Judge E. J. Aston still lives there, and Asheville of to-day is greatly indebted to him for its rapid growth and present prospects. We found him the same jovial social and genial gentleman as in days of youth. Asheville without Judge Aston would be almost dead. They aught o elect him Mayor for life.

It was a pleasure to us to meet so many of our old friends and acquaintances. Our hands were almust as sore as Grover's, we had to shake so much, and yet our visit was so short that we did not get to ee near all.

The city is now lighted with elecric lights. The water works will be the best in the South as soon as oom continues.

In the fall of 1886 I was in such poor health that I was obliged to cancel all of my lecture engagements for the winter, and to give up writing for a time. I went to Asheville and placed myself under the care of Drs. Hargan and Gatchell.

Continuing their treatment I improved in health and strength, canning 20 rousnes of flesh; and feel better than I have for years.

I regard their oxygen treatment as being of great value; they, themselves, are gentlemen of great value; they, themselves, are gentlemen of skill, and worthy of the confidence of the public.
