INTO THE COON BUSINESS.
The Franklin Press says: "We learn that Mr. Geo. A. Jacobs, of Cullasassa, and a visiting friend from Tennessee, went out hunting last week and succeeded in killing a fine buck. On their way home the dogs 'treed' something in a couple of large hollow trees standing close together. The trees were cut down, when eleven coons ran out, nine of which were killed by the hunters."

THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY AND UNAKA RAILROAD.
In reference to the above road, which is to run up the Tennessee river through Graham, Swain and Macon counties, the Franklin Press says:
We had a very pleasant call this week from Col. W. A. Hoskins, a prominent gentleman of Sweet Water, Tenn., who is greatly interested in building of this important road. He says the company has ample capital, that they have determined to build the road, and he is fully satisfied of the early completion of this great line.

We have endeavored heretofore to show the many advantages of a road through our mountain country. It is the shortest and cheapest route from the great West to the Atlantic coast, passing through a country rich in agricultural lands and timbers, and especially in its minerals. From the geological formation of the country belt traversed by the C. V. and U. road, almost every mineral known to our country ought to be, and doubtless is, discovered, with intelligence and industry. The following minerals are known to exist: Iron ores, including limonite and magnetite, in great quantity and of most superior quality; marbles of ever shade, mica, asbestos, corundum, roofing slates, granite, gold, &c.

We hope to see active work commenced on this great road at an early day.
DIED.
At her father's in Henderson county, N. C., Ida Irene, daughter of John M. and N. A. Lytle, aged 21 years.
"Not dead, but sleeping."
After a long and painful illness of nine weeks, borne with gentleness and grace, she "fell asleep," and her loving family and many friends laid her to rest in the Mill's River church yard where so many of her kindred already slept. Gone, in the fullness of her youth and beauty to the God "whom having not seen she loved," gone, from her loved home on earth to the "Father's House" in heaven, gone, from her bed of pain and weariness to the land where the inhabitants shall no more say "I am sick."

"Then why should your tears roll down,
And your hearts be sorely riven;
For another star in the saviour's crown,
And another soul in heaven?" J. T. B.

SPECIAL ATTENTION
Is invited to the large array of popular remedies to be found at Pelham's Pharmacy, near the post office. It is a rule with this house to keep any thing that is wanted in the drug line, provided it has any merits. We advise our friends in the country that when in want of any medicines to try Pelham's Drug Store. They fill physicians' prescriptions at low prices. The quality of their goods is unequalled. They handle a full line of Sundries such as drug stores usually carry. There is a complete assortment.

DEMOCRACY IN CHICAGO.

REPUBLICANS DISTURBING THE PEACE IN VIRGINIA AND ARE ARRESTED.

The Virginians Polling a Short Vote—Democratic Victory Strongly Indicated.

THREATENED DISTURBANCES IN NEW YORK—REPEATERS TRY TO GET IN WORK AND ARE ARRESTED.

The Anarchist Vote Smaller Than Expected—Old Massachusetts Holding Her Own For the Republicans.

Illinois Election.
CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Reports from most of the wards up to 10.30 a. m. indicate that a very light vote is being polled, although in the Labor districts a respectable showing was made in the early morning hours. It looks as though not more than one-third of a regular vote will be called out.

New York Elections.
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The election in New York State to-day is for Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, Attorney General, State Engineer and Surveyor, nine Justices of the Supreme Court, Senate and Assembly, and Representatives to Congress, from 19th and 25th districts. Returns will be collected to-night of the vote for the four principal candidates for Secretary of State. These are Fred Cook, dem., F. D. Grant, rep., D. W. C. Huntington, pro., and Henry George, united labor. The vote will be compared with the vote cast for the heads of tickets in 1885, when Governor and other State officers were elected. The number of election districts in the State is 3141. Of this number 1087 are in New York and Kings counties. The Associated Press bulletin will give the vote by election districts. The present State officers are all democrats. The last Legislature stood: Senate—20 republicans, 12 democrats; Assembly—74 republicans, 54 democrats. The election in the 19th Congressional District is to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Nicholas Kane, dem.; by the 25th district to fill the vacancy caused by the election of Frank Hiscock, rep. to the U. S. Senate.

It is believed that of the 233,000 votes registered fully 220,000 will be cast, and it is generally considered that this will inure to the advantage of the Republican party. Extreme bitterness of the campaign has become subdued into earnest work at the polls by the adherents of the respective candidates. Workers were out earlier than usual and in much larger numbers, almost every nominee having one or more personal friends at every polling place in the county or district. There have been more than the ordinary number of arrests for illegal voting, but they have been one at a time.

New York, Nov. 8.—Advices from throughout the State indicate that a large vote is being polled every place reporting the heaviest ever cast. All points report fine weather and unusual interest in the result of the day's election.
ALBANY, Nov. 8.—The day is warm and fair. A large vote is being polled. The George vote is not as large as labor leaders expect. At 1 p. m. two-thirds of the votes had been cast.

ROCHESTER, Nov. 8.—The weather is fine. The vote is not quite up to the average. Cook, dem., for Secretary of State, is leading by a good margin. Indications are that the prohibition vote will be double that of last year. The George vote is less than was claimed for it.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The city is quiet, voting going on earnestly. Up to 11 o'clock in a majority of districts one-third of the votes had been polled. Reserve police were held at headquarters to answer any call, and patrol wagons were ready for their transportation.
TROYS, Nov. 8.—The allegation that repeaters attempted to vote at had a plurality of 42,851 in a total vote of 519,275. The campaign throughout the State has not been a particularly active one and a heavy vote is not anticipated. In this city, however, the campaign has been one of the most exciting and bitter of the past decade.

