet and also the contract on the same on the south side to the same distance, by advertising in a street which is now a common opening on sufferance.

THE PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION!

To be Driven Through Our Principal Streets, and to be Shown the Glorious "Land of the Sky!"

At a meeting of the Board of Trade, the city authorities and a goodly number of other citizens, held last night in the Club rooms, the question of the reception of President Cleveland on the occasion of his brief stop in Asheville on the 21st inst., was considered.

Mr. Jackson Johnston, of Franklin, was in the city on Sunday on his way to attend the meeting of the Holston Annual Conference at Lexington, Va., which meets this week.

Mr. J. S. Patty, of Morristown, Tenn., and Passenger Agent of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, is in the city. He is a brother of the late Mrs. J. M. Gudger, and reached here to attend her funeral obsequies.

Mr. Jason Ashworth of Fairview, who is a large dealer generally in dried and evaporated fruits, principally peaches, was in the city yesterday. He informs us, that owing to the deficiency of the crop, his receipts of dried peaches so far have not exceeded one thousand pounds.

The Newbern and Wilmington papers both claim that the oysters are better this season than they have been for many years. We have to take to their word for it; for we see only Norfolk oysters here. But we cannot complain of them; for as fine are brought here as ordinarily he had in Norfolk. We would be pleased to have the opportunity of comparison.

We are glad to see so much interest manifested in the extension of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Road to a North Carolina port as to have originated animated rivalry between Wilmington and the friends of Morehead City for the honor. We incline to a preference for Wilmington, because at Fayetteville, the present terminus, it is only eighty miles to salt water. But if Wilmington is not active enough to secure the prize, we shall, so far from opposing the efforts of Morehead City, encourage them, for we wish to see a North Carolina road, such as the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley is emphatically, terminate at a North Carolina port instead of being switched off, of which there is danger, into South Carolina, and thus open another drain upon our resources and inflict another wound on State pride.

HONOR TO MR. D. F. CALDWELL. We want to congratulate our Uncle Frank Caldwell, of Greensboro. We know he is happy. He is happy because of the success of an enterprise he has been working for years. For several sessions he endeavored to receive the passage of a general charter for savings banks in this State, for the benefit of the workmen of the State. Last winter Senator Murrow introduced Mr. Caldwell's bill, for this purpose, and it was enacted into law. Under it a savings bank has been established in Greensboro, and though only open for business some two and a-half months it has proven a grand success, and of great utility and benefit to the poor people, not only as a safety institution but in its aid to them by safely secured loans. Mr. Caldwell deserves the thanks of his people, and the people of the State who have the privilege of using that charter, for his persistent efforts in this matter.

BERLIN PIANOS. Of six Pianos recently received from Berlin by Prof. Falk, five have been taken by the Asheville Female College, and will be put up to-morrow. Visitors are invited to call and see and hear them.

THE RAIL ROAD QUESTION. The Board of County Commissioners, in session yesterday, agreed among themselves to order an election to ascertain the sense of the people of Buncombe county on the proposition to issue bonds to certain rail road companies for the purposes heretofore mentioned in our columns. The Commissioners will not issue the order for an election until Monday next, giving time for the formulation of the views of the Commissioners and the attorneys representing both the interests of the people and of the rail road companies.

The subject was brought to the consideration of the Board through the presence and by the arguments and information of Lieut. V. Mauldin of South Carolina, and Messrs. Atkinson, M. E. Carter, McLoud, A. Gudger and Graham.

The President pays his railroad fare like any other American citizen. He has bought regular first class tickets for every member of his party for the outlined trip. The reports that the trip will cost him $10,000 are said to be great exaggerations. The President will stock the buffet car himself and pay all the incidental expenses of the trip, and even experienced railroad men say that the trip will not cost him over $2,000.

The President in St. Louis. St. Louis, Oct. 3.—Till this a. m. the President has been the guest of Mayor Francis; but to-day and to-morrow he belongs to the people. Fairer weather could not be asked. The skies are clear with winds sufficiently cold to make light overcoats desirable. The streets, cleared by last night's shower, are free from dust; and everywhere along the line of the sidewalk are crowded to their utmost capacity by a quartette of richly compared high stepping black horses and followed by five other carriages provided for his travelling companions and local committee in charge, reached the Francis mansion in Vandiver place a few minutes before 10 o'clock, at 10:15 the President and Mrs. Cleveland appeared at the door of the mansion, and were applauded by the crowd of ladies and children that had gathered in the park in front of the residence. There was a noticeable absence of men, and the dresses indicated a predominance of the latter classes. Mr. J. C. C. Ranweter entered the carriage with the President and wife, and in a few

New York Stock Market. (By telegraph to the Asheville Citizen.) New York, Oct. 3.—The market was fairly active, but weak throughout the day and material declines were made all over the list. The bear party was active and aggressive and while their opponents were indisposed to support prices, a manipulation for a decline had well advanced was in an unfavorable position in regard to Grangers, chief among which was the story that stock of Northwestern was being sold to which were added the influences of decreasing earnings of St. Paul and rail troubles in the Northwest. There besides furnished pretext for raising the list, and a number of the most active stocks were forced down 1 in 1 to 2 points. Opening was weak at declines of from 1 to 2 per cent. from Saturday's final figures and while Western Union was decidedly strong, the remainder of the list was quite irregular, and soon became weak. New England showed considerable strength in the forenoon, and losses in the general list were kept down to fractions until the afternoon when weakness displayed by the Richmond and West Point was the signal for a general decline. The attack was especially heavy upon St. Paul during the last hour, and most of its loss was made at that time. The close was quiet, but weak at or near the lowest prices of day. The total day's business amounted to 613,000 shares.
