Judge Bond decides the drummers' tax law of North Carolina unconstitutional. The State appeals.
The Asheville Gas Light Company have placed gas lights in the Farmers' Warehouse, greatly to the convenience of the house. This gas makes a beautiful light, truly.
We had the pleasure yesterday of a call from Mr. Morris Bear, of Wilmington, returning home after a visit of some weeks to points beyond this in Western North Carolina.
Our several China emporiums are certainly very attractive and beautiful, especially at night. Large numbers of ladies call every night to see the beauties by gas or electric light.

SPLENDID SALE OF TOBACCO.
Messrs. W. B. Prater and Ebbs, of Spring Creek, Madison county, sold at the Farmers' Warehouse, Wednesday 12 lots of tobacco, 644 pounds altogether, at prices ranging from $7.75 to $7.77, total $248.86, an average of $38.64 per hundred. This is extraordinary, and we believe the highest average for so much tobacco yet obtained.
A DISTINGUISHED ASHEVILLE ABROAD.
The Knoxville Journal says: "Charles Cummins is a common looking colored boy, eleven years of age, who has been in the city some time. He came from Asheville, N. C., and recently has shown wonderful intellect. He speaks as fluently as a college professor and is a natural born poet. The boy is a loafer on the streets."

what course the Republicans proposed to pursue; and the committee will in the meantime attempt to see if anything can be learned on the subject. Members of the Democratic caucus say their party is firm in the conviction that the two Senators named should be sworn in when other new Senators are; and they are yet unaware of any purpose on the part of the Republicans to prevent it. It cannot be learned that the Republicans have considered the subject except as individuals; and it is certain that no line of action has been mapped out. The usual course of procedure is to swear in new Senators, two at a time, in the order in which their names stand on the alphabetical list. The two parties are exactly equal in strength at the start; but with the administration of the oath to the first Senator on the list, the Republicans will have a majority, and can of course control the current of events. If no dilatory proceedings are resorted to, it is evident that members of both parties are studying the rules and precedents closely with the view to meeting any attempt by their opponents to secure an advantage, but without knowing exactly as yet what they are to guard against. The Democrats have caused telegrams to be sent to their absentees, summoning them to be present to-morrow and Monday. The absentees to-day were Senators Pierson, Hearst, Blodgett, Hampton, Gibson, Calhoun and Sulzbury. Two or three of the number, however, are already in Washington.

TO HAVE THE STREET RAILWAY—ACTION OF THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN LAST NIGHT.
The Mayor and Board of Aldermen had a regular meeting last night, all members being present. The question of granting the privilege to Mr. Farinhold to construct a street railway, heretofore alluded to in the CITIZEN, was up for consideration. After full discussion, the ordinance, in the nature of a contract, passed its first and second readings. The proposition of Mr. Farinhold is a reasonable one, and meets with approval. Our city greatly needs this very important improvement, and we are sure it will pay the company, as well as the city. Everything now promises to work smoothly, and, if so, Mr. F. thinks he will have the cars running from the depot to the square in a mid-winter. Let the work be facilitated with all energy.

Weather Indications.
North Carolina—Warmer, threatening weather, followed by rain, light to fresh northerly winds, becoming variable.
Full line of canned goods and a nice lot of Bulk Pickles, just received by W. B. Anderson & Co.
W. B. Anderson & Co.'s is headquarters for fire-works. Fire crackers $1.25 per box, 40 packs in the box.
Mr. Thos. K. Davis Jr., of the Hendersonville Times, is in the city. He reports his town as lively and rapidly improving.
Mr. Locke Craig ran down to the city from his Bear's Den on Black Mountain yesterday. His many friends were pleased to meet him.
Mr. J. H. Atkins, the town builder of Western North Carolina who is doing good work at the new town of Neno, McDowell county, is in the city for a few days. He says McDowell is growing rapidly in population and enterprise.