Ohio Election.
[By telegraph to the Asheville Citizen.]
CINCINNATI, Nov. 8.—The election in Ohio to-day is for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Judges of the Supreme Court, Auditor, Treasurer, Attorney General, Member of Board of Public Works, Members of the General Assembly, and county and township officers. There are four tickets before the people, Republican, Democratic, Union Labor and Prohibition. The weather is pleasant all over the State. In this city a heavy vote is being polled for Governor in the morning. Not a single arrest is reported up to 11 a. m. A woman is at the polls in one precinct of the 21st ward holding tickets for the Union Labor party.

Maryland Elections.
[By telegraph to the Asheville Citizen.]
BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—The election in this State so far as heard from, 1 o'clock y. m. is proceeding quietly thus far. The number of persons about the precinct is very small, and a stranger would hardly suspect that an important election was in hand. Up to this time colored voters who usually vote early, have not gone to the polls, except in small number. They may exercise their right later in the day. In the First and Second legislative districts of the city, democrats are confident of success, while the Third district is in doubt, having gone republican in the late municipal election.

Up to 1 o'clock this afternoon perfect quiet prevailed throughout the city and police arrangements are such as probably to prevent disorder. It is not expected the vote will be as large as that of the municipal election two weeks ago. Democrats now express confidence in getting a majority of from six to eight thousand, while many republicans, concede the city by a smaller majority. So far meagre intelligence from the counties indicates a quiet election.

THE VIRGINIANS POLLING A SHORT VOTE—DEMOCRATIC VICTORY STRONGLY INDICATED.
[By telegraph to the Asheville Citizen.]
HARRISBURG, Nov. 8.—There is a large vote being polled here. Reports from other precincts in the country are to same effect. Democrats are very sanguine and Republicans are equally so. Several small fights have occurred, but no one was seriously hurt. Weather fine.

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Nov. 8.—The weather fair and pleasant. Voting progressing quietly. Indications are that a large vote will be polled and that the democratic candidates will be elected.

WINCHESTER, Nov. 8.—The weather fair, all quiet, and there is a falling off in the republican vote owing to dissatisfaction among both whites and negroes. Democrats appear to be polling their full strength. Indications are that in this city it will be close, and with chances in favor of the Democrats. Republicans have carried it by good majorities for several years.

ALEXANDRIA, Nov. 8.—The day opened cloudy but the sun soon came out with a balmy atmosphere. A very full vote is being polled, and there has been no disturbance whatever, up to this hour, nor is there likely to be any. Both parties are in good humor. Indications are that the vote will be close.

NORFOLK, Nov. 8.—Norfolk City elects two delegates to the Legislature and Portsmouth one. Portsmouth will go democratic as usual. Weather cloudy but pleasant and voting in this city is progressing actively and gently now, although one precinct in the fourth colored ward was not opened until twenty minutes to ten, owing to the sickness of one of the democratic judges of election, and the filling of his place by the judge was not acceptable to the republicans. Congressman Geo. E. Bowden was arrested shortly after the precinct opened while arranging colored voters; the democratic judges ruling that he was disturbing the peace. Another republican politician was arrested for interfering with voters in one of the white wards. Both were released upon their own recognizance to appear Friday to answer the charge. Indications are that democrats will reelect their candidates.

TELEGRAPHIC SPARKS.
A fire in Evansville, Ind., on the 8th destroyed the Odd Fellows' Hall and other buildings. Loss about $150,000.
The Indian troubles do not lessen. About 1800 Indians including 400 warriors have escaped, and troops are in pursuit.

There were four new cases and three deaths from yellow fever at Tampa yesterday. There are four cases under treatment at the hospital.

SOMETHING GOOD COMING.
The Templeton Opera Company is to be here on the 14th, 15th and 16th; and of course something good is in store for the playgoer. Among the plays to be presented is Audran's great three-act La Mascotte universally popular in the great cities, but never before presented here.

Possibly Pinafore or some other of Sullivan and Gilbert's pieces, which never tire, will be presented on one of the three nights performance of this opera company which stands very high on the list of good standard companies.

Hoosier this morning was charged to be false, and a lively row ensued, in which the police took an active part. The town is in a ferment bordering on a riot and the authorities have asked the sheriff for a posse of deputies to quiet any disturbance.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The United Labor people are as energetic as last year, but indications seem to point to a reduced vote for their ticket. It seems as though Louis F. Post, candidate for District Attorney was running somewhat ahead of his ticket, but careful observers have been heard to say that he must land a poor third—John Swinton who is running for the Senate is evidently polling a good vote on the east side, and professes confidence in his election.

TROY, Nov. 8.—The election is progressing quietly. Republican inspectors who refused to sign lists because of the presence of alleged crooked names signed the books this morning under an order of Justice Ingalls. Names of dead men, etc., were erased in nearly all wards except the eighth, where inspectors still refuse to sign the lists, the order not having been served on them. Votes were taken in the presence of all inspectors. A big vote is being polled.

BUFFALO, Nov. 8.—The weather is very favorable for the election. The sun shone bright and clear most of the morning, and the temperature was mild. Voting is progressing quietly. The prospects are that a large vote will be polled. Labor Democrat, for Attorney General, is running ahead of his ticket, and a very large vote is being cast for Carmichael, Rep., for State Treasurer.

THE VIRGINIA ELECTION.
[By telegraph to the Asheville Citizen.]