Our friend Caldwell, of the Statesville Landmark, suggests that but for the law of our State which forbids a person to "sing" in religious worship according to his inclinations and ability, regardless of consequences to the dignity of the proceedings of worship, some person or persons should be prosecuted. Is Bro. Caldwell sheltering himself behind this law?
Mr. J. C. Watkins, of Webster Station, is in the city, at the Grand Central. He gives us several items of interest about his growing place. He says that Mr. W. A. Dills has begun the erection of a long contemplated addition to his "Alleghany Hotel," which provides for an increase of thirty rooms. Mr. Fowler, of New York, has begun the erection of a handsome dwelling, and also a factory for the manufacture of porcelain and china ware, designing to employ about 100 operatives. The kaolin is obtained from several extensive deposits in Jackson county.
Mr. Watkins also speaks of large and remunerative shipments of potatoes, onions and other vegetables to southern points. Hitherto these things have found no market. Now, they, and other perishable products, through railroad facilities, are readily disposed of.

TRANSFER AND NEW FIRM.
Mr. W. S. Robertson, of the hardware firm of Watkins, Cottrell & Co., of Richmond, Va., has bought out the interest of Brevard & Blanton, successors to T. I. Vangilder. The firm name of the new house will be I. E. Dickinson & Co., and Mr. Robertson will have general charge. Mr. Jas. Webb—Big Jim—and Mr. Robert Long, connected with the business for many years, will remain with the new firm.
SWAIN COUNTY JAIL BROKEN.
Mr. J. B. Conley writes us from Charleston under date of yesterday that the jail of Swain county was broken open the night before, and three prisoners sent there by the Federal Court for safe keeping freed themselves by filing two bars which they prized off. Mr. Conley says the commissioners will hardly consent to put in a new cage. The present one cost $2,100, and the first man put in got out the first night.

A GOOD SALE BY A GOOD FARMER.
Yesterday Mr. H. M. Ray, a tenant of Mr. C. L. McPeters, of Marshall, on his farm on McEroy's creek, Yancey county, sold at the Farmers' Warehouse 790 pounds of tobacco for $216.40, embracing several grades, at the following rates per hundred: $51.43, $30, $14.25 and $28. The sale was the proceeds of two acres, minus one barn destroyed by frost.
Besides this Mr. Ray raised on 16 acres 700 bushels of corn, 117 bushels of wheat and 22 stacks of hay. Two years ago, when he took possession of the farm, it was in bushes, and generally in bad order.
Again we say Mr. Ray is a good farmer.

Invited to the large array of popular remedies to be found at Pelham's Pharmacy, near the post office. It is a rule with this house to keep any thing that is wanted in the drug line, provided it has any merits. We advise our friends in the country that when in want of any medicines to try Pelham's Drug Store. They fill physicians' prescriptions at low prices. The quality of their goods is unequalled. They handle a full line of sundries such as drug stores usually carry. Theirs is a complete assortment.
Solid silverware at Cowan's, 27-1 w. Cowan, the "old reliable," has the largest stock of plain gold and set rings in the city.
The lovers of pure corn whiskey can no better than at Bob Jones'. The set wines and liquors can also be found there.

Burning of Eminence, Ky.
Louisville, Dec. 2.—Kews was received in this city at 2:30 this morning of the partial destruction of Eminence, Ky., by fire. The flames were still raging at the hour of going to press. About one third of the business portion of the place is being consumed. No chance of checking the conflagration existed, the only hope being that the wind might not carry the flames beyond the block which was burning. The fire began in Duncan's jewelry store, and was under good headway before discovered. The town was alarmed, and all the citizens turned out, and every possible endeavor was made to confine the flames to the jewelry store, but to no avail. The wind was blowing hard and the flames were communicated to Miller's grocery, then to the Town Hall, Moody & Proctor's drug store, Marr & Brewer's lumber and coal yard, O'Connell's butcher shop, and a large carriage factory. All except the latter were completely destroyed and the flames were rapidly consuming it at the last accounts, with many other places in immediate danger. There were but little hopes that the flames could be checked before the entire row of business houses would be destroyed. No estimate of the loss can yet be given.

Paris Quiet.
Paris, 12 m. Dec. 2.—Everything is quiet throughout the city this far. The police declare that they arrested M. Paul Derronville and Louise Michel yesterday to save them from violence of the crowd. The papers are generally of the opinion that after the events of yesterday, President Grey cannot postpone his resignation. They approve the attitude of the chambers as calm and dignified. La Salle declares that President Grey's action in deferring his resignation was especially aimed at M. Terry. Some of the papers believe the events of yesterday will restore union among the Republicans.

President Grey has Resigned.
Paris, Dec. 2, 1:30 p. m.—President Grey's resignation has been presented to the presidents of the Senate and Chambers of Deputies. It will be read at the opening of the sitting of chambers. President Grey's Message of Resignation.
Paris, 2:20 p. m.—President Grey's message of resigning the Presidency of the Republic, has just been read in the Chamber of Deputies. In it M. Grey says he regards the votes taken in the Senate and Chamber of Deputies yesterday as a legislative demonstration necessitating his resignation. After recalling his services to the country which assured tranquility at home and peace abroad, he declared that he leaves the office with feeling of sadness, while declining to be responsible for future events.

Dublin, Dec. 2.—The second trial of Lord Mayor Sullivan for printing in his paper reports of suppressed branches of the national league took place to-day and resulted in conviction. Mr. Sullivan was sentenced to two months imprisonment, but without labor.
Democratic Caucuses.
Washington, Dec. 2.—A caucus of Democratic Senators was held to-day to which an informal report of the caucus committee was submitted respecting the admission of Senators Turpie, of Indiana, and Fauquier, of West Virginia. The matter was discussed at considerable length, but as several members of the caucus were absent, no line of action was sketched, and further discussion of the subject was put over until to-morrow at 12 o'clock, to which hour the caucus adjourned. If no dilatory proceedings are resorted to, it is evident that members of both parties are studying the rules and precedents closely with the view to meeting any attempt by their opponents to secure an advantage, but without knowing exactly as yet what they are to guard against. The Democrats have caused telegrams to be sent to their absentees, summoning them to be present to-morrow and Monday. The absentees to-day were Senators Pierson, Hearst, Blodgett, Hampton, Gibson, Calhoun and Sulzbury. Two or three of the number, however, are already in Washington.

TO HAVE THE STREET RAILWAY—ACTION OF THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN LAST NIGHT.
The Mayor and Board of Aldermen had a regular meeting last night, all members being present. The question of granting the privilege to Mr. Farinhold to construct a street railway, heretofore alluded to in the CITIZEN, was up for consideration. After full discussion, the ordinance, in the nature of a contract, passed its first and second readings. The proposition of Mr. Farinhold is a reasonable one, and meets with approval. Our city greatly needs this very important improvement, and we are sure it will pay the company, as well as the city. Everything now promises to work smoothly, and, if so, Mr. F. thinks he will have the cars running from the depot to the square in a mid-winter. Let the work be facilitated with all energy.

SPLENDID SALE OF TOBACCO.
Messrs. W. B. Prater and Ebbs, of Spring Creek, Madison county, sold at the Farmers' Warehouse, Wednesday 12 lots of tobacco, 644 pounds altogether, at prices ranging from $7.75 to $7.77, total $248.86, an average of $38.64 per hundred. This is extraordinary, and we believe the highest average for so much tobacco yet obtained.
A DISTINGUISHED ASHEVILLE ABROAD.
The Knoxville Journal says: "Charles Cummins is a common looking colored boy, eleven years of age, who has been in the city some time. He came from Asheville, N. C., and recently has shown wonderful intellect. He speaks as fluently as a college professor and is a natural born poet. The boy is a loafer on the streets."

Paris All Quiet, But the Police and Military Ready for Trouble.
Burning of Eminence, Ky.
Louisville, Dec. 2.—Kews was received in this city at 2:30 this morning of the partial destruction of Eminence, Ky., by fire. The flames were still raging at the hour of going to press. About one third of the business portion of the place is being consumed. No chance of checking the conflagration existed, the only hope being that the wind might not carry the flames beyond the block which was burning. The fire began in Duncan's jewelry store, and was under good headway before discovered. The town was alarmed, and all the citizens turned out, and every possible endeavor was made to confine the flames to the jewelry store, but to no avail. The wind was blowing hard and the flames were communicated to Miller's grocery, then to the Town Hall, Moody & Proctor's drug store, Marr & Brewer's lumber and coal yard, O'Connell's butcher shop, and a large carriage factory. All except the latter were completely destroyed and the flames were rapidly consuming it at the last accounts, with many other places in immediate danger. There were but little hopes that the flames could be checked before the entire row of business houses would be destroyed. No estimate of the loss can yet be given.

Paris Quiet.
Paris, 12 m. Dec. 2.—Everything is quiet throughout the city this far. The police declare that they arrested M. Paul Derronville and Louise Michel yesterday to save them from violence of the crowd. The papers are generally of the opinion that after the events of yesterday, President Grey cannot postpone his resignation. They approve the attitude of the chambers as calm and dignified. La Salle declares that President Grey's action in deferring his resignation was especially aimed at M. Terry. Some of the papers believe the events of yesterday will restore union among the Republicans.

President Grey has Resigned.
Paris, Dec. 2, 1:30 p. m.—President Grey's resignation has been presented to the presidents of the Senate and Chambers of Deputies. It will be read at the opening of the sitting of chambers. At 12:20 p. m. the members of the Chamber of Deputies. The police have cleared the approaches to the building and have stopped traffic in the vicinity.
President Grey's Message of Resignation.
Paris, 2:20 p. m.—President Grey's message of resigning the Presidency of the Republic, has just been read in the Chamber of Deputies. In it M. Grey says he regards the votes taken in the Senate and Chamber of Deputies yesterday as a legislative demonstration necessitating his resignation. After recalling his services to the country which assured tranquility at home and peace abroad, he declared that he leaves the office with feeling of sadness, while declining to be responsible for future events.

Lord Mayor Sullivan Convicted.
Dublin, Dec. 2.—The second trial of Lord Mayor Sullivan for printing in his paper reports of suppressed branches of the national league took place to-day and resulted in conviction. Mr. Sullivan was sentenced to two months imprisonment, but without labor.
Democratic Caucuses.
Washington, Dec. 2.—A caucus of Democratic Senators was held to-day to which an informal report of the caucus committee was submitted respecting the admission of Senators Turpie, of Indiana, and Fauquier, of West Virginia. The matter was discussed at considerable length, but as several members of the caucus were absent, no line of action was sketched, and further discussion of the subject was put over until to-morrow at 12 o'clock, to which hour the caucus adjourned. The caucus is confronted with a doubt as to what course the Republicans proposed to pursue; and the committee will in the meantime attempt to see if anything can be learned on the subject. Members of the Democratic caucus say their party is firm in the conviction that the two Senators named should be sworn in when other new Senators are; and they are yet unaware of any purpose on the part of the Republicans to prevent it. It cannot be learned that the Republicans have considered the subject except as individuals; and it is certain that no line of action has been mapped out. The usual course of procedure is to swear in new Senators, two at a time, in the order in which their names stand on the alphabetical list. The two parties are exactly equal in strength at the start; but with the administration of the oath to the first Senator on the list, the Republicans will have a majority, and can of course control the current of events. If no dilatory proceedings are resorted to, it is evident that members of both parties are studying the rules and precedents closely with the view to meeting any attempt by their opponents to secure an advantage, but without knowing exactly as yet what they are to guard against. The Democrats have caused telegrams to be sent to their absentees, summoning them to be present to-morrow and Monday.
